Every railroad company whose lines run through or into the District of Columbia shall annually furnish to the said assessor a statement showing the name and address of every car company, mercantile company, corporation, or individual (other than railroad, parlor-car and sleeping-car companies described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection) whose cars made mileage over its tracks in the District of Columbia during the calendar year next preceding the tax date, and the total number of miles made within the District of Columbia by each during said period.

It shall be the duty of the said assessor to ascertain from the best and most reliable information that can be obtained and from said statements the number of cars required to make the total mileage of each such car company, mercantile company, corporation, or individual within the District of Columbia during the period aforesaid, and to ascertain and fix the valuation upon each particular class of such cars, and the number so ascertained to be required to make the total mileage within the District of Columbia of the cars of each such car company, mercantile company, corporation, or individual within said period shall be assessed against the respective car companies, mercantile companies, corporations, or individuals. The valuation thus obtained shall be the full and true value and shall be the taxable portion of the cars owned by any such car company, mercantile company, corporation, or individual and used within the District of Columbia.

(d) All of the provisions of law relating to the filing of returns, assessment, payment, and collection of personal property taxes in the District of Columbia shall be applicable to the companies described in the foregoing subsections.

(e) Any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, or corporation aggrieved by any assessment of taxes made pursuant to the provisions of this section may appeal therefrom to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407 to 47–2411.

(f) The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the taxable year beginning July 1, 1945, and each taxable year thereafter. (Dec. 15, 1945, 59 Stat. 610, ch. 579.)

Chapter 13.—ENFORCEMENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES BY DISTRAINT OR LEVY

Sec.

47–1301. Distraint of property for nonpayment of taxes—Sale—Disposition of surplus.
47–1302. Sale of distrained goods for nonpayment of taxes.
47–1303. Penalties.
47–1304. Remedies for collection of intangible tax—Common-law and equitable remedies available for collection of all taxes and assessments.
47–1305. Sale of real estate to satisfy personal tax.

§ 47–1301 [20: 771]. Distraint of property for nonpayment of taxes—Sale—Disposition of surplus.

When the taxes on personal property due and payable in each year shall not be paid as provided in section 47–1209, then and in that event the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, or his deputy, may distrain sufficient goods and chattels found within the District of Columbia and belonging to the person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee charged with such tax to pay the taxes remaining due, under the provisions of this law, from such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee, together with the penalty thereon and the costs that may accrue; and for want of such goods and chattels said collector of taxes may levy upon and sell at auction the estate and interest of such person, firm, association, corporation, company, administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee in any parcel of land in said District; and in the case of the levy on any estate or interest in land the proceedings subsequent to sale thereof shall be the same as provided by law in the case of sales for arrears of taxes against real estate; and in the case of distraint of personal property or the levy upon real estate as aforesaid the collector of taxes shall immediately proceed to advertise the same by public notice to be posted in the office of said collector and by advertisement, three times within one week, in one or more of the daily newspapers published in said District, stating the time when and the place where such property shall be sold, the last publication to be at least six days before the date of sale, and if the said taxes and penalty thereon, and the costs and expenses which shall have accrued thereon, shall not be paid before the day fixed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after said levy or taking of said property, the collector shall proceed to sell at public auction, such property, or so much thereof as may be needed to pay such taxes, penalty, and accrued costs and expenses of such distraint and sale. Said collector shall report in detail, in writing, every distraint and sale of personal property to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their successors in office, and his accounts in respect to every such distraint or sale shall forthwith be submitted to the auditor of the District of Columbia and be audited by him. Any surplus resulting from such sale over and above such taxes, costs, and expenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and upon being claimed by the owner or owners of the goods and chattels aforesaid shall be paid to him or them upon the certificate of the collector of taxes stating in full the amount of such excess. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 621, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 12.)

Compiler's Note

This chapter is not repealed by the provisions of chapter 14 of this title, § 47–1409.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

In General

There is no provision in the statute for a lien on personal property; there is no provision of the statute to assess taxes on personal property when the owner is unknown; and there is no provision for the assessing of personal property taxes after the end of the current fiscal year. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

Property To Be Distrained

Any goods and chattels of the person charged with the taxes may be distrained. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

§ 47–1302 [20: 772]. Sale of distrained goods for nonpayment of taxes.

When the collector of taxes shall distrain any goods and chattels in order to enforce payment of such taxes, the goods and chattels so seized shall be kept in a safe and convenient place until the day of the sale thereof; and the sale of said goods and chattels shall be at public auction, at such place as the collector of taxes may designate: Provided, however, That no such goods and chattels shall be sold upon any bid not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs; but in case the highest bid therefor is not sufficient to meet the amount of tax, penalty, and costs thereon, said property thereupon shall be bid off by the said collector of taxes in the name of and by the District of Columbia, and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may sell the same at private sale to satisfy the tax penalty, and cost thereafter without further notice. (Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

§ 47–1303 [20: 773]. Penalties.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections 47–1201 to 47–1214, 47–1301 to 47–1305, and 47–1701 to 47–1709 shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense, said penalty to be imposed, upon conviction in the police court of the District of Columbia, as other fines and penalties are imposed, and said court is hereby invested with jurisdiction thereof; and in default of the payment of said penalty the person or persons so convicted shall be imprisoned, in the discretion of the court, not exceeding six months. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 18.)

CROSS REFERENCE

False returns, penalties, § 47–1203.

§ 47–1304 [20: 774]. Remedies for collection of intangible tax—Common-law and equitable remedies available for collection of all taxes and assessments.

The remedies provided in sections 47–1201 to 47–1214, 47–1301 to 47–1305, 47–1701 to 47–1709 for the collection of taxes on tangible personal property, shall be available also for the collection of taxes on intangible property.

In addition to the statutory remedies, all common-law and all equitable remedies shall also be available, either separately or concurrently with statutory remedies, as may be deemed advisable, for the collection of all taxes and special assessments of any kind whatsoever. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The first paragraph of this section will become obsolete when all intangible personal property taxes accrued or due prior to July 1, 1939, are collected. See note to § 47–1201. It is retained here because it indicates the law applicable to the collection of such prior taxes.

§ 47–1305 [20: 775]. Sale of real estate to satisfy personal tax.

Where real estate is levied upon for the nonpayment of personal taxes of any kind, and the best price offered at an auction sale is not sufficient to pay taxes, interest, and penalties, said real estate may be sold under decree of the equity court as provided by law. (Feb. 18, 1929, 45 Stat. 1226, ch. 259, § 2.)

47–1411. Collection of personal property taxes—Definitions.
47–1412. Collection of personal property taxes—Secrecy of returns.

§ 47–1401 [20: 965]. Examinations and hearings by assessor—Examination of books—Proceedings brought in police court.

The assessor of the District of Columbia or any person designated by him for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return of personal property, tangible or intangible, for taxation or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the assessor, or assistant assessor, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the assessor, or any assistant assessor, may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witness may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title I, § 1; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 356, ch. 223, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The first sentence of the act of August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690 (cited to the text) provided that "This Act divided into titles and sections may be cited as the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937." That act is set forth in §§ 40–101 to 40–105, 47–1401 to 47–1412, 47–1601 to 47–1629, 47–1801 to 47–1808, 47–1901 to 47–1903, 47–1905, 47–1907, 47–1908, 47–1911, 47–2501 to 47–2504.

The first sentence of the act of July 26, 1939 (53 Stat. 1085–1119, ch. 367) provided that "This Act divided into titles and sections may be cited as the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1939." That act is set forth in sections 11–332, 47–134, 47–1204, 47–1211, 47–1501 to 47–1543, 47–1601 to 47–1629, 47–1701, 47–2402, 47–2403, 47–2405, 47–2412, 47–2501, 47–2503.

Section 47–2501 (part of the revenue acts of 1937 and 1939) provides for the advancement of funds on requisition of commissioners, notwithstanding provisions of the District Appropriation Act of June 29, 1922.

Section 47–2502 gives the Commissioner authority to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the revenue acts of 1937 and 1939.

Section 47–2503 provides as follows: "If any provision of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 and the Revenue Act of 1939, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

AMENDMENT

The 1938 amendment added the words "of any person" after the word "memoranda" the first time it appears, and the last two sentences.

CROSS REFERENCE

Provisions of this chapter apply to collection of income taxes, § 47–1527.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

In exercising its power to legislate for the District of Columbia, Congress acts as a legislature of national character and is not subject to constitutional limitations imposed on State legislatures, and, therefore, this statute (50 Stat. 673, 688) is not invalid as a violation of the commerce clause or the 14th amendment. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

This statute (50 Stat. 673, 688) is an exercise of the power of Congress to legislate for the District of Columbia and not an exercise of its power to regulate commerce, and, therefore, is not invalid on the theory that the burden imposed must be uniform throughout the Nation, or that the exercise of this power is improvident. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

LIEN FOR DELINQUENT TAXES

Congress took notice of the problem of taxes on personalty and among other things provided a method for the obtainment of a lien against a taxpayer delinquent in the payment of personal property taxes. Tumulty v. District of Columbia (69 App. D. C. 390, 102 Fed. (2d) 254).

POWER TO TAX

The delegation to Congress of power to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases over the District of Columbia, includes the power to tax. Neild v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 306, 110 Fed. (2d) 246).

§ 47–1402 [20: 965a]. Collection of personal property taxes—Neglect or refusal to pay, collection by distraint—Levy—Public notice of intended sale—Sale to be public—Report—Disposition of surplus above taxes.

If any person liable to pay any personal property tax to the District of Columbia neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the collector of taxes for the District of Columbia, or any person designated by him, to collect the said taxes, with interest and penalties thereon, by distraint and sale in the manner hereinafter provided, of the goods, chattels, or effects, including stocks, securities, bank accounts, evidences of debt, and credits of the person delinquent as aforesaid. In case of such neglect or refusal of the person delinquent as aforesaid the collector, or the person designated by him, may levy upon all such property and rights to such property belonging to such person for the payment of the sum due with interest and penalties thereon and the costs that may accrue and the collector of taxes shall immediately proceed to advertise the same by public notice to be posted in the office of said collector and by advertisement three times in one week in one or more daily newspapers in said District, stating the time when and the place where such property shall be sold, the last publication to be at least six days before the date of sale and if the said taxes, with interest and penalties thereon, and the costs and expenses which shall have accrued thereon, shall not be paid before the date fixed for such sale, which shall not be less than ten days after said levy or taking of said property, the collector shall proceed to sell at public auction such property or interest therein or so much thereof as may be needed to pay such taxes, interest, penalties, and accrued costs and expenses of such distraint and sale. Said collector shall report in detail in writing every distraint and sale of personal property to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and his accounts in respect of every such distraint or sale shall forthwith be submitted to the auditor of the District of Columbia and shall be audited by him. Any surplus resulting from such sale over and above such taxes, interest, penalties, costs, and expenses shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, and upon being claimed by the owner or owners of the property aforesaid shall be paid to him or them by the accounting officers of said District upon the certificate of the collector of taxes stating in full the amount of such excess. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title I, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 act provided, "The taxes to which this title relates shall be assessed within four years after such taxes became due and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of five years after such taxes became due. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, or of a failure to file a return within the time required by law, the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment at any time. Where the assessment of any tax to which this title relates has been made within such statutory period of limitation, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court only if begun within six years after the assessment of the tax."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Under this section and section 1409 of this title, an additional assessment of business privilege tax could properly be made after tax year during which tax was assessed and paid, the same as additional assessments of intangible personal property taxes could be made after tax years in which they were assessed and paid, and the Board of Tax Appeals had authority to affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase assessments. Maryland & Virginia Milk Producers' Ass'n v. District of Columbia, 1941 (119 F. 2d 787, 73 App. D. C. 399, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 87, 314 U. S. 646, 86 L. Ed. 518).

A taxpayer had no "vested right" in the fruits of incorrect or incomplete returns made for intangible personal property tax purposes for fiscal years ended on June 30 in 1936, 1937, and 1938, and this section and section 1409 of this title and additional assessments made under their authority in August 1938, imposed no new taxes but merely provided a new remedy in addition to remedies available, as against contention that, because taxpayer made returns and paid during fiscal years in question taxes assessed during those years, assessors could not after those years make additional assessments. Maryland & Virginia Milk Producers' Ass'n v. District of Columbia, 1941 (119 F. 2d 787, 73 App. D. C. 399, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 87, 314 U. S. 646, 86 L. Ed. 518).

§ 47–1409 [20: 965h]. Collection of personal property taxes—Remedies under this chapter considered additional.

The remedies provided by this chapter for the collection of personal property taxes are in addition to any other remedies available for the collection of said taxes. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title I, § 9.)

§ 47–1410 [20: 965i]. Collection of personal property taxes—Failure to file return—Penalty.

Any person required to file a return or schedule, by the terms of an act entitled "An Act making appropriation[s] to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1902, as amended, who shall fail or refuse to file the same within the time required by said Act as amended shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or refusal and each and every day that such failure or refusal continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the police court of the District of Columbia on information by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia in the name of the District of Columbia. The penalty herein provided shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in said Act of July 1, 1902, as amended. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 10, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

§ 47–1411 [20: 965j]. Collection of personal property taxes—Definitions.

As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation (domestic or foreign), trust, trustee, estate, or receiver.

(b) The term "return" means any return required to be filed by said sections of this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 11, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

§ 47–1412 [20: 965k]. Collection of personal property taxes—Secrecy of returns.

Except in accordance with proper judicial order and as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or any persons having an administrative duty under this title to divulge or make known in any manner any information contained in any return required under this chapter. The persons charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to produce any of them in any action or proceeding in any court except on behalf of the United States or the District of Columbia or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter, when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, in either of which events the court may require the production of and may admit in evidence so much of such returns or the facts shown thereby as are pertinent to the action or proceeding, and no more. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return filed by him in connection with his tax, nor prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants of the return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty and failure to file any return or schedule required by law. Any violator of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the punishment provided by section 47–1410 of this title. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, § 12, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 357, ch. 223, § 1 (c).)

EXTENT OF REPEAL

Section 1 of Article I, Title I of the Act July 16, 1947, provided:

"SEC. 1. Repeal of prior income tax act.—The District of Columbia Income Tax Act as approved and enacted July 26, 1939, and as amended, is hereby repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after the 1st day of January 1947 for all purposes, except the following purposes in connection with taxes due or accrued under said District of Columbia Income Tax Act:

(a) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with any provisions of such Act and the regulations prescribed thereunder;

(b) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such Act;

(c) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses;

(d) For the assessment and collection of the taxes imposed by such Act, and the filing of liens therefor; and

(e) For the allowance of refunds of overpayments of any taxes assessed under the provisions of such Act."

NOTES TO DECISIONS PRIOR TO REPEAL

CAPITAL ASSETS

The Board of Tax Appeals did not consider certain phases of the case obviously for the reason that the District of Columbia statute does not levy a tax on gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Hence, the Board was not concerned with the taxability of the exchange in a reorganization. Seaboard Realty v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 184 F. 2d 269).

INTENTION

For District of Columbia income tax purposes, a person in government employ here does not retain his former domicile unless he has a fixed and definite intent to return to it, since without any intent one way or the other, he is domiciled here if he is here. Arbaugh v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 28, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 97).

INTERPRETATIONS UNDER FEDERAL LAW

The local statute requires that the District assessor apply as far as possible the administrative and judicial interpretations of the federal income tax law, so that computations of income for purposes of this title shall be, as nearly as possible, identical with the calculations required for federal income tax purposes. The District Board of Tax Appeals should first ascertain what the federal disposition of the basic question in this case was and then determine what effect should be given that determination in the specific matter of local taxes. Seaboard Realty v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 184 F. 2d 269).

SALE OR EXCHANGE

Where a sum of money was paid by the lessors to the lessee who consented to cancel a lease that had some years to run, such transaction was not a sale or exchange of capital assets and gains therefrom were taxable, since a lease that is cancelled is not transferred but terminated and termination or destruction is not a sale or exchange. United Cigar-Whalen Stores Corp. v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 952, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 301).

TRADE OR BUSINESS

The finding of the Board of Tax Appeals that houses, at and before the times of the sales, were held by petitioner primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of petitioner's "trade or business" was correct, since they were not capital assets within the meaning of the statute and proceeds therefrom were taxable as income. Riggs Development Co. v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1950, 184 F. 2d 698).

ARTICLE I.—INCOME AND FRANCHISE TAX

TITLE I.—REPEAL OF PRIOR INCOME TAX LAW AND APPLICABILITY OF THIS ARTICLE; GENERAL DEFINITIONS

§ 47–1551. Repeal of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547, and retention of certain provisions thereof.

Sections 47–1501 to 47–1547 are hereby repealed with respect to taxable years or portions thereof beginning on and after the 1st day of January 1947 for all purposes, except the following purposes in connection with taxes due or accrued under said sections:

(a) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with any provisions of such sections and the regulations prescribed thereunder;

(b) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such sections;

(c) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses;

(d) For the assessment and collection of the taxes imposed by such sections and the filing of liens therefor; and

(e) For the allowance of refunds of overpayments of any taxes assessed under the provisions of such sections. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, Title I, § 1.)

SEPARABILITY CLAUSE

Art. VII of Act July 16, 1947, cited to text, provided:

If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to the other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 47–1551a. Applicability of this article.

The provisions of this Article shall apply to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1947 and to succeeding taxable years. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, Title I, § 2.)

§ 47–1551b. Returns under sections 47–1501 to 47–1547 and returns for first taxable year to which this article is applicable.

If the taxable year of any person ends on the last day of any month other than December prior to the 1st day of January 1947, such person shall file his return for such taxable year under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547, and pay the taxes imposed by said Act on his income for such taxable year at the times specified therefor in said sections. Such taxpayer shall also file his return of income, received or accrued, according to his method of accounting, during the period between the last day of such taxable year and the 1st day of January 1947 under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547, and pay the taxes imposed by said Act on his income for such period at the times specified therefor in said sections. Such portion of such person's income as is received or accrued, according to his method of accounting, during taxable years or parts thereof to which this article is applicable shall be reported and taxed under the provisions of this article: Provided, however, That any person whose taxable year ends subsequent to the 1st day of January 1947 may irrevocably elect to file his return of his income for such entire taxable year and pay the taxes imposed thereon under the provisions of this article. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 331, ch. 258, Art. I, Title I, § 3.)

§ 47–1551c. General definitions.

For the purposes of this article and wherever appearing herein, unless otherwise required by the context—

(a) The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

(b) The word "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

(c) The word "Assessor" means the Assessor of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(d) The word "Collector" means the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia or his duly authorized representative or representatives.

(e) The word "person" means an individual (other than a fiduciary), a fiduciary, a partnership (other than an unincorporated business), an association, an unincorporated business, and a corporation.

(f) The word "individual" means all natural persons (other than fiduciaries), whether married or unmarried.

(g) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, committee, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any other person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(h) The words "trade or business" include the engaging in or carrying on of any trade, business, profession, vocation or calling or commercial activity in the District of Columbia; and include the performance of the functions of a public office: Provided, however, That the words "trade or business" shall not include, for the purposes of this article—

(1) Sales of tangible personal property whereby title to such property passes within or without the District, by a corporation or unincorporated business which does not physically have or maintain an office, warehouse, or other place of business in the District, and which has no officer, agent, or representative having an office or other place of business in the District, during the taxable year; or

(2) Sales of tangible personal property by a corporation or unincorporated business which does not maintain an office or other place of business in the District and which has no office, agent, or representative in the District except for the sole purpose of doing business with the United States, but such corporations and unincorporated businesses shall be subject to the licensing provisions in title XIV of this article.

For purposes of this proviso, the words "agent" or "representative" shall not include any independent broker engaged independently in regularly soliciting orders in the District for sellers and who holds himself out as such.

(i) The word "taxpayer" means any person required by this Article to pay a tax, file a return or report, or apply for a license.

(j) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(k) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year, upon the basis of which the net income of the taxpayer is computed under this Article; if no fiscal year has been established by the taxpayer, they mean the calendar year. The phrase "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a calendar or fiscal year under the provisions of this Article or under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, the period for which such return is made: Provided, however, That no taxpayer may change from a calendar year to a fiscal year or from a fiscal year to a calendar year within any taxable year without the written permission of the Assessor.

(l) The words "capital assets" mean any property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, held by the taxpayer for more than two years (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but do not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the end of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(m) The word "dividend" means any distribution made by a corporation (domestic or foreign) to its stockholders or members, out of its earnings, profits, or surplus (other than paid-in surplus), whenever earned by the corporation and whether made in cash or any other property (other than stock of the same class in the corporation if the recipient of such stock dividend has neither received nor exercised an option to receive such dividend in cash or in property other than stock instead of stock) and whether distributed prior to, during, upon, or after liquidation or dissolution of the corporation: Provided, however, That in the case of any dividend which is distributed other than in cash or stock in the same class in the corporation and not exempted from tax under this article, the basis of tax to the recipient thereof shall be the market value of such property at the time of such distribution: And provided, however, That the word "dividend" shall not include any dividend paid by a mutual life insurance company to its shareholders.

(n) The word "stock" includes a share in any association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(o) The word "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(p) The words "include", "includes", or "including", when used in a definition contained in this article, shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the word or words defined.

(q) The word "deficiency" as used in this Article with respect to any tax imposed by this article means—

(1) the amount or amounts by which the tax imposed by this article as determined by the Assessor exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; or

(2) the amount assessed as a tax by the Assessor if no return is filed by the taxpayer.

(r) The word "corporation" includes any trust, association, joint-stock company, or partnership which is classed or should be classed as a corporation for purposes of Federal income taxation.

(s) The word "resident" means every individual domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year, and every other individual who maintains a place of abode within the District for more than seven months of the taxable year, whether domiciled in the District or not. The word "resident" shall not include any elective officer of the Government of the United States or any employee on the staff of an elected officer in the legislative branch of the Government of the United States if such employee is a bona fide resident of the State of residence of such elected officer, or any officer of the executive branch of such Government whose appointment to the office held by him was by the President of the United States and subject to confirmation by the Senate of the United States and whose tenure of office is at the pleasure of the President of the United States, unless such officers are domiciled within the District on the last day of the taxable year.

(t) The word "nonresident" means every individual other than a resident.

(u) The term "dependent" means any of the following persons over half of whose support, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, was received from the taxpayer:

(1) A son or daughter of the taxpayer, or a descendant of either.

(2) A stepson or stepdaughter of the taxpayer.

(3) A brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the taxpayer.

(4) The father or mother of the taxpayer, or an ancestor of either.

(5) A stepfather or stepmother of the taxpayer.

(6) A son or daughter of a brother or sister of the taxpayer.

(7) A brother or sister of the father or mother of the taxpayer.

(8) A son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the taxpayer.

(9) The spouse of the taxpayer, if living with the taxpayer on the last day of the taxable year.

The terms "brother" and "sister" include a brother or sister of the half-blood. For the purposes of determining whether any of the foregoing relationships exist, a legally adopted child of a person shall be considered a child of such person by blood. The term "dependent" does not include any individual who is a citizen or subject of a foreign country unless such individual is a resident of the United States or of a country contiguous to the United States. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 332, Art. I, Title I, § 4; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 206, ch. 246, § 1; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 129, ch. 146, Title IV, §§ 401, 402.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of May 3, 1948, cited to text, added the proviso in paragraph (h). Sec. 4 of said Act made such amendment applicable to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1948, and to succeeding taxable years.

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended the definition of "resident" contained in paragraph (s), and added subparagraph (9) to paragraph (u). Sec. 421 of said Act made such amendments applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949.

TITLE II.—EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

§ 47–1554. Exempt organizations.

The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this Article:

(a) Labor organizations.

(b) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations, (1) operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system, and (2) providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such society, order, or association, or their dependents.

(c) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members and which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder.

(d) Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, to a substantial extent within the District, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder, and no part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(e) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, real-estate boards, or boards of trade, not organized or operated for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder.

(f) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted principally to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes within the District.

(g) Banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, companies which guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and companies which furnish abstracts of title or which insure titles to real estate, all of which pay taxes on their gross earnings, premiums, or gross receipts under existing laws of the District.

(h) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization which itself is exempt from the tax imposed by this article.

(i) Corporations organized under Acts of Congress, if such corporations are instrumentalities of the United States and if, under such Acts, as amended and supplemented, such corporations are exempt from Federal income taxes.

(j) Voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such association or their dependents, if (1) no part of their net earnings inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder, and (2) 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of making such payments and meeting expenses.

(k) Voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, or accident benefits to the members of such association or their dependents or their designated beneficiaries, if (1) admission to membership in such association is limited to individuals who are officers or employees of the United States Government or the Government of the District of Columbia, and (2) no part of the net earnings of such association inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 334, ch. 258, Art. I, Title II.)

Title III.—Net Income, Gross Income and Exclusions Therefrom, and Deductions

§ 47–1557. Net income.

For the purposes of this article and wherever appearing herein, unless otherwise required by the context, the words "net income" mean the gross income of a taxpayer less the deductions allowed by this article. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 335, ch. 258, Art. I, Title III, § 1.)

§ 47–1557a. Gross income and exclusions therefrom.

(a) The words "gross income" include gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, including salaries, wages, and compensation paid by the United States to its officers and employees to the extent the same is not exempt under this article, or income derived from any trade or business or sales or dealings in property, whether real or personal, other than capital assets as defined in this article, growing out of the ownership, or sale of, or interest in, such property; also from rent, royalties, interest, dividends, securities, or transactions of any trade or business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever.

(b) The words "gross income" shall not include the following:

(1) Proceeds of life-insurance policies.—The proceeds of life-insurance policies paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income).

(2) Annuities, and so forth.—(A) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life-insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year), then the excess shall be included in gross income. Amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be excluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per centum of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income under this title in respect to such annuity equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life-insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under subsection (1) or this subsection. This subsection and subsection (1) shall not apply with respect to so much of a payment under a life-insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein as, under section 47–1557b (a) (10), is includible in the gross income of the recipient.

(B) Employees' annuities.—If an annuity contract is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan with respect to which the employer's contribution is deductible under subsection 47–1557b (a) (11), the employee shall include in his income the amounts received under such contract for the year received except that if the employee paid any of the consideration for the annuity, the annuity shall be included in his income as provided in subsection 47–1557a (b) (2) (A), the consideration for such annuity being considered the amount contributed by the employee. In all other cases, if the employee's rights under the contract are nonforfeitable except for failure to pay future premiums, the amount contributed by the employer for such annuity contract on and after such rights become nonforfeitable shall be included in the income of the employee in the year in which the amount is contributed, which amount together with any amounts contributed by the employee shall constitute the consideration paid for the annuity contract in determining the amount of the annuity required to be included in the income of the employee under subsection 47–1557a (b) (2) (A).

(3) Gifts, bequests, and devises.—The value of property acquired by gift, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income).

(4) Tax-free interest.—Interest upon (a) the obligations of a State, Territory of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; and (b) obligations of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities.

(5) Compensation for injuries or sickness.—Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation or employer's liability acts, or by way of damages for personal injuries, whether by suit or agreement.

(6) In the case of ministers.—The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.

(7) Income exempt under treaty.—Income of any kind to the extent required by any treaty obligation of the United States.

(8) Income of foreign governments.

(9) Payments made under laws relating to veterans.—Payments of benefits made to or on account of a beneficiary under any of the laws relating to veterans.

(10) Income from unincorporated business.—In the case of any person entitled to a share in the net income of any unincorporated business subject to tax under the provisions of sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e, an amount equal to the proportionate share of such person in such part of such net income as is in excess of the exemption provided in section 47–1577c: Provided, however, That such part so excluded from the gross income of such person shall be reported by and taxed against the unincorporated business under the provisions of sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e.

(11) Capital gains.—Gains from the sale or exchange of any capital asset as defined in this article.

(12) Personal services.—If at least 80 per centum of the total compensation for personal services covering a period of thirty-six calendar months or more (from the beginning to the completion of such services) is received or accrued in one taxable year by an individual or a partnership, the tax attributable to any part thereof which is included in the gross income of any individual shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such part had it been included in the gross income of such individual ratably over that part of the period which precedes the date of such receipt or accrual.

(13) Income derived from the sale of tangible personal property to the United States by corporations and unincorporated businesses having their principal places of business located outside the District, which property is delivered from places outside the District for use outside the District: Provided, however, That the taxpayer shall furnish to the Assessor a statement in writing of the amount of gross sales so made and, if required by the Assessor, a list of the names of the agencies of the United States through which such property was sold.

(14) Dues and initiation fees in the case of any club organized and operated exclusively for pleasure and recreation, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder. As used in this subsection, the word "dues" means only sums paid or incurred by members on a monthly, quarterly, annual, or other periodic basis for the privilege of being members of such club and any pro rata assessment made against the members as such; the word "dues" does not include any sums paid or incurred by members or their guests for food, beverages, or other tangible personal property purchased or for the use of the club's social, athletic, sporting, and other facilities; and the term "initiation fees" includes any payment, contribution, or loan, required as a condition precedent to membership, whether or not any such payment, contribution, or loan is evidenced by a certificate of interest or indebtedness.

(c) Adjusted gross income.—The words "adjusted gross income" as used in this article mean gross income less deductions allowed under section 47–1557b (a) of this title: Provided, however, That such deductions were directly incurred in carrying on a trade or business: And provided further, That in determining adjusted gross income, no deductions shall be allowed for charitable contributions, alimony payments, medical and dental expenses, an optional standard deduction, losses of property not connected with trade or business, or for an allowance for salaries or compensation for personal services of the person or persons liable for the tax. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 335, Art. I, Title III, § 2; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 3; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 130, ch. 146, Title IV, §§ 403, 420.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of May 3, 1948, cited to text, added paragraph (13). Section 4 of said Act made such amendment applicable to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1948, and to succeeding taxable years.

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, added subsections (b) (14) and (c). Section 421 of said Act made such amendments applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1557b. (a) Deductions allowed.

The following deductions shall be allowed from gross income in computing net income:

(1) Expenses.—All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business (except as otherwise provided herein), traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity.

(2) Interest.—All interest paid or accrued, according to the taxpayer's method of accounting, within the taxable year.

(3) Taxes.—All taxes imposed upon the taxpayer and paid or accrued during the taxable year except—

(A) income taxes;

(B) franchise taxes imposed by this article;

(C) estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes;

(D) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed;

(E) taxes paid to any State, Territory, county, or municipality on property, business, or occupation the income from which is not taxable under this article.

(4) Losses.—Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise—

(A) if incurred in a trade or business; or

(B) if incurred in any transaction entered into for the production or collection of income subject to tax under this article, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income subject to tax under this article, though not connected with any trade or business; or

(C) of property not connected with a trade or business; if such losses arise from fires, storms, shipwrecks, thefts, or other casualty: Provided, however, That no such loss shall be allowed as a deduction under this subsection if such loss is claimed as a deduction for inheritance- or estate-tax purposes: And provided further, That this subsection shall not be construed to permit the deduction of a loss of any capital asset as defined in this article.

(5) Bad debts.—Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year or, in the discretion of the Assessor, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the Assessor may allow such debt, in an amount not in excess of the part charged off within the taxable year, as a deduction. No debt which existed prior to January 1, 1939, shall be allowed as a deduction.

(6) Insurance premiums.—All fire-, tornado-, and casualty-insurance premiums paid during the taxable year in connection with property held for investment or used in a trade or business, the income from which is taxable under this article.

(7) Depreciation.—A reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear, and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence; and including in the case of natural resources allowances for depletion as permitted by reasonable rules and regulations which the Commissioners are hereby authorized to promulgate. The basis upon which such allowances are to be computed is the basis provided for in section 47–1583e.

(8) Charitable contributions.—Contributions or gifts, actually paid within the taxable year to or for the use of any religious, charitable, scientific, literary, military, or educational institution, the activities of which are carried on to a substantial extent in the District, and no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual: Provided, however, That such deductions shall be allowed only in an amount which in the aggregate of all such deductions does not exceed 15 per centum of the adjusted gross income.

(9) Medical, dental, and so forth, expenses of individuals.—Expenses in the case of residents, paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year, not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, for the medical care of the taxpayer, his spouse, or dependents as defined in this article. The term "medical care", as used in this subsection, shall include amounts paid for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of diseases, or for the purpose of effecting healthier function of the body (including amounts paid for accident or health insurance): Provided, however, That a taxpayer may deduct only such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of his adjusted gross income: And provided further, That the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall not exceed $1,250.

(10) Alimony or separate maintenance.—In the case of residents, amounts paid as alimony or separate maintenance pursuant to and under a decree or judgment of a court of record of competent jurisdiction to adjudge or decree that the taxpayer pay such alimony or separate maintenance: Provided, however, That all amounts allowed as a deduction under this subsection shall be reported and taxed as income of the recipient thereof if such recipient is a resident as defined in this article.

(11) Contributions of an employer to an employees' trust or annuity plan and compensation under a deferred-payment plan.—In the return of an employer, contributions made by such employer to an employees' trust or annuity plan and compensation under a deferred-payment plan to the extent that deductions for the same are allowed the taxpayer under the provisions of section 23 (p) of Title 26, U. S. Code.

(12) Nontrade or nonbusiness expense.—In the case of an individual, all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income taxable under this article.

(13) In lieu of the foregoing deductions, any resident may irrevocably elect to deduct for the taxable year an optional standard deduction of 10 per centum of the net income or $500, whichever is lesser: Provided, however, That the option provided in this subsection shall not be permitted on any return filed for any period less than a full calendar or fiscal year.

(14) Allocation of deductions.—In the case of corporations and unincorporated businesses, the deductions provided for in this section shall be allowed only for and to the extent that they are connected with income arising from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions to be allowed shall be determined by the Assessor under formula or formulas provided for in section 47–1580a.

(15) Reasonable allowance for salaries.—A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered: Provided, however, That in the case of an unincorporated business the aggregate deduction for services rendered by the individual owners or members actively engaged in the conduct of the unincorporated business shall in no event exceed 20 percentum of the net income of such business computed without benefit of this deduction: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any salary or other compensation for personal services from taxation as a part of the taxable income of the person receiving the same.

(b) Deductions not allowed.—In computing net income, no deductions shall be allowed in any case for—

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses;

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments, made to increase the value of any property or estate;

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; and

(4) Premiums paid on any life-insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(5) If the net income of an unincorporated business for the taxable year is in excess of the exemption provided in section 47–1574c, no deduction which is allowed or allowable under section 47–1557b (a) from the gross income of any unincorporated business subject to the tax imposed by sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e shall be allowed as deduction in the return and computation of the net income of any person entitled to share in the net income of such unincorporated business.

(6) Capital losses.—Losses from the sale or exchange of any capital asset as defined in this article. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 337, ch. 258, Art. I, Title III, § 3; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 130, ch. 146, Title IV, §§ 404–409.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended subsections (a) (1), (a) (4) (C), (a) (8), (a) (9), (a) (13), and added subsection (a) (15). Section 421 of said Act made such amendments applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

TITLE IV.—ACCOUNTING PERIODS, INSTALLMENT SALES, AND INVENTORIES

§ 47–1561. Accounting periods.

The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the Assessor does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 47–1551c (j) or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year. If the taxpayer makes a Federal income-tax return, his income shall be computed, for the purposes of this title, on the basis of the same calendar or fiscal year as in such Federal income-tax return, if the basis is accepted and approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 339, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 1.)

§ 47–1561a. Period in which items of gross income included.

The amount of all items of gross income shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer unless, under methods of accounting permitted under section 47–1561, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period. In the case of death of a taxpayer on the cash basis, no amount will be accrued on his final return; and on the accrual basis, amounts (except amounts includible in computing a partner's net income) accrued only by reason of the death of the taxpayer shall not be included in computing net income for the period in which falls the date of the taxpayer's death, but such amounts shall be included in the income of the person receiving such amounts by inheritance or survivorship from the decedent. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 339, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 2.)

§ 47–1561b. Period for which deductions and credits taken.

The deductions and credits provided for in this article shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued" or "paid or incurred", dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed unless, in order to clearly reflect the income, the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period. In the case of death of a taxpayer on the cash basis, no amount will be allowed as a deduction which was accrued up to the date of the taxpayer's death; and on the accrual basis, no amount (except amounts includible in computing a partner's net income) accrued only by reason of the death of the taxpayer shall be included in computing net income for the period in which falls the date of the taxpayer's death but such amounts shall be deductible by the estate or other person who paid them or is liable for their payment. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 3.)

§ 47–1561c. Installment sales.

If a person reports any portion of his income from installment sales for Federal income-tax purposes under section 44 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, and as the same may hereafter be amended and if such income is subject to tax under this article, he may report such income under this article in the same manner and upon the same basis as the same was reported by him for Federal income-tax purposes, if such method of reporting is accepted and approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 4; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 131, ch. 146, Title IV, § 410.

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, substituted the words "the Federal Internal Revenue Code" in place of the words "Title 26, U. S. Code". Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1561d. Inventories.

Whenever in the opinion of the Assessor the use of inventories is necessary in order to properly determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the Assessor may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 5.)

§ 47–1561e. Assessor may reject method of accounting employed by taxpayer.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the Assessor is hereby authorized to reject any return of income reported on a cash basis where, in his opinion, the net income of the taxpayer is not properly reflected and cannot be determined on such basis, and to require the return to be filed on such a basis as in his opinion will properly reflect the net income of the taxpayer. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IV, § 6.)

Title V.—Returns

§ 47–1564. (a) Form of returns.

The Assessor is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe the forms of returns. All returns required under this title shall be filed on the forms and in the manner prescribed by the Assessor.

(b) Taxpayer to make return whether form is sent or not.—Blank forms of returns of income shall be supplied by the Assessor. It shall be the duty of the Assessor to obtain an income-tax return from every taxpayer who is liable under this article to file such return; but this duty shall in no manner diminish the obligation of the taxpayer to file a return without being called upon to do so.

(c) Information returns.—Every person subject to the jurisdiction of the District in whatever capacity acting, including receivers or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, partnerships, and employers making payment of dividends, interest, rent, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other income to any person subject to tax under this article, shall render such returns thereof to the Assessor as he may by rule prescribe. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 340, ch. 258, Art. I, Title V, § 1.)

§ 47–1564a. Requirement—Who must file.

Each of the following persons shall file a return with the Assessor stating specifically the items of his gross income and the items claimed as deductions and credits allowed under this article, and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article as the Assessor may require:

(a) Residents and nonresidents.—Every nonresident of the District receiving income subject to tax under this article and every resident of the District, except fiduciaries, when—

(1) his gross income for the taxable year exceeds $4,000; or

(2) his gross sales or gross receipts from any trade or business, other than an unincorporated business subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e, exceeds $4,000, regardless of the amount of his gross income; or

(3) the combined gross income for the taxable year of husband and wife living together exceeds $4,000 and each spouse has a gross income in excess of $500, or the gross sales or gross receipts received or accrued by such husband and wife from any trade or business, other than an unincorporated business subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e, in the aggregate exceeds $4,000. In such cases a separate return shall be filed by each spouse showing his respective portion of such gross income, gross sales, or gross receipts as the case may be, and no joint return of income or computation thereof by them shall be required or permitted under this article except such returns as are required under subsections (c), (f) and (g) of section 47–1564a.

(b) Fiduciaries.—Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) for—

(1) every individual for whom he acts having a gross income for the taxable year of $4,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the individual's net income;

(2) every estate for which he acts, the gross income of which for the taxable year is $4,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the net income of the estate; and

(3) every trust for which he acts, the net income of which for the taxable year is $100 or over.

(c) Joint fiduciaries.—A return by one of two or more joint fiduciaries filed with the Assessor shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of section 47–1564a (b).

(d) If any resident or nonresident or any fiduciary is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by his duly authorized agent.

(e) (1) Corporations.—Every corporation engaging in or carrying on any trade or business within the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or are engaged in or carrying on the trade or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns.

(2) Affiliated corporations shall file separate returns unless permitted by the Assessor to file consolidated returns.

(f) Unincorporated businesses.—Every unincorporated business engaging in or carrying on any trade or business within the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b having a gross income of more than $10,000, regardless of whether or not it has a net income. Such returns shall be made by the taxpayer or taxpayers liable for the payment of the tax.

(g) Partnerships.—Every partnership, other than partnerships subject to the taxes imposed by sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e on unincorporated businesses, engaged in any trade or business, or receiving income from sources within the District. There shall be included in such return the names and addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income of the partnership, if distributed, and the amount of distributive share of each individual. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 341, ch. 258, Art. I, Title V, § 2; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 131, ch. 146, Title IV, § 411.)

Amendment

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended subsections (a) and (b). Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949.

§ 47–1564b. (a) Time and place for filing returns.

All returns of income for the preceding taxable year required to be filed under the provisions of section 47–1564 shall be filed with the Assessor on or before the 15th day of April in each year, except that such returns, if made on the basis of a fiscal year, shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of such fiscal year.

(b) Extension of time for filing returns.—The Assessor may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the returns required by section 47–1564a whenever in his judgment good cause exists therefor, and he shall keep a record of every such extension. Except in case of a taxpayer who is not within the continental limits of the United States, no such extension shall be granted for more than six months, and in no case shall such extension be granted for more than one year. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 342, ch. 258, Art. I, Title V, § 3.)

§ 47–1564c. (a) Secrecy of returns.

Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of income or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof set forth or disclosed in any return required to be filed under section 47–1564, and neither the original nor a copy of any such return desired for use in litigation in court shall be furnished where neither the District nor the United States is interested in the result of such litigation, whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer of a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $2.

(b) Reciprocal exchange of information with the United States and the several States.—Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State imposing an income tax or his authorized representative to inspect income-tax returns filed with the Assessor or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such income-tax returns provided the United States or such State grant substantially similar privileges to the Assessor or his representative or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this title. The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Assessor or Collector relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed by this article.

(c) Publication of statistics.—Nothing contained in section 47–1564c (a) shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports and the items thereof, or the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of taxpayers who have failed to pay their taxes at the time and in the manner provided by law, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the Assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(d) Information which may be disclosed.—Nothing contained in section 47–1564c (a) shall be construed to prohibit the Assessor, in his discretion, from divulging or making known any information contained in, or relating to, any report, application, license, or return required under the provisions of this article other than such information as may be contained therein relating to the amount of income or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof.

(e) Penalties for violation of this section.—Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia.

(f) Preservation of returns.—All reports, applications, and returns received by the Assessor under the provisions of this article shall be preserved for six years, and thereafter until the Assessor orders them to be destroyed. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 342, ch. 258, Art. I, Title V, § 4.)

Title VI.—Tax on Residents and Nonresidents

§ 47–1567. Definitions.

For the purposes of this article, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the entire net income of every resident, in excess of the personal exemptions and credits for dependents allowed by section 47–1567a and that portion of the entire net income of every nonresident which is subject to tax under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 343, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VI, § 1.)

§ 47–1567a. Personal exemptions and credit for dependents.

There shall be allowed to residents the following credits against net income:

(a) An exemption of $4,000 for the taxpayer.

(b) An exemption of $500 for each dependent, as defined in this article, whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500.

(c) Beginning with the first taxable year to which this article is applicable and in succeeding taxable years, the amount allowed under subsection (a) of this section shall be prorated to the day of death in the final return of a decedent dying before the end of the taxable year, and as of the date of death the personal exemption is terminated and not extended over the remainder of the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, the personal exemption and credits for dependents shall be reduced, respectively, to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided as the number of months in the period for which the return is made bears to twelve months. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 343, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VI, § 2; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 412.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended the section generally. Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949.

§ 47–1567b. Imposition and rates of tax.

There is hereby annually levied and imposed for each taxable year upon the taxable income of every resident a tax at the following rates:

One and one-half per centum on the first $5,000 of taxable income.

Two per centum on the next $5,000 of taxable income.

Two and one-half per centum on the next $5,000 of taxable income.

Three per centum on the taxable income in excess of $15,000. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 344, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VI, § 3; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 413.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended the section generally. Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949.

§ 47–1567c. Repealed May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 414.

EXTENT OF REPEAL

Section 414 of Title IV of the Act of May 27, 1949, repealed the entire section, which related to optional method of computation, and section 421 of said Act made such repeal applicable to taxable years beginning after the 31st day of December 1949.

§ 47–1567d. Credit against tax allowed residents.

The amount of tax payable under this title by an individual who, although a resident of the District of Columbia as defined in this article, was nevertheless a bona fide domiciliary of any State or Territory of the United States or political subdivision thereof during the taxable year shall be reduced by the amount required to be paid by such individual as income or intangible personal property taxes, or both, for such taxable year to the State, Territory, or political subdivision thereof of which he was a domiciliary. The Assessor may require proof, satisfactory to him, of the payment of such income or intangible personal property taxes: Provided, however, That the credit provided for by this section shall not be allowed against any tax imposed under sections 47–1574 to 47–1574e. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VI, § 5.)

TITLE VII.—TAX ON CORPORATIONS

§ 47–1571. Taxable income defined.

For the purposes of this title, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the amount of net income derived from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VII, § 1.)

§ 47–1571a. Imposition and rate of tax.

For the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving income from sources within the District, there is hereby levied for each taxable year a tax at the rate of 5 per centum upon the taxable income of every corporation, whether domestic or foreign (except those expressly exempt under section 47–1554). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VII, § 2.)

TITLE VIII.—TAX ON UNINCORPORATED BUSINESSES

§ 47–1574. Definition of unincorporated business.

For the purposes of this article (not alone of this title) and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "unincorporated business" mean any trade or business, conducted or engaged in by any individual, whether resident or nonresident, statutory or common-law trust, estate, partnership, or limited or special partnership, society, association, executor, administrator, receiver, trustee, liquidator, conservator, committee assignee, or by any other entity or fiduciary, other than a trade or business conducted or engaged in by any corporation; and include any trade or business which if conducted or engaged in by a corporation would be taxable under sections 47–1571 to 47–1571a. The words "unincorporated business" do not include any trade or business which by law, customs, or ethics cannot be incorporated or any trade or business in which more than 80 per centum of the gross income is derived from the personal services actually rendered by the individual or members of the partnership or other entity in the conducting or carrying on of any trade or business and in which capital is not a material income-producing factor. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 345, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VIII, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

STOCK BROKERAGE BUSINESS

Stock brokerage is little different from any business whose activities are essentially those of agents for purchase and sale and such business would find neither the general corporation statute of the District, specific statutes, nor a body of case law erecting a barrier against incorporation. Consequently, it is not exempt from an unincorporated business tax. Hendrick v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1950, 183 F. 2d 1002).

§ 47–1574a. Taxable income defined.

For the purposes of this title, and unless otherwise required by the context, the words "taxable income" mean the amount of net income derived from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b in excess of the exemption granted by section 47–1574c. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, Title VIII, § 2.)

§ 47–1574b. Imposition and rate of tax.

For the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving income from sources within the District, there is hereby levied for each taxable year a tax at the rate of 5 per centum upon the taxable income of every unincorporated business, whether domestic or foreign (except those expressly exempt under section 47–1554). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, Title VIII, § 3.)

§ 47–1574c. Exemption.

Before computing the tax upon the taxable income of an unincorporated business, there shall be deducted therefrom an exemption of $5,000, except that where the period covered by a return is less than a year, or where a return shows that an unincorporated business has been carried on for less than twelve months, such exemption shall be prorated on a daily basis: Provided, however, That any amount exempted under this section from the tax imposed by section 47–1574b shall be reported and included in the gross income of that person or those persons entitled to a share therein in proportion to the share to which each person is entitled, and shall be reported in the return of each of such persons for his taxable year in which is ended the taxable year of the unincorporated business. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, Art. I, Title VIII, § 4; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 416.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, deleted the figure "$10,000" and inserted in lieu thereof the figure "$5,000". Section 421 of said act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1574d. By whom payable.

The taxes imposed by section 47–1574b shall be payable by the person or persons, jointly and severally, conducting the unincorporated business. The taxes imposed under this title may be assessed in the name of the unincorporated business or in the name or names of the person or persons liable for the payment of such taxes, or both. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VIII, § 5.)

§ 47–1574e. Partners only taxable.

Individuals carrying on any trade or business in partnership in the District, other than an unincorporated business, shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacities. The tax on all such income shall be assessed against the individual partners under sections 47–1567 to 47–1567d. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year; or if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, ch. 258, Art. I, Title VIII, § 6.)

TITLE IX.—TAX ON ESTATES AND TRUSTS

§ 47–1577. Resident and nonresident estates and trusts defined.

For the purposes of this title, estates and trusts are (a) resident estates or trusts, or (b) nonresident estates or trusts. If the decedent was at the time of his death domiciled within the District, his estate is a resident estate, and any trust created by his will is a resident trust. If the decedent was not at the time of his death domiciled within the District, his estate is a nonresident estate, and any trust created by his will is a nonresident trust. If the creator of a trust was at the time the trust was created domiciled within the District, or if the trust consists of property of a person domiciled within the District, the trust is a resident trust. If the creator of the trust was not at the time the trust was created domiciled within the District, the trust is a nonresident trust. If the trust resulted from the dissolution of a corporation organized under the laws of the District of Columbia the trust is a resident trust. If the trust resulted from the dissolution of a foreign corporation, the trust is a nonresident trust. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 346, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 1.)

§ 47–1577a. Residence or situs of fiduciary not to control.

The residence or situs of the fiduciary shall not control the classification of estates and trusts as resident or nonresident under the provisions of section 47–1577. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 2.)

§ 47–1577b. Imposition of tax.

The taxes imposed by sections 47–1567 to 47–1567d upon residents shall apply to the income of resident estates, and income from any kind of property held in resident trusts, including—

(a) income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained person or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(b) income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of any infant or incompetent person which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(c) income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(d) income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 3.)

§ 47–1577c. Computation of the tax.

The tax shall be computed upon the taxable net income of the estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary, except as provided in section 47–1577f (relating to revocable trusts) and section 47–1577g (relating to income for benefit of the grantor). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 4.)

§ 47–1577d. Net income.

The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except as to the personal exemptions and credits for dependents, and except that—

(a) there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under subsection (b) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(b) in the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary;

(c) there shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deductions for charitable contributions authorized by section 47–1557b (a) (8)) any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating a trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner provided in section 47–1557b (a) (8), or is to be used exclusively for the purposes enumerated in section 47–1557b (a) (8);

(d) there shall be allowed to an estate the same exemption as is allowed residents under the provisions of section 47–1567a (a);

(e) there shall be allowed to a trust a credit against net income of $100. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 347, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 5; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 132, ch. 146, Title IV, § 415.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, added subsections (d) and (e). Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1577e. Different taxable year.

If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under section 47–1577d (a), to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for any taxable year of the estate or trust ending within his taxable year. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 6.)

§ 47–1577f. Revocable trusts.

The income of a trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor of such trust where at any time the power to revest in the grantor title to any part of the corpus of the trust is vested—

(a) in the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom; or

(b) in any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 7.)

§ 47–1577g. Income for benefit of grantor.

So much of the income of any trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor as—

(a) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, held or accumulated for future distribution to the grantor; or

(b) may, in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income, be distributed to the grantor; or

(c) is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in section 47–1557b (a) (8), relating to the so-called "charitable contribution" deduction). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 8.)

§ 47–1577h. Definition of "In discretion of grantor."

As used in this title, the term "in the discretion of the grantor" means in the discretion of the grantor either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 9.)

§ 47–1577i. Employees' trusts—(a) Exemption from tax.

A trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries shall not be taxable under this article and no other provision of this article shall apply with respect to such trust or to its beneficiary, except as hereinafter in this section expressly provided, if such trust meets the requirements for exemption from Federal income tax under section 165 of Title 26, U. S. Code.

(b) Taxability of beneficiary.—The amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee by any such trust shall be taxable to him, in the year in which so distributed or made available, under section 47–1557a (b) (2) as if it were an annuity the consideration for which is the amount contributed by the employee.

(c) Treatment of beneficiary of trust not exempt under subsection (a).—Contribution to a trust made by an employer during a taxable year of the employer which ends within or with a taxable year of the trust for which the trust is not exempt under subsection (a) of this section shall be included in the gross income of an employee for the taxable year in which the contribution is made to the trust in the case of an employee whose beneficial interest in such contribution is nonforfeitable at the time the contribution is made. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 348, ch. 258, Art. I, Title IX, § 10.)

TITLE X.—PURPOSE OF ARTICLE AND ALLOCATION AND APPORTIONMENT

§ 47–1580. Purpose of article.

It is the purpose of this article to impose (1) an income tax upon the entire net income of every resident and every resident estate and trust, and (2) a franchise tax upon every corporation and unincorporated business for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in any trade or business within the District and of receiving such other income as is derived from sources within the District: Provided, however, That, in the case of any corporation, the amount received as dividends from a corporation which is subject to taxation under this article, and, in the case of a corporation not engaged in carrying on any trade or business within the District, interest received by it from a corporation which is subject to taxation under this article shall not be considered as income from sources within the District for the purposes of this article. The measure of the franchise tax shall be that portion of the net income of the corporation and unincorporated business as is fairly attributable to any trade or business carried on or engaged in within the District and such other net income as is derived from sources within the District; Provided further, That income derived from the sale of tangible personal property by a corporation or unincorporated business not carrying on or engaging in trade or business within the District as defined in sections 47–1551 to 47–1551c shall not be considered as income from sources within the District for purposes of this article, with the exception of income from sales to the United States not excluded from gross income as provided in section 47–1557a (b) (13). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, Title X, § 1; May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 2.)

AMENDMENTS

The Act of May 3, 1948, cited to text, added the second proviso. Section 5 of said Act made such amendment applicable to the taxable year or part thereof beginning on the 1st day of January 1948, and to succeeding taxable years.

§ 47–1580a. Allocation and apportionment.

The entire net income of any corporation or unincorporated business, derived from any trade or business carried on or engaged in wholly within the District shall, for the purposes of this article, be deemed to be from sources within the District, and shall, along with other income from sources within the District, be allocated to the District. If the trade or business of any corporation or unincorporated business is carried on or engaged in both within and without the District, the net income derived therefrom shall, for the purposes of this article, be deemed to be income from sources within and without the District. Where the net income of a corporation or unincorporated business is derived from sources both within and without the District, the portion thereof subject to tax under this article shall be determined under regulation or regulations prescribed by the Commissioners. The Assessor is authorized to employ any formula or formulas provided in any regulation or regulations prescribed by the Commissioners under this article which, in his opinion, should be applied in order to properly determine the net income of any corporation or unincorporated business subject to tax under this article. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, Title X, § 2.)

§ 47–1580b. Allocation of income and deductions between organizations, and so forth.

In any of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in the District, and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the Assessor is authorized to distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income or deductions between or among such organizations, trades, or businesses, whenever in his opinion such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any of such organizations, trades, or businesses. The provisions of this section shall apply, but shall not be limited in application to any case of a common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act and jointly owned or controlled directly or indirectly by two or more common carriers by railroad subject to said Act. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 349, ch. 258, Art. I, Title X, § 3.)

TITLE XI.—BASES

§ 47–1583. Basis for determining gain or loss.

The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of property shall be the cost of such property, except that—

(a) If the property is of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(b) In respect of any real or tangible property acquired after December 31, 1938, the cost thereof shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) By adding to its original cost to the taxpayer the amount of all expenditures connected therewith, including real-estate taxes upon the property, which were properly chargeable to capital account and were not deducted in any income-tax return which the taxpayer was required to file under the provisions of this article or sections 47–1501 to 47–1547; but such additions as are herein provided for shall include only those expenditures made by the taxpayer between the time the property was acquired by him and the date of sale or other disposition of the property.

(2) By deducting from such cost the full loss sustained since acquisition for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion to the extent allowed or allowable (whichever amount is the greater) on such property in all returns required to be filed by the taxpayer under the provisions of this article or of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547.

(3) In the case of property (including intangible personal property) acquired by gift or inheritance, where the transfer thereof to the taxpayer was subject to tax by the United States or by any jurisdiction in which the property had a taxable situs at that time, the basis of the property so acquired shall be the highest valuation then placed upon such transfer by the United States or by any authorized taxing State or Territory thereof. If such transfer of the property was not subject to the aforesaid transfer tax, the base shall be the fair market value of such property at the time acquired. For the purpose of this subsection, the time such inherited property was acquired shall be the date of death of the decedent. The basis herein provided for shall be subject to the appropriate adjustment or adjustments defined in section 47–1583 (b).

(c) If the property was acquired before January 1, 1939, the basis shall be the fair market value as of that date or, at the option of the taxpayer, the cost of such property, and in the case of real or tangible property such cost shall be diminished by exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, and depletion actually sustained before such date: Provided, however, That the preceding valuation so determined shall be adjusted by the appropriate additions and deductions provided for in section 47–1583 (b) to cover the period from January 1, 1939, to the date of sale or other disposition of the property. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 350, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 1.)

§ 47–1583a. (a) Computation of gain or loss.

The gain or loss, as the case may be, from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the difference between (a) the amount realized from such sale or other disposition of the property and (b) the basis as defined in section 47–1583.

(b) Amount realized.—The amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be its selling price, and such price shall include cash payments received or to be received subsequently therefor, plus the sum of any mortgage and other encumbrances thereon at the time of such sale or exchange. The amount realized shall also include at its then market value any property received in part or in full settlement of the property sold or exchanged, adjusted to include the then existing encumbrances on such property received in exchange. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 350, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 2.)

§ 47–1583b. Exchange in reorganizations.

When in connection with the reorganization of a corporation, a taxpayer receives, in place of stock or securities owned by him, any stock or securities of the reorganized corporation, no gain or loss shall be deemed to occur from the exchange until the new stock or securities are sold or realized upon and the gain or loss is definitely ascertained, until which time the new stock or securities received shall be treated as taking the place of the stock and securities exchanged. For the purposes of this section, the word "reorganization" means (1) a statutory merger or consolidation; or (2) the acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or (3) the acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of the other, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, shall be disregarded; or (4) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its shareholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred; or (5) a recapitalization; or (6) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 3.)

§ 47–1583c. Basis for dividends paid in property.

Where any property other than money is paid by a corporation as a dividend, the base to the recipient thereof shall be the market value of such property at the time of its distribution by such corporation. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 4.)

§ 47–1583d. Exception to applicability of sections 47–1583 through 47–1583b.

The provisions of sections 47–1583 through 47–1583b shall not apply to the sale or exchange of any property defined as a capital asset by section 47–1551c (1). (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 5.)

§ 47–1583e. Depreciation.

The bases used in determining the amount allowable as a deduction from gross income under the provisions of section 47–1557b (a) (7) shall be—

(a) where the property was acquired after December 31, 1938, by purchase, the basis shall be the cost thereof to the taxpayer;

(b) where the property was received in exchange for other property after December 31, 1938, the basis shall be the market value thereof at the time of such exchange;

(c) where the property was inherited or acquired by gift after December 31, 1938, the basis shall be that defined in subsection 47–1583 (b) (3);

(d) if the property was acquired prior to January 1, 1939, the appropriate basis set forth in subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be used: Provided, however, That the taxpayer may, at his option, use as the basis the market value of such property as of January 1, 1939;

(e) the taxpayer may deduct in each taxable year only such amount of depreciation as was actually sustained during that year and such annual deduction shall be based upon the useful life of the property remaining after the date used by the taxpayer in establishing the valuation: Provided, however, That the allowance for depreciation actually sustained during any taxable year may not be increased by any depreciation of the property which was allowable as a deduction in any earlier taxable year: And provided further, That any basis so established may not be changed in a subsequent taxable year, unless written approval of the Assessor has been first obtained. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 351, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XI, § 6.)

TITLE XII.—ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION; TIME OF PAYMENT

§ 47–1586. Duties of Assessor.

The Assessor is hereby required to administer the provisions of this article. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the Assessor shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of tax. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII. § 1.)

§ 47–1586a. Statements and special returns.

Every person upon whom the duty is imposed by this article to file any applications, returns, or reports or who is liable for any tax imposed by this article shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Assessor from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the Assessor deems it necessary, he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as he believes sufsary, he may require any person, by notice served tax under this article and the extent of such liability. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 2.)

§ 47–1586b. Examination of books and witnesses.

The Assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed hereunder, or for the purpose of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayer, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda of any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Assessor shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then, and in that event, the Assessor may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to such summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the Assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the Assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $300. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 3.)

§ 47–1586c. Return by Assessor.

If any person fails to make and file a return at the time prescribed by law or by regulations made under authority of law, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the Assessor shall make the return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any return so made and subscribed by the Assessor shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 4.)

§ 47–1586d. Determination and assessment of deficiency.

If a deficiency in tax is determined by the Assessor, the taxpayer shall be notified thereof and given a period of not less than thirty days, after such notice is sent by registered mail, in which to file a protest and show cause or reason why the deficiency should not be paid. Opportunity for hearing shall be granted by the Assessor, and a final decision thereon shall be made as quickly as practicable. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 352, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 5.)

§ 47–1586e. Jeopardy assessment.

(a) Authority for making.—If the Assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this article will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful.

(b) Bond to stay collection.—The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the Collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the Collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount the collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section, such amount would be due. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 6.)

§ 47–1586f. (a) Time of payment.

One-half of the total amount of the tax due as shown on the taxpayer's return shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid to the Collector on the 15th day of October following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then one-half of the total amount of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year and the remaining one-half of such tax shall be paid on the 15th day of the tenth month following the close of the fiscal year. Any deficiency in tax determined by the Assessor under the provisions of section 5 of this title shall be due and payable within ten days from the date of the assessment.

(b) Extension of time for payments.—At the request of the taxpayer the Assessor may extend the time for payment by the taxpayer of the amount determined as the tax for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof: Provided, however, That where the time for filing a return is extended for a period exceeding six months under the provisions of section 47–1564b (b), the Assessor may extend the time for payment of the tax, or the first installment thereof, to the same date to which he has extended the time for filing the return. In such case the amount in respect to which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) Voluntary advance payment.—A tax imposed by this article, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258; Art. I, Title XII, § 7.)

§ 47–1586g. Withholding of tax at source.

Whenever the Assessor shall deem it necessary in order to satisfy the District's claim for a tax payable by any foreign corporation or unincorporated business, he may, by rules and regulations, require any person subject to the jurisdiction of the District to withhold and pay to the Collector an amount not in excess of 5 per centum of all income payable by such person to such foreign corporation or unincorporated business. After such foreign corporation or unincorporated business shall have filed all returns required under this title, and the same shall have been audited, the Collector shall refund any overpayment to the taxpayer. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 8.)

§ 47–1586h. Tax a personal debt.

Every tax imposed by this article, and all increases, interest, and penalties thereof, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt, from the person or persons liable to pay the same to the District and shall be entitled to the same priority as other District taxes, and the taxes levied under this article and the interest and penalties thereon shall be collected by the Collector in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 353, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 9.)

§ 47–1586i. Period of limitation upon assessment and collection.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section—

(1) the amount of income taxes imposed by this article shall be assessed within three years after the return is filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period;

(2) in the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, or by his estate during the period of administration, or by a corporation, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun within twelve months after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, or by the corporation, but not after the expiration of three years after the return is filed. This subsection shall not apply in the case of a corporation unless—

(A) such written request notifies the Assessor that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(B) the dissolution is in good faith begun before the expiration of such twelve-month period; and

(C) the dissolution is completed;

(3) if the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time within five years after the return was filed;

(4) For the purposes of subsections (a) (1), (a) (2), and (a) (3), a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(b) False return.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(c) Waiver.—Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in subsection (a) for the assessment of the tax, both the Assessor and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, amended subsection (a) (4) by deleting the proviso following the word "day" the second time it appears. Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1586j. Refunds.

Except as to any deficiency taxes assessed under the provisions of section 47–1586d, where there has been an overpayment of any tax imposed by this article, the amount of such overpayment shall be credited against any income tax or installment thereof, whether such tax was assessed as a deficiency or otherwise, then due from the taxpayer, and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No such credit or refund shall be allowed after three years from the time the tax was paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, and no tax or part thereof which the Assessor may determine to have been an overpayment shall be refunded after the period prescribed therefor in the Act appropriating the funds from which such refund would otherwise be made. The amount of such credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the three years immediately preceding the allowance of such credit or refund. Every claim for credit or refund must be in writing, under oath; must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, and must be filed with the Assessor: Provided, That if it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court that any part of any tax which was assessed as a deficiency under the provisions of section 47–1586d was an overpayment, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayments were paid until the date of refund, and in addition thereto any interest upon such overpayment which was paid by the taxpayer shall be refunded. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 11; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 133, ch. 146, Title IV, § 418.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, added the words which follow the word "refund" in the proviso. Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1586k. Closing agreements.

The Assessor is authorized to enter into a written agreement with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any income tax for any period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If such agreement is approved by the Commissioners within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive and except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified; and in any suit or proceeding relating to the tax liability of the taxpayer such agreement shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 12.)

§ 47–1586*l*. Compromises.

(a) Authority to make.—Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioners there shall arise with respect of any tax imposed under this article any doubt as to the liability of the taxpayer or the collectibility of the tax for any reason whatsoever, the Commissioners may compromise such tax.

(b) Concealment of assets.—Any person who, in connection with any compromise under this section or offer of such compromise or in connection with any closing agreement under this title or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully (1) conceals from any officer or employee of the District of Columbia any property belonging to the estate of the taxpayer or other person liable with respect of the tax, or (2) receives, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record or makes under oath any false statement relating to the estate or the financial condition of the taxpayer or to the person liable in respect of the tax, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants in the name of the District of Columbia.

(c) Of penalties and interest.—The Commissioners shall have the power for cause shown to compromise any penalty which may be imposed by the Assessor under the provisions of this article. The Assessor may adjust any interest where, in his opinion, the facts in the case warrant such action. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 355, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 13.)

§ 47–1586m. Definition of "person".

The term "person" as used in this title includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 14.)

CODIFICATION

The term "title" as used in this section refers to §§ 47–1586 to 47–1586n.

§ 47–1586n. Payment to Collector and receipts.

The taxes provided under this article shall be collected by the Collector and the revenues derived therefrom shall be turned over to the Treasury of the United States for credit to the District in the same manner as other revenues are turned over to the United States Treasury for credit to the District. The Collector shall, upon written request, give to the person making payment of any income tax a full written or printed receipt therefor. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XII, § 15.)

TITLE XIII.—PENALTIES AND INTEREST

§ 47–1589. Failure to file return.

In case of any failure to make and file a return required by this article, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioners or Assessor in pursuance of law, 5 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax for each month or fraction thereof that such failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be assessed and collected. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 1.)

§ 47–1589a. (a) Interest on deficiencies.

Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed.

(b) If extension granted for payment of deficiency.—If the time for payment of any part of a deficiency is extended, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension. If a part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in full, together with all penalties and interest due thereon, prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum shall be added and collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 2.)

§ 47–1589b. Additions to the tax in case of deficiency.

(a) Negligence.—If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

(b) Fraud.—If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 356, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 3.)

§ 47–1589c. Additions to the tax in case of nonpayment—(a) Tax shown on return.

(1) General rule.—Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this article, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) If extension granted.—Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under section 47–1589d is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in subsection (a) (1) of this section, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Deficiency.—Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under section 47–1589a or under section 47–1589b, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 47–1589 is not paid in full within ten days from the date of assessment thereof, there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 4.)

§ 47–1589d. Time extended for payment of tax shown on return.

If the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, is extended under the authority of section 47–1586f (b), there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 5.)

§ 47–1589e. Penalties.

(a) Willful violation.—Any person required under this article to pay or collect any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of this article, who willfully refuses to pay or collect such tax, to make such return, to keep such records, or to supply such information, or who makes a false or fraudulent return, or who willfully attempts in any manner to defeat or evade the tax imposed by sections 47–1551 to 47–1595, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with costs of prosecution. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel or one of his assistants in the name of the District.

(b) Definition of "person".—The term "person" as used in this title includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIII, § 6.)

CODIFICATION

The term "title", as used in this section, refers to sections 47–1589 to 47–1589e.

TITLE XIV.—LICENSES

§ 47–1591. Requirement.

No corporation or unincorporated business, except such corporations or unincorporated businesses as are expressly exempt under the provisions of section 47–1554, shall engage in or carry on any trade or business in the District without a license so to do issued under this article in addition to all other licenses and permits required by law, except as hereinafter provided. For the first calendar year to which this article is applicable, no license shall be required of any corporation licensed under the provisions of sections 47–1501 to 47–1547. Every corporation not so licensed and every unincorporated business shall obtain such license within sixty days after the approval of sections 47–1551 to 47–1595. Every corporation or unincorporated business which commences to engage in or carry on any trade or business in the Distict after the passage of sections 47–1551 to 47–1595 shall obtain a license under this article within sixty days after the date of the commencement of such trade or business in the District. Applications for licenses shall be filed with the Assessor prior to January 1 of each year upon forms prescribed and furnished by the Assessor, and each application shall be accompanied by a fee of $10: Provided, however, That any unincorporated business having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or less shall not be required to obtain the license provided for in this title. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 357, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 1; May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 133, ch. 146, Title IV, § 419.)

AMENDMENT

The Act of May 27, 1949, cited to text, added the proviso. Section 421 of said Act made such amendment applicable to taxable years or portions thereof beginning after the 31st day of December 1948.

§ 47–1591a. Duration of license.

All licenses issued under this title shall be in effect for the duration of the calendar year for which issued, unless revoked as provided in this title, and shall expire at midnight on the 31st day of December of each year. No license may be transferred to any other corporation or unincorporated business. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 2.)

CODIFICATION

The term "title", as used in this section, refers to sections 47–1591 to 47–1591f.

§ 47–1591b. Licenses to be posted.

All licenses granted under this title to corporations or unincorporated businesses having an office or place of business in the District must be conspicuously posted in the office or on the premises of the licensee, and said license shall be accessible at all times for inspection by the police or other officers duly authorized to make such inspection. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 3.)

§ 47–1591c. Repealed. May 3, 1948, 62 Stat. 207, ch. 246, § 4.

Act of July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 4, provided for license or certificate of agent or employee of corporation or unincorporated business having no office or place of business in the District.

§ 47–1591d. Revocation.

The Commissioners may, after hearing, revoke any license issued hereunder for failure of the licensee to file a return or corrected return within the time required by this article, or to pay any installment of tax when due. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 5.)

§ 47–1591e. Renewal.

Licenses shall be renewed for the ensuing calendar year upon application as provided in section 47–1591. No license shall be issued or renewed if the taxpayer has failed or refused to pay any tax or installment thereof, or penalties or interest thereon, imposed by this article: Provided, however, That the Commissioners, in their discretion, for cause shown, may, on such terms or conditions as they may determine or prescribe, waive the provisions of this section. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 6.)

§ 47–1591f. Penalty for failure to obtain license.

Any corporation or unincorporated business engaged in or carrying on any trade or business in the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b without having obtained a license so to do, within the time prescribed by section 47–1591, and any person engaging in or carrying on any trade or business in the District or receiving income from sources within the District within the meaning of sections 47–1580 to 47–1580b for or on behalf of any corporation or unincorporated business not having a license so to do, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure, refusal, or violation, and each and every day that such failure, refusal, or violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. All prosecutions under this section shall be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel or any of his assistants in the name of the District: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to mere collection by an agent of income of a corporation or unincorporated business not having the license required under this title. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 358, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XIV, § 7.)

CODIFICATION

The term "title", as used in this section, refers to §§ 47–1591 to 47–1591f.

TITLE XV.—APPEAL

§ 47–1593. Appeal to Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment of a deficiency in tax determined and assessed by the Assessor under the provisions of section 47–1586d and any person aggrieved by the denial of any claim for refund made under the provisions of section

47–1586j, may, within ninety days from the date of the assessment of the deficiency or from the date of the denial of a claim for refund, as the case may be, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404, 47–2407 to 47–2411. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XV, § 1.)

§ 47–1593a. Election of remedy.

The remedy provided in section 47–1593 shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax in accordance with the provisions of section 47–1593. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XV, § 2.)

TITLE XVI.—RULES AND REGULATIONS

§ 47–1595. Commissioners to prescribe and publish rules.

The Commissioners shall prescribe and publish such rules and regulations, consistent with the provisions of this article, as may be necessary and proper for its enforcement and efficient administration. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, ch. 258, Art. I, Title XVI, § 1.)

ARTICLE I—INHERITANCE TAX

§ 47–1601 [20: 969]. Imposition of tax.

Taxes shall be imposed in relation to estates of decedents, the shares of beneficiaries of such estates, and gifts as hereinafter provided:

(a) All real property and tangible and intangible personal property, or any interest therein, having its taxable situs in the District of Columbia, transferred from any person who may die seized or possessed thereof, either by will or by law, or by right of survivorship, and all such property, or interest therein, transferred by deed, grant, bargain, gift, or sale (except in cases of a bona fide purchase for full consideration in money or money's worth), made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the decedent, or made in contemplation of death, to or for the use of, in trust or otherwise (including property of which the decedent has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from such property or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom), to the father, mother, husband, wife, children by blood or legally adopted children, or any other lineal descendants or lineal ancestors of the decedent, shall be subject to a tax as follows: 1 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $5,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 2 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000 and not in excess of $1,000,000; 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000,000.

(b) So much of said property so transferred to each of the brothers and sisters of the whole or half blood of the decedent shall be subject to a tax as follows: 3 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $2,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 4 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 6 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 8 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 10 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(c) So much of said property so transferred to any person other than those included in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section and all firms, institutions, associations, and corporations shall be subject to a tax as follows: 5 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $1,000 and not in excess of $25,000; 7 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $50,000; 9 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $100,000; 12 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $500,000; 15 per centum of so much of said property as is in excess of $500,000.

(d) Executors, administrators, trustees, and other persons making distribution shall only be discharged from liability for the amount of such tax, with the payment of which they are charged, by paying the same as hereinafter described.

(e) Property transferred exclusively for public or municipal purposes, to the United States or the District of Columbia, or exclusively for charitable, educational, or religious purposes within the District of Columbia, and property transferred to the American National Red Cross, shall be exempt from any and all taxation under the provisions of this section.

(f) Where any beneficiary has died or may hereafter die within six months after the death of the decedent and before coming into the possession and enjoyment of any property passing to him, and before selling, assigning, transferring, or in any manner contracting with respect to his interest in such property, such property shall be taxed only once, and if the tax on the property so passing to said beneficiary has not been paid, then the tax shall be assessed on the property received from such share by each beneficiary thereof, finally entitled to the possession and enjoyment thereof, as if he had been the original beneficiary, and the exemptions and rates of taxation shall be governed by the respective relationship of each of the ultimate beneficiaries to the first decedent.

(g) The provisions of sections 47–1601 to 47–1607 shall apply to property in the estate of every person who shall die after this chapter becomes effective.

(h) The transfer of any property, or interest therein, within 2 years prior to death, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.

(i) All property and interest therein which shall pass from a decedent to the same beneficiary by one or more of the methods specified in this section, and all beneficial interests which shall accrue in the manner herein provided to such beneficiary on account of the death of such decedent, shall be united and treated as a single interest for the purpose of determining the tax hereunder.

(j) Whenever any person shall exercise a general power of appointment derived from any disposition of property, made either before or after the passage of this chapter, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable, under the provisions of said sections, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power; and whenever any person possessing such power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same, within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of said sections shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omissions or failure in the same manner as though the person or persons thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by the will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

(k) The doctrine of equitable conversion shall not be invoked in the assessment of taxes under sections 47–1601 to 47–1607. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 1; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 360, ch. 223, § 5 (a); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1111, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 1, June 24, 1946, 60 Stat. 303, ch. 462, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added paragraphs (j) and (k).

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "and upon" following the word "decedents" the first time it appears, added the word "to" following the parenthetical statement in paragraph (a) and changed the rate provisions to that which now appears. The former rates provided in paragraph (a), 1% on the amount in excess of $5,000; in paragraph (b), 3% on the amount in excess of $2,000; and 5% on the amount in excess of $1,000.

The act of June 24, 1946, cited to text, added the clause in subsection (e) relating property transferred to the American National Red Cross.

Section 2 of said act provided:

"SEC. 2. This Act shall not authorize nor require the refund of any taxes paid for the transfer of any property to the American National Red Cross except such taxes as may have been paid under protest."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ALIENATION OF PROPERTY

That decedent's real estate was subject to statutory lien to secure payment of decedent's debt did not prevent devisee from coming into possession and enjoyment of devise within provision of paragraph (f) of this section providing that where beneficiary dies within six months after death of decedent and before coming into the possession and enjoyment of any property, such property shall be taxed only once. Fisher v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 164 F. 2d 707).

CONSTRUCTION

The sections of this chapter forming complementary parts of death tax plan for the District of Columbia must be construed together. District of Columbia v. Safe Deposit & Trust Co. of Baltimore, 1940 (116 F. 2d 21, 72 App. D. C. 197).

DOMICILE

In determining whether federal employee was, at time of his death, legally domiciled in Florida or in District of Columbia which sought to impose inheritance tax, court could review legal effect attached to evidence before board of tax appeals since a domiciliary determination involves a compound consideration of fact and law. Pace v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 41, 320 U. S. 726, 88 L. Ed. 428, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

Where district court, sitting in probate, concluded that federal employee died a resident of Florida and ordered his will transmitted to clerk of appropriate court in that state and a few weeks later granted ancillary letters testamentary, such orders were entitled to weight but were not conclusive on question whether the federal employee was domiciled in the District of Columbia so as to permit the District to impose an inheritance tax. Pace v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 41, 320 U. S. 726, 88 L. Ed. 428, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

EVIDENCE

Evidence established that federal employee who died after 27 years of official service in District of Columbia was legally domiciled in Florida, his domicile of origin, at time of his death, and therefore petitioner was not subject to the District of Columbia inheritance tax. Pace v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332, certiorari granted 64 S. Ct. 41, 320 U. S. 726, 88 L. Ed. 428, affirmed 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

GENERAL POWER OF APPOINTMENT

Where irrevocable trust instrument, which provided for distribution of remainder of corpus to income beneficiary at age 45, gave beneficiary general power of appointment, but provided that in default of appointment undistributed corpus should be transferred to persons who would be entitled to distribution of beneficiary's personal estate as of date of his death, and beneficiary executed, under seal, an instrument releasing all power of appointment and died before reaching 45, value of corpus passing on death of beneficiary was not subject to inheritance tax. District of Columbia v. Lloyd (App. D. C. 1947, 160 F. 2d 581).

Where during her lifetime, the beneficiary received the income from a trust without restriction upon its use, with principal held in trust so that she could not encumber or dispose of it even if there had been no restrictive provisions and where by will she could dispose of principal to those whom she might direct, she possessed a general power of appointment subject to taxation. Lane v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 182 F. 2d 105, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 337).

PURCHASE FOR CONSIDERATION

Where contract between stockholders provided that minority stockholders would surrender their stock to a trustee together with insurance policies on their lives, the proceeds of which would be payable to their wives in event of death and would constitute payment of the stock, which would then be returned to corporation and reissued, majority stockholder having power to terminate contract at any time, and minority stockholders had paid their own insurance premiums, additional stock so acquired by majority stockholder was not exempt from inheritance tax as having been acquired by bona fide purchaser for full "consideration in money or money's worth". O'Connor v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 153 F. 2d 225, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 351).

TESTAMENTARY TRANSFERS

Where contract between stockholders provided that minority stockholders would surrender their stock to a trustee together with insurance policies on their lives, the proceeds of which would be paid to the wives of minority stockholders upon death and would constitute payment for the stock, which was then to be returned to the corporation and reissued, additional stock so acquired by majority stockholder was not acquired by an inter vivos transfer, but by a transfer testamentary in character and was subject to inheritance tax. O'Connor v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 153 F. 2d 225, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 351).

§ 47–1602 [20: 969a]. Based on market value—Appraisal.

The tax provided in section 47–1601 shall be paid on the market value of the property or interest therein at the time of the death of the decedent as appraised by the assessor or, in the discretion of the assessor, upon the value as appraised by the probate court of the District. The taxable portion of real or personal property held jointly or by the entireties shall be determined by dividing the value of the entire property by the number of persons in whose joint names it was held. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 2; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1112, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "assessor" the first time said word appears, and deleted the word "said" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "the" following the words "probate court of."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

Where Delaware Corporation doing a title insurance business has its principal and sales office in the District, keeps all its corporate records in the District office, and concedes it transacts all its business in the District, it is subject to the District tax on gross receipts in the District. It is immaterial that its business related entirely to Maryland land. Suburban Title & Investment Corp v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

LAW GOVERNING

Where sections 704–709 of this title provided for annual assessment of real estate in District of Columbia and that annual valuation of real estate should constitute basis of taxation for next succeeding year, and this section provided that inheritance tax should be paid on market value of property or interest therein at time of the death of deceased as appraised by assessor and that appraisal should be taken as true value of property or interest therein, market value of property or interest as determined by appraiser controlled and not annual valuation placed upon property for purposes of property tax. Fisher v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 164 F. 2d 707).

§ 47–1603 [20: 969b]. Appraisal deemed true value—Tax to be lien—Exceptions.

The appraisal thus made shall be deemed and taken to be the true value of the said property or interest therein upon which the said tax shall be paid, and the amount of said tax and the tax imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be a lien on said property or interest therein for the period of ten years from the date of death of the decedent: Provided, however, That such lien shall not attach to any personal property sold or disposed of for value by an administrator, executor, or collector, of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills for the District or by order of said court, or his successor approved by said court, but a lien for said taxes shall attach on all property acquired in substitution therefor for a period of ten years after the acquisition of such substituted property: And provided further, That such lien upon such substituted property shall, upon sale by such personal representatives, be extinguished and shall reattach in the manner as provided with respect of such original property. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, § 3; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (b); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the two proviso clauses.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "for the District" following the word "wills."

§ 47–1604 [20: 969c]. Report by decedent's personal representative—Contents—Payment.

The personal representative of every decedent, the gross value of whose estate is in excess of $1,000 shall, within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all the property (real, personal, and mixed) of the decedent, the market value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent, the name or names of the persons to receive the same and the actual value of the property that each will receive, the relationship of such persons to the decedent, and the age of any persons who receive a life interest in the property, and any other information which the assessor may require. Said personal representative shall, within eighteen months of the date of the death of the decedent and before distribution of the estate, pay to the collector of taxes the taxes imposed by section 47–1601 upon the distributive shares and legacies in his hands and the tax imposed by section 47–1601 against each distributive share or legacy shall be charged against such distributive share or legacy unless the will shall otherwise direct. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 684, ch. 690, title V, § 4; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 4.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the word "gross" before the word "value" the first time said word appears, and deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the words "collector of taxes."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

There is no conflict between this section and 47–2403; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 346, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

To same effect as original annotation, see Rynex v. District of Columbia, 1940 (114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

TIME OF PAYMENT

Section 47–2403 requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the eighteen months provision of this section. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 346, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

§ 47–1605 [20: 969d]. Collection of distributive share.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted this section without change.

§ 47–1606 [20: 969e]. Property not under control of personal representative.

Every person entitled to receive property taxable under section 47–1601, which property is not under the control of a personal representative, and is over $1,000 in value, shall, within six months after the death of the decedent, report under oath to the assessor, on forms provided for that purpose an itemized schedule of all property (real, personal, and mixed) received or to be received by such person; the market value of the same at the time of the death of the decedent and the relationship of such person to the decedent; and any other information which the assessor may require. The tax on the transfer of any such property shall be paid by such person to the collector of taxes within nine months after the date of the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That with respect to real estate passing by will or inheritance such report shall be made within fifteen months after the death of the decedent, and the tax on the transfer thereof shall be paid within eighteen months after the date of the death of the decedent. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 7; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (c); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1113, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the proviso.

The 1939 act reenacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act, amended by the 1938 act.

§ 47–1607 [20: 969f]. Life and future estates—Payment of tax—Lien.

In the case of any grant, deed, devise, descent, or bequest of a life interest or term of years, the donee for life or years shall pay a tax only on the value of his interest, determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe, and the donee of the future interest shall pay a tax only on his interest as based upon the value thereof at the time of the death of the decedent creating such interest. The value of any future interest shall be determined by deducting from the market value of such property at the time of the death of such decedent the value of the precedent life interest or term of years. Where the future interest is vested the donee thereof shall pay the tax within the time in which the tax upon the precedent life interest or term of years is required to be paid under the provisions of sections 47–1604 and 47–1606, as the case may be. Where the future interest is contingent the personal representative of such decedent or the persons interested in such contingent future estate shall have the option of (1) paying, within the time herein provided for the payment of taxes due upon vested future interests, a tax equal to the mean between the highest possible tax and the lowest possible tax which could be imposed under any contingency or condition whereby such contingent future interest might be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged; or (2) paying the tax upon such transfer at the time when such future interest shall become vested at rates and with exemptions in force at the time of the death of the decedent: Provided, That the personal representative or trustee of the estate of the decedent or the persons interested in the future contingent interest shall deposit with the assessor a bond in the penal sum of an amount equal to twice the tax payable under option (1) hereof. Such bonds shall be payable to the District and shall be conditioned for the payment of such tax when and as the same shall become due and payable. The tax upon the transfer of future interests or remainders shall be a lien upon the property or interest transferred from the date of the death of the decedent creating the interests and shall remain in force and effect until ten years after the date when such remainder or future interest shall become vested in the donee thereof. If the tax upon the transfer of a contingent future interest is paid before the same shall become vested, such tax shall be paid by the personal representative out of the corpus of the estate of the decedent, otherwise by the person or persons entitled to receive the same. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, § 10; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 361, ch. 223, § 5 (d); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. I, § 7.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the words "determined in a manner as the Commissioners by regulation may prescribe" following the word "interest" the second time said word appears; deleted, following the word "tax" the second time it appears, the following words "when his right of possession and enjoyment accrues. In the case of a decree, descent, bequest, or grant to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the expiration of one or more life estates or a term of years, the tax shall be assessed on the value of the property or interest therein coming to the beneficiary at the time when he becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment. Said tax shall be a lien for the period of ten years on the property or interest therein from the date when said beneficiary becomes entitled to the same in possession or enjoyment" and inserted in lieu thereof the present remainder of the section.

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "such" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "the" before the word "decedent" immediately before the proviso and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District".

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CHARACTER OF INTEREST

The critical date for the determination of the character of a vested interest is the date of the deceased's death. District of Columbia v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1948, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

REMAINDER INTERESTS TAXABLE

Under the statutory definition of vested interests, the interests herein presented were vested remainders, while at the same time, the remainder interests were subject to be divested should the remaindermen, or any of them, fail to survive the life estate, and as such were subject to taxation. Keep v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 181 F. 2d 789, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 206).

TAXABLE INTEREST

Where grantor devised residue to widow in trust and provided that upon her death or remarriage the residue was to be divided among the children until they reached thirty-seven, such estates were vested for the purposes of taxation. District of Columbia v. Clark (C. A. D. C. 1948, 175 F. 2d 821, 84 U. S. App. D. C. 88).

VESTED AND CONTINGENT INTERESTS

Where the characteristics of a vested interest and a contingent interest had been firmly established in District of Columbia by repeated court decisions and by statutory enactment, Congress in using terms "vested" and "contingent" in this section distinguishing between a vested interest and a contingent interest and providing a different method of taxation for each without defining such terms, recognized as valid for tax purposes, the well established distinction between those two classes of estates. O'Neill v. District of Columbia, 1942 (132 F. 2d 601, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 79).

Where testator devised his residuary estate to his wife for life and on her death to testator's daughters in fee simple share and share alike and "in the event that either of them be then dead unto the survivor of them", the daughters acquired a "vested interest" and not a "contingent interest" within this section which recognizes and taxes separately vested interest and contingent interest. O'Neill v. District of Columbia, 1942 (132 F. 2d 601, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 79).

ARTICLE II—ESTATE TAX

§ 47–1608 [20: 969g]. Imposition of tax—Additional levy on transfers.

In addition to the taxes imposed by sections 47–1601 to 47–1607, there is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every decedent who, after this chapter becomes effective, shall die a resident of the District, a tax equal to eighty per centum of the Federal estate tax imposed by section 810, Title 26, U. S. Code, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 18; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AMOUNT OF TAX

Under sections of this chapter providing unified system of death taxes for the District of Columbia, amount payable to District as estate tax was not 80 percent of the Federal estate tax, but was merely the difference between that amount and the inheritance tax which had been paid to the District on account of the same estate. District of Columbia v. Safe Deposit & Trust Co. of Baltimore, 1940 (116 F. 2d 21, 72 App. D. C. 197).

§ 47–1609 [20: 969h]. Credits—Restriction.

There shall be credited against and applied in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47–1608 the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax lawfully imposed by any State or Territory of the United States, in respect of any property included in the gross estate for Federal estate tax purposes as prescribed in U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A), and section 3655, as amended, or as hereafter amended or reenacted: Provided, however, That only such taxes as are actually paid and which are proper allowances against the Federal estate tax may be applied as a credit against and in reduction of the tax imposed by section 47–1608.

(Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 19; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 2; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 46, ch. 33, § 3 (a).)

AMENDMENTS

The act of Feb. 2, 1942, cited to text, amended section by substituting words "which are proper allowances" for words "credit therefor claimed and allowed" in the proviso.

STATUTORY REFERENCE

The words "U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A), and section 3655" are substituted for the words "Title III of the Revenue Act of 1926" used in the original enactment. Said chapter, with the exception of section 840 thereof is derived from title III of said Revenue Act, and comprises Chapter 3, subchapter A of the Internal Revenue Code.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted the section as it appeared in the 1937 act making internal cross-reference changes.

§ 47–1610 [20: 969i]. Not to exceed difference between maximum credit and levy by States.

In no event shall the tax imposed by section 47–1608 of this chapter exceed the difference between the maximum credit which might be allowed against the Federal estate tax imposed by U. S. Code, title 26, chapter 3 (subchapter A) and section 3655, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, and the aggregate amount of the taxes described in section 47–1609 (but not including the tax imposed by section 47–1608) allowable as a credit against the Federal estate tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 20; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1114, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 3.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

See note to § 47–1609.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act reenacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act making only internal cross reference changes.

§ 47–1611 [20: 969j]. Benefits to District.

The purpose of section 47–1608 is to secure for the District the benefit of the credit allowed under the provisions of U. S. Code, title 26, section 810, as amended, or as hereafter amended or re-enacted, to the extent that the District may be entitled by the provisions of said section, by imposing additional taxes, and the same shall be liberally construed to effect such purpose: Provided, That the amount of the tax imposed by section 47–1608 shall not be decreased by any failure to secure the allowance of credit against the Federal estate tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 21; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 4.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The words of the original enactment "credit allowed under the provisions of section 301 (c) of title III of the Revenue Act of 1926" have been translated to "U. S. Code, title 26, § 813 (b)," the section where such credit is now provided for.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times it appears.

§ 47–1612 [20: 969k]. Tax on transfer of nonresidents' real and personal property.

A tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of real property or tangible personal property in the District of every person who at the time of death was a resident of the United States but not a resident of the District, and upon the transfer of all property, both real and personal, within the District of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes actually paid to the several States exceeds the amount actually so paid for such taxes, exclusive of estate taxes based upon the difference between such credit and other estate taxes and inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes, as the value of the property in the District bears to the value of the entire estate, subject to estate tax under the applicable Federal Revenue Act. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 27, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" each time it appears.

Situs of intangibles. § 47–1629.

§ 47–1613 [20: 969*l*]. Executor to file copy of Federal return with assessor.

Every executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent dying a resident of the District or of a nonresident decedent owning real estate or tangible personal property situated in the District, or of an alien decedent owning any real estate, tangible or intangible personal property situated in the District, or, if there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting, then any person in actual or constructive possession of any property forming a part of an estate subject to estate tax under this chapter shall, within sixteen months after the death of the decedent file with the assessor a copy of the return required by U. S. Code, title 26, sections 820, 821 (a) (b) (c), and 864 (a) (b) (c), verified by the affidavit of the person filing said return with the assessor, and shall, within thirty days after the date of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, confirming, increasing, or diminishing the tax shown to be due, file a copy of such communication with the assessor. With the copy of the Federal estate tax return there shall be filed an affidavit as to the several amounts paid or expected to be paid as taxes within the purview of section 47–1609: Provided, however, That in any case where the time for the filing of such return as required by U. S. Code, title 26, sections 820, 821 (a) (b) (c), and 864 (a) (b) (c), is extended without penalty by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, then the copy thereof verified as aforesaid may be filed with the assessor within thirty days after the expiration of said extended period. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 22; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment inserted the words "the estate of" following the words "administrator of" the first time said words appear; deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" the first time said word appears and inserted in lieu thereof the next 34 words; deleted the words "within the District of Columbia" following the word "acting"; deleted the words "the gross" following the words "forming a part of" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "an"; inserted, following the word "estate" the fourth time the said word appears, the words "subject to estate tax under this title shall, within sixteen months after the death of the decedent"; and added the proviso.

§ 47–1614 [20: 969m]. Assessment on basis of return.

The assessor shall, upon receipt of the return and accompanying affidavit, assess such amount as he may determine, from the basis of the return, to be due the District. Upon receipt of a copy of any communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, herein required to be filed, the assessor shall make such additional assessment or shall make such abatement of the assessment as may appear proper. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 23; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1115, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

§ 47–1615 [20: 969n]. Tax payable within 17 months.

The estate taxes imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within seventeen months after the death of the decedent: Provided, however, That in any case where the time for the payment of taxes imposed by U. S. Code, Title 26, sections 810, 813 (a) (2), and 860, is extended by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, then the tax imposed by sections 47–1608 to 47–1615 shall be paid within sixty days after the expiration of such extended period, together with interest as provided in section 47–1619: Provided further, That any additional assessment found to be due under section 47–1614 shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of such additional assessment by the assessor. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 24; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. II, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the section as it appeared in the 1937 act and inserted in lieu thereof the section as it now appears. The former section read as follows: "The tax imposed by this article shall be paid to the collector of taxes within thirty days after the determination of said taxes by the assessor of the District of Columbia."

ARTICLE III—GENERAL

§ 47–1616 [20: 969o]. Liability of bond for assessments—Limitation.

The bond of the personal representative of the decedent shall be liable for all taxes and penalties assessed under this chapter, except inheritance taxes and penalties imposed in relation to the transfer of property not under the control of such personal representative: Provided, That in no case shall the bond of the personal representative be liable for a greater sum than is actually received by him. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 6; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act added the exception.

§ 47–1617 [20: 969p]. Monthly report of names of decedents by register of wills.

The register of wills of the District shall report to the assessor on forms provided for the purpose every qualification in the District upon the estate of a decedent. Such report shall be filed with the assessor at least once every month, and shall contain the name of the decedent, the date of his death, the name and address of the personal representative, and the value of the estate, as shown by the petition for administration or probate. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" both times said word appears.

§ 47–1618 [20: 969q]. Administration — Rules — Appeal—Hearing—Decision—Testimony—Production of books and records.

The commissioners shall have supervision of the enforcement of this chapter and shall have the power to make such rules and regulations, consistent with said sections, as may be necessary for enforcement of said sections and efficient administration and to provide for the granting of extension of time within which to perform the duties imposed by this chapter. The assessor shall determine all taxes assessable under this chapter, and immediately upon the determination of same, shall forward a statement of the taxes determined to the person or persons chargeable with the payment thereof and shall give advice thereof to the collector of taxes.

The assessor is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before him to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to this chapter and the assessor is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the assessor may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 685, ch. 690, title V, § 9; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment added the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "commissioners" in the first paragraph and the word "assessor" the first time said word appears in the second paragraph; deleted the words "or any member of the Board of Assistant Assessors or Board of Personal Tax Appeals" in the second paragraph following the word "him" the first time said word appears and following the word "assessor" the second time said word appears; and, deleted three sentences from the end of the first paragraph which provided for an appeal to the Board of Personal Tax Appeals.

§ 47–1619 [20: 969r]. Arrears.

If the taxes imposed by this chapter are not paid when due, 1 per centum interest for each month or portion of a month from the date when the same were due until paid shall be added to the amount of said taxes and collected as a part of the same, and said taxes shall be collected by the collector of taxes in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection: Provided, however, That where the time for payment of the tax imposed by this chapter is extended by the assessor or where the payment of the tax is lawfully suspended under the regulations for the administration of this chapter, or where the date for payment of any tax imposed by § 47–1608 to § 47–1615 is extended by the provisions of § 47–1615 beyond seventeen months after the date of death of the decedent, interest shall be paid at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date on which the tax would otherwise be payable. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 11; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1116, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 4; Feb. 2, 1942, 56 Stat. 47, ch. 33, § 3 (c).).

AMENDMENTS

The act of Feb. 2, 1942, cited to text, amended section by adding all words between words "administration of this chapter" and "interest shall".

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the words "collector of taxes," and the words "of Columbia" following the word "District," and added the proviso.

§ 47–1620 [20: 969s]. Enforcement.

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "commissioners."

CROSS REFERENCE

§ 47–1621 [20: 969t]. Failure to file return—False return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to file a return who fails to file such return within the time prescribed by this chapter, or within such additional time as may be granted under regulations promulgated by the commissioners, shall become liable in his own person and estate to the District in an amount equal to 10 per centum of the tax found to be due. In case any person required by this chapter to file a return knowingly files a false or fraudulent return, he shall become liable in his own person and estate to the said District in an amount equal to 50 per centum of the tax found to be due. Such amounts shall be collected in the same manner as is herein provided for the collection of the taxes levied under this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 686, ch. 690, title V, § 13; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (e); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 6.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment reduced the first penalty from 25% per annum to 10% per annum.

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of the District of Columbia" following the word "Commissioners," and the words "of Columbia" following the word "District."

§ 47–1622 [20: 969u]. Wilful failure to pay taxes, make return—Penalty.

Any person required by this chapter to pay a tax or required by law or regulation made under authority thereof to make a return or keep any records or supply any information for the purposes of computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who wilfully fails to pay such tax, make any such return, or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 14; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 7.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act re-enacted this section as it appeared in the 1937 act.

§ 47–1623 [20: 969v]. Release of lien.

When the assessor is satisfied that the tax liability imposed by this chapter has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property from the lien herein imposed by this chapter. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 683, ch. 690, title V, § 15; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 8.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the words "of any estate" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "imposed by this title" following the word "liability," deleted the words "of said District" following the word "Commissioners," and deleted the words "of such estate" following the word "property."

§ 47–1624 [20: 969w]. Transfers of assets—Notice—Portion retained to pay tax—Assessor to examine assets—Issuance of certificate.

No person holding, within the District tangible or intangible assets of any resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, shall deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, unless notice of the date and place of such intended transfer be served upon the assessor of the District of Columbia at least ten days prior to such delivery or transfer, nor shall any person holding, within the District of Columbia, any assets of a resident or nonresident decedent, of the value of $300 or more, deliver or transfer the same or any part thereof to any person other than an executor, administrator, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by said District Court without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may be assessed on account of the transfer of such assets under the provisions of sections 47–1601 to 47–1624 without an order from the assessor of the District of Columbia authorizing such transfer. It shall be lawful for the assessor of the District, personally, or by his representatives, to examine said assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain as herein required a sufficient portion or amount to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter shall render such person liable to the payment of such taxes. The assessor of the District may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of said assessor that no tax is due thereon: Provided, however, That any corporation, foreign or domestic to the District having outstanding stock or other securities registered in the sole name of a decedent whose estate or any part thereof is taxable under this chapter may transfer the same, without notice to the assessor and without liability for any tax imposed thereon under this chapter, upon the order of an administrator, executor, or collector of the estate of such decedent appointed by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, or by a trustee appointed under a will filed with the register of wills of the District, or appointed by said court, or his successor approved by said court: Provided further, That the lessor of a safe-deposit box standing in the joint names of a decedent and a survivor or survivors may deliver the entire contents of such safe-deposit box to the survivor or survivors, after examination of such contents by the assessor or his representative, without any liability on the part of the said lessor for the payment of such tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 687, ch. 690, title V, § 16; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 362, ch. 223, § 5 (f); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1117, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 9.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1938 amendment added the second proviso.

The 1939 amendment added the first proviso, and deleted the words "of Columbia" following the word "District" the first time the said word appears in the first, second, and fourth sentences and added the words "of the value of $300 or more" both times they appear.

§ 47–1625 [20: 969x]. Bureau of Internal Revenue to supply information to Commissioners.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Commissioners relative to any person subject to the taxes imposed under this chapter or relative to any person whose estate is subject to the provisions of said sections. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 26, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 363, ch. 223, § 5 (g); July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title V, art. III, § 10.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment re-enacted the section as it appeared in the 1938 act.

CROSS REFERENCE

(July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 5; April 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815, § 2; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 2.)

TAX ON PRIVILEGE OF DOING BUSINESS

The District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, August 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 688, ch. 690, title VI, § 16, as added by act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 6 (a), provided that the entire title VI, imposing a tax on the privilege of doing business, should expire June 30, 1939. This title appeared as sections 970 to 970r of title 20 of the 1929 District of Columbia Code, Supp. V, Title VII of the Revenue Act of 1939, July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1119, ch. 367, provided that "The laws authorizing the imposition by the District of Columbia of intangible personal property taxes and business privilege taxes are hereby extended from and after June 30, 1939, for the following purposes in connection with the taxes accrued or due under such laws prior to July 1, 1939—

"(1) For the imposition of assessments and penalties, civil and criminal, for the violation of or failure to comply with such laws and the regulations issued thereunder;

"(2) For requiring the making, filing, and submission of returns and reports required by such laws;

"(3) For the examination of all books, records, and other documents, and witnesses; and

"(4) For the assessment and collection of such taxes, and the filing of liens therefor."

COMPILER'S NOTE

Section 2 (b) of title IV of the 1939 act, cited to the text, provided as follows: "This section shall not apply to gross earnings or gross receipts for any fiscal year ending the 30th day of June prior to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940. Taxes shall be levied and collected for the fiscal years preceding the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, under said paragraph 5 of section 6 of said act of July 1, 1902, as if this title had not been enacted."

AMENDMENTS

The 1904 amendment provided that that part of the section as it appeared in the 1902 act "shall be construed to mean that all street railroad companies shall pay four per centum per annum on their gross receipts within the District of Columbia and other taxes as provided by existing law."

The 1939 amendment added the words "or gross receipts, as the case may be" following the words "gross earnings" the first time said words appear; added after the word "June" in the first paragraph the words "and each national bank and all other incorporated banks and trust companies respectively shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia per annum 6 per centum on such gross earnings and each gas company, electric lighting company, and telephone company"; changed the percentages in the proviso of the first paragraph; added the words "existing law" in the first sentence of the proviso; and, deleted the words added by and above quoted from the 1904 act.

REPEAL

The final sentence of (a) of act of July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1107, ch. 367, title IV, § 2, read: "So much of the act approved October 1, 1890, entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation of trust, loan, mortgage, and certain other corporations within the District of Columbia' as is inconsistent with the provisions of this section is hereby repealed." 26 Stat. 625, ch. 1246, D. C. Code, 1901, §§ 715–748, D. C. Code, 1940, §§ 26–301, 26–304 to 26–336.

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see Compiler's Notes to § 47–1401.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

IN GENERAL

This statute is all inclusive covering gross earnings from whatever source. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Hazen (67 App. D. C. 161, 90 Fed. (2d) 406).

This being a measure to tax the gross earnings of gas, electric and telephone companies, said tax is merely franchise in nature and therefore is not a burden on commerce. Potomac Elec. Power Co. v. Hazen (67 App. D. C. 161, 90 Fed. (2d) 406).

CLASSIFICATION OF BANKS

A difference in tax rate on gross earnings as between savings banks and national and all other incorporated banks constituted a valid classification for tax purposes. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Where national banks and savings banks in District of Columbia all engaged in both savings account and commercial banking business, administrative classification of state banks as savings banks and national banks as not savings banks for tax purposes was improper. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

CONSTRUCTION

The Loan Shark Law, § 26–601 et seq., the usury law, § 28–703 et seq., and this chapter are to be read together and when so read constitute a comprehensive code for business of lending money in the District of Columbia. Hartman v. Lubar, 1942 (133 F. 2d 44, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 95, certiorari denied 63 S. Ct. 1329, 319 U. S. 767, 87 L. Ed. 1716, rehearing denied 64 S. Ct. 30, 320 U. S. 808, 88 L. Ed. 488).

ELECTRIC COMPANY

FEDERAL LAWS

12 U. S. C. § 548 relating to state taxation of national bank shares was addressed to state legislatures and was inapplicable to gross earnings tax to which banks in District of Columbia were subject, although said section was relevant as indication of congressional policy. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

FRANCHISE TAX

GAS COMPANY

A company engaged in the manufacture and supplying of gas may deduct from gross receipts the amount expended for raw materials from which gas is manufactured when the money that was spent for the raw materials had been taken from the capital of the company. District of Columbia v. Georgetown Gas-Light Co. (45 App. D. C. 63).

INTEREST, DEDUCTION OF

Interest paid by national bank in District of Columbia to depositors on savings accounts was not deductible in computing gross earnings within this section. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

INTEREST ON GOVERNMENT BONDS

The act of April 24, 1917, § 1 (U. S. C., title 31, § 746) exempting interest on government bonds, etc., from taxation, held applicable to the tax imposed by this paragraph. District of Columbia v. Riggs Nat. Bank (58 App. D. C. 349, 30 Fed. (2d) 873, cert. den. 279 U. S. 846, 73 L. Ed. 991, 49 Sup. Ct. 343).

MOTION TO DISMISS

Where plaintiff bank seeks recovery of taxes allegedly paid by it involuntarily after they were illegally and erroneously assessed by the District over the amount actually due, motion to dismiss complaint will be denied, since the taxes were paid involuntarily and parties were not on terms of equality. American Security & Trust Co. v. District of Columbia (D. C. D. C. 1950, 91 F. Supp. 713).

TELEPHONE COMPANY

Where all telephone company's services were performed within District of Columbia, its receipts from all its services including handling of interstate calls, which services were necessarily performed in conjunction with services which connecting companies performed outside the District, were subject to tax imposed on gross receipts from sale of public utility services within the District. Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (137 F. 2d 674, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 53).

Where telephone company did not print telephone directories but bought them as finished products, the company was entitled to deduct amount which it paid for the directories from its gross receipts, in order to determine its "gross earnings" subject to gross earnings tax. Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. v. District of Columbia, 1943 (137 F. 2d 674, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 53).

§ 47–1702 [20: 761]. Bonding, title, guaranty and fidelity companies.

All companies, incorporated or otherwise, who guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and all companies who furnish abstracts of titles to real property, or who insure real estate titles, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one and one-half per centum of their gross receipts in the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 6; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment struck out the 1902 section and inserted in lieu thereof the section as it now appears.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

The words "gross receipts" here construed are not equivalent to the words "consideration received" used in a section not in issue imposing a tax on consideration received on all insurance contracts on risks in the District. Surburban Title & Investment Corp. v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

§ 47–1703 [20: 762]. Savings banks.

Savings banks having no capital stock and paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make affidavit to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their surplus and undivided profits, and shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to one and one-half per centum on the amount of their surplus and undivided profits on the 30th day of June preceding.

Incorporated savings banks paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make report under oath to the board of personal-tax appraisers on or before the 1st day of August in each year as to the amount of their gross earnings, less the amount paid as interest to their depositors for the preceding year ending June 30th, and shall pay thereon to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 619, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 7; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

The 1904 amendment added the second paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CLASSIFICATION OF BANKS

A difference in tax rate on gross earnings as between savings banks and national and all other incorporated banks constituted a valid classification for tax purposes. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Where national banks and savings banks in the District of Columbia engaged in both savings account and commercial banking business, administrative classification for gross earnings tax purposes of state banks as savings banks and national banks as not savings banks was invalid as not in harmony with this chapter. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

Where a bank is an incorporated savings bank under any and all tests pursuant to which that status is accorded to state banks, and when the character of its business and its methods of conducting it are identified with those of state institutions, it is taxable under § 47–1703 and not under § 47–1701. Hamilton National Bank v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 624, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 109, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

The Board of Tax Appeals was justified in holding state chartered banks to be taxable under § 47–1703 as incorporated savings banks, and not taxable under § 47–1701. Hamilton National Bank v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1949, 176 F. 2d 624, 85 U. S. App. D. C. 109, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 146).

FRANCHISE TAX

The tax imposed by this statute is clearly a franchise tax, and not a property tax on the earnings of banks as such. Security Sav. & Commercial Bank v. District of Columbia (51 App. D. C. 316, 279 Fed. 185).

MOTION TO DISMISS

Where plaintiff bank seeks recovery of taxes allegedly paid by it involuntarily after they were illegally and erroneously assessed by the District over the amount actually due, motion to dismiss complaint will be denied, since the taxes were paid involuntarily and parties were not on terms of equality. American Security & Trust Co. v. District of Columbia (D. C., D. C. 1950, 91 F. Supp. 713).

§ 47–1704 [20: 764]. Building associations.

Building associations in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia two per centum per annum on their entire gross earnings for the preceding year ending June 30th. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 620, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 9; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 564, ch. 1815.)

AMENDMENT

In the 1902 act this section read as follows: "Building associations shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum on their gross earnings for the preceding year ending June thirtieth."

§ 47–1705 [20: 764a]. Insolvent building or homestead associations.

Whenever and after any building or homestead association, which was incorporated or doing business under the law of the District of Columbia, has ceased to do business by reason of insolvency no tax on personal property, either tangible or intangible, shall be levied, assessed, or collected by the District of Columbia against or from such association if such tax shall diminish the assets of such association necessary for the payment of the full amount due on share accounts in, or on shares of, such association to the holders thereof, and such tax, if heretofore levied, shall be abated as against any such associations as are or have been found by the comptroller of the currency to be insolvent. (Aug. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 1210, ch. 446.)

§ 47–1706 [20: 765]. Private banks.

Private banks or bankers not incorporated shall pay a tax of five hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated having a place of business where credits are opened by the deposit or collection of moneys or currency subject to be paid or remitted upon draft, check, or order, or where money is advanced or loaned on stocks, bonds, bullion, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or where stocks, bonds, bills of exchange or promissory notes are received for discount or for sale, shall be regarded as a private bank or banker. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 621, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 14.)

§ 47–1707 [20: 766]. Washington Stock Exchange.

The Washington Stock Exchange, through its president or treasurer, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum equal to five hundred dollars per annum in lieu of tax on the members thereof for business done on said exchange. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 15.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

That part of section 6, par. 15, of the 1902 act, cited to the text, which imposed a tax of $250 per annum upon general brokers, and of $100 per annum upon any broker who is a member of a regularly organized stock exchange outside of the District, has been omitted in view of the case cited below holding in effect that the statute, by imposing an unreasonable burden on the right of a citizen to pursue a lawful occupation open to his competitors upon less onerous terms operates substantially as the taking of property without due process of law, and was therefore within the prohibition of the 5th Amendment of the Constitution. Lappin v. District of Columbia (22 App. D. C. 68, 80).

§ 47–1708 [20: 767]. Note brokers.

Note brokers shall pay a tax of one hundred dollars per annum. Every person, firm, company, or association not incorporated (except private banks and bankers) that loans money on promissory notes without real estate or collateral security or advances money on personal property as security without possession of said personal property shall be deemed a note broker: Provided, That exception shall be made of cooperative associations whose business is restricted to the members of such association. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 16.)

§ 47–1709 [20: 768]. Private banks and note brokers to pay annual tax on the first day of July each year.

The taxes for said private banks and bankers, and note brokers shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and shall date from the 1st day of July in each year and expire on the 30th day of June following. Said taxes shall date from the 1st day of the month in which the liability begins, and payment shall be made for a proportionate amount. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 6, par. 17.)

Chapter 18—INSURANCE COMPANIES

Sec.
47–1801. Taxes on insurance companies.
47–1802. Penalty clause.
47–1803. Prosecutions in police court.
47–1804. Annual statements required—Filing fee.
47–1805. Revocation of license if statement not filed.
47–1806. Rates on insurance companies—Exceptions—Definitions—Marine insurance excluded.
47–1807. Penalty.
47–1808. Exemption of nonprofit relief associations.

§ 47–1801 [20: 966]. Taxes on insurance companies.

Every domestic, foreign, or alien company organized as a stock, mutual, reciprocal, Lloyd's, fraternal, or any other type of insurance company or association, before issuing contracts of insurance against loss of life or health, or by fire, marine, accident, casualty, fidelity and surety title guaranty, or other hazard not contrary to public policy, shall obtain from the superintendent of insurance of the District of Columbia an annual license or certificate of authority, upon payment of a fee of $25 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. All licenses for insurance companies who may apply for permission to do business in the District of Columbia shall date from the first of the month in which application is made, and expire on the 30th day of April following, and payments shall be made in proportion. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTES

The original act contains these words before the present first word, "On and after the first day of September 1937."

This chapter superseded in whole or in part §§ 35–406 to 35–409, which relate to annual statements by life insurance companies.

This chapter partially supersedes § 35–202.

This chapter supersedes in whole or in part § 35–402 which requires life insurance companies and agents to pay certain fees.

§ 47–1803 [20: 966b]. Prosecutions in police court.

All prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 3.)

§ 47–1804 [20: 966c]. Annual statements required—Filing fee.

Each of such companies shall file an annual statement, in the form prescribed by the superintendent of insurance, before March 1 of each year, of its operations for the year ending December 31 immediately preceding. Such statement shall be verified by the oath of the president and secretary or in their absence by two other principal officers. The fee for filing said statement shall be $20 and payment therefor shall be made to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 675, ch. 690, title II, § 4.)

§ 47–1805 [20: 966d]. Revocation of license if statement not filed.

If any such company shall fail to file the annual statement herein required, the superintendent of insurance may thereupon revoke its license or certificate of authority to transact business in the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 5.)

§ 47–1806 [20: 966e]. Rates on insurance companies—Exceptions—Definitions—Marine insurance excluded.

All such companies, including companies which issue annuity contracts, shall also pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sum of money as taxes equal to 2 per centum of their policy and membership fees and net premium receipts or consideration received on all insurance and annuity contracts on risks in the District of Columbia, said taxes to be paid before the 1st day of March of each year on the amount of such income for the year ending December 31, next preceding. Such tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes except (1) taxes upon real estate and (2) fees and charges provided for by the insurance laws of the District including amendments made to such laws by this title.

Net premium receipts or consideration received means gross premiums or consideration received less the sum of the following:

1. Premiums received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned on policies or contracts canceled or not taken.

2. Dividends paid in cash or used by the policyholders in payment of renewal premiums.

Nothing contained in this section or in sections 47–1801, 47–1807 shall apply with respect to marine insurance written within the said District and reported, taxed, and licensed under the provisions of sections 35–1101 to 35–1132. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 6; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1938 amendment added the words "including companies which issue annuity contracts" following the word "companies" the first time said word appears; the words "or consideration" following the word "receipts" the first time said word appears; the words "and annuity" following the word "insurance" the first time said word appears; the words "or consideration received" and "or consideration" in the second paragraph; the words "received for reinsurance assumed and premiums or consideration returned" and "or contracts" in the third paragraph (numbered (1)); and deleted the words "Premiums paid for reinsurance where the same are paid to companies duly licensed to do business in the District, and."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

Where section not in issue imposes a tax on "consideration received" the words "gross receipts" being construed in the instant case are not equivalent to "consideration received." Surburban Title & Investment Corp. v. District of Columbia (C. A. D. C. 1950, 180 F. 2d 387, 86 U. S. App. D. C. 112).

INSURANCE COMPANIES

Title insurance companies, whose business consisted solely of issuing either certificates of title or title policies to real estate in District of Columbia and such further incidental transactions as related to such main objectives, were "insurance companies" within this section imposing tax on membership fees and premium receipts of insurance companies in lieu of all other taxes. Real Estate Title Ins. Co. v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1947, 161 F. 2d 887).

§ 47–1807 [20: 966f]. Penalty.

If any such company shall fail to pay the tax herein required, it shall be liable to the District of Columbia for the amount thereof, and in addition thereof a penalty of 8 per centum per month thereafter until paid. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 7.)

§ 47–1808 [20: 966g]. Exemption of nonprofit relief associations.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall apply to any relief association, not conducted for profit, composed solely of officers and enlisted men of the United States Army or Navy, or solely of employees of any other branch of the United States Government service or solely of employees of the District of Columbia government, or solely of employees of any individual, company, firm, or corporation or to any fraternal organization which issues contracts of insurance exclusively to its own members. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title II, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GROUP HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Group Health Association falls within exempting proviso of statute. Jordan v. Group Health Assn. (71 App. D. C. 38, 107 Fed. (2d) 239).

The word "corporation" as used in the exemption obviously refers to private concerns, not governmental agencies, and Group Health is relieved from the requirements of this section. Jordan v. Group Health Assn. (71 App. D. C. 38, 107 Fed. (2d) 239).

47–1918. Revenue and disbursements.
47–1919. Continuation of uncompleted projects at end of fiscal year.

§ 47–1901 [20: 831]. Rate—Use restricted.

A tax of 2 cents per gallon on all motor-vehicle fuels within the District of Columbia, sold or otherwise disposed of by an importer, or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, shall be levied, collected, and paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

All proceeds of the taxes imposed under the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, except as otherwise provided in section 47–1910, and all moneys collected from fees charged for the registration and titling of motor vehicles including fees charged for the issuance of permits to operate motor vehicles, shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia, and shall be appropriated and used solely and exclusively for the following purposes:

(1) For the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways, including the necessary administrative expenses in connection therewith;

(2) For the expenses of the office of the director of vehicles and traffic incident to the regulation and control of traffic and the administration of the same; and

(3) For the expenses necessarily involved in the police control, regulation, and administration of traffic upon the highways: Provided, however, That the total amount to be expended under this item shall not exceed 15 per centum of the total amount appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force. For the fiscal year 1938 all moneys appropriated for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of highways and administrative expenses in connection therewith, all moneys appropriated for the department of vehicles and traffic, and 15 per centum of all moneys appropriated for pay and allowances of officers and members of the Metropolitan police force shall be paid from and chargeable against the fund hereby created. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 106, ch. 131, § 1; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment deleted the following sentence from the first paragraph: "The proceeds of the tax, except as provided in section 10, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States entirely to the credit of the District of Columbia and shall be available for appropriation by the Congress exclusively for road and street improvement and repair," and added the second and following paragraphs of the section.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

A special repaving assessment under acts authorizing assessments on frontage basis was invalid. Reichelderfer v. Hechinger (61 App. D. C. 104, 57 Fed. (2d) 943).

§ 47–1901a. Repealed. July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 360, ch. 258, Art. III, § 2, effective Aug. 1, 1947.

Section, act Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 1, provided for temporary increase in rate of one cent per gallon from July 1, 1942, to June 30, 1951.

§ 47–1901b. Increase in rate.

The tax of 2 cents per gallon on motor-vehicle fuels within the District of Columbia, sold or otherwise disposed of by an importer, or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, imposed by section 47–1901, and increased by section 47–1901a, to 3 cents per gallon effective January 1, 1942, and extending to and including June 30, 1951, is hereby further increased to 4 cents per gallon effective on the first day of the first month following the approval of this section and extending to and including June 30, 1952, and thereafter the tax shall be 3 cents per gallon. When, pursuant to section 47–1912, gasoline or other motor-vehicle fuel is sold by any agency of the United States within the District of Columbia, for use in privately owned vehicles, such agency of the United States shall, by agreement with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, arrange for the collection of the full amount of the tax per gallon herein authorized to be imposed and as increased by this section, and shall account to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for the proceeds of such tax collections. (July 16, 1947, 61 Stat. 359, Art. III, § 1.)

§ 47–1902 [20: 832]. Definitions.

As used in sections 47–1901—47–1916—

(a) The term "motor vehicle" means all vehicles propelled by internal-combustion engines, electricity, or steam, except traction engines, road rollers, and vehicles propelled only upon rails and tracks.

(b) The term "motor vehicle fuels" means gasoline and other volatile and inflammable liquid fuels produced or compounded for the purpose of operating or propelling internal-combustion engines: Provided, That kerosene shall not be considered to be a motor-vehicle fuel in the meaning of this chapter.

(c) The term "importer" means any person who brings into, or who produces, refines, manufactures, or compounds, in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, kept for sale, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods. The term "distributor" means any person other than an importer, who purchases motor-vehicle fuel for sale to another person for resale.

(d) The term "person" includes individual, partnership, corporation, and association.

(e) The term "commissioners" means the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(f) The term "highways" means the right of way of streets, avenues, and roads, bridges, viaducts, underpasses, drainage structures, guard rails, signs, signals, curbing, and dikes, fills, and retaining walls necessary to support or protect the highway.

(g) The term "construction" means the supervising, inspecting, actual building, and all expenses incidental to the construction of a highway, including the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(h) The term "reconstruction" means a widening or a rebuilding of the highway or any portion thereof and of sufficient width and strength to care adequately for traffic needs, including all expenses incidental to the reconstruction of a highway and the acquisition of the necessary rights of way.

(i) The term "maintenance" means the constant making of needed repairs to preserve the highway.

(j) The term "improvement" means the betterment of a highway by construction, reconstruction, or resurfacing. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 106, ch. 131, § 2; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 677, ch. 690, title III, § 2; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 358, ch. 223, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1937 amendment deleted from subsection (c) the words "or otherwise disposed of by him or to be used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes" and inserted in lieu thereof the words which follow the word "sold" to the end of the subsection, and added subsections (f), (g), (h), and (i).

The 1938 amendment in subsection (f) deleted the words "and protective structures in connection with highways" and inserted in lieu thereof the words following the word "signals," and added subsection (j).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GASOLINE IMPORTED BY UNITED STATES

United States is not an "importer" or "person" within the meaning of the act. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (59 App. D. C. 260, 39 Fed. (2d) 510).

§ 47–1903 [20: 833]. Importers — License — Application for—Contents—Fee—Bond—Issuance—Revocation.

(a) No person shall bring into, or produce, refine, manufacture, or compound in the District of Columbia motor-vehicle fuel to be used by him or to be sold, bartered, delivered for value, or exchanged for goods, and no person shall engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels in the District of Columbia unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked license authorizing him so to do issued by the commissioners. The application for such license shall contain (1) the name of the applicant; (2) the name under which the applicant intends to transact business and the name and place of business of the local representative; (3) the location of the applicant's place of business; (4) the date such business was established; and (5) any other information required under regulations promulgated by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. In case the applicant is a corporation, the application shall also contain the corporate name, place, and time of incorporation, and the names of the officers and directors, and, if a foreign corporation, the name of its resident general agent, and in case the applicant is a partnership the names and addresses of the several persons constituting the partnership. Such application shall be signed and sworn to by the owner of such business, if owned by an individual; by the partners, if owned by a partnership; or by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by its manager or resident general agent, if owned by a corporation. At the time of applying for such license the applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes as an annual license fee the sum of $5 and shall file with the commissioners of the District of Columbia a bond in the form to be prescribed by said commissioners, in the approximate sum of three times the average monthly motor-fuel tax due from said such importer during the next preceding twelve months, or estimated to be so due in the next succeeding twelve months, to be executed by a surety company duly licensed to do business under the laws of the District of Columbia, payable to the District of Columbia and conditioned upon the prompt payment of any and all taxes and penalties, levied and imposed in sections 47–1901 and 47–1903 to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, and generally upon faithful compliance with the terms of sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 by such importer: Provided, That in no case shall such bond be less than $5,000 nor more than $20,000.

(b) Upon filing such application and bond and the payment of the fee, the assessor shall issue to such applicant a license which shall authorize the applicant to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels for one year unless such license is sooner revoked.

(c) If any importer fails, refuses, or neglects to file the monthly report within the time required by section 47–1904, or to pay the tax within the time required by section 47–1906 there shall be added to such tax an amount equal to the sum of 20 per centum of the amount of such tax, and the assessor shall promptly notify the importer and the bonding company by notice sent by registered mail to such importer requiring him to show cause why the license should not be revoked. If in the opinion of the assessor the importer fails within ten days after the mailing of such notice to show that failure to file the monthly report or to pay the tax as the case may be within the time required was due to accident or justifiable oversight, the assessor shall forthwith revoke such license. Any importer whose license has been revoked shall not be issued another license for twelve months following the date of said revocation.

(d) Before any person whose license has been revoked may obtain another license to engage in the business of importer of motor-vehicle fuels, such person shall pay all delinquent taxes and penalties due hereunder remaining unpaid by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 3; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 678, ch. 690, title III, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment is, in effect, a new enactment superseding this section as contained in the 1924 act.

CROSS REFERENCE

NOTES TO DECISIONS

SALE TO UNITED STATES

Congress did not intend to permit the United States to import gasoline, tax-free, and yet impose a tax if delivery to the United States by the vendor should be made in the District instead of across the line in Virginia. District of Columbia v. American Oil Co. (59 App. D. C. 260, 39 Fed. (2d) 510).

§ 47–1904 [20: 834]. To render monthly report to assessor of amount of fuel sold.

Each importer engaged in the District of Columbia in the sale or other disposition or use of motor-vehicle fuel shall render to the assessor of the District of Columbia, on or before the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month, on forms prescribed, prepared, and furnished by the said assessor, a sworn report of the total number of gallons of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia sold or otherwise disposed of by such importer or used by him in a motor vehicle operated for hire or for commercial purposes, and of the number of gallons of such fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of for exportation from and resale without the District of Columbia, during the preceding calendar month. Such report shall be sworn to by one of the principal officers in case of a domestic corporation, by the resident general agent, or attorney in fact, or by a chief accountant or officer in case of a foreign corporation, or by the managing agent or owner in case of a partnership or association. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 4; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The act of Dec. 26, 1941, cited to text, changed the word "last" to "twenty-fifth".

§ 47–1905 [20: 835]. Invoices to be rendered by importers to all purchasers except in cases of retail sales.

Invoices shall be rendered by importers and distributors to all purchasers from them of motor-vehicle fuel within the District of Columbia except in case of retail sales. Said invoices shall contain a statement, printed thereon in a conspicuous place, that the liability to the District of Columbia for the tax herein imposed has been assumed by a licensed importer named in said statement and that the importer has paid the tax or will pay it on or before the twenty-fifth day of the calendar month next succeeding the purchase. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 5; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 4; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment inserted the words "and distributors" after "importers," and the words "by a licensed importer named in said statement" were inserted after the word "assumed."

The act of Dec. 26, 1941, cited to text, changed the word "last" to "twenty-fifth."

§ 47–1906 [20: 836]. Tax to be paid to collector not later than twenty-fifth day of next succeeding calendar month.

The tax in respect to motor-vehicle fuel so sold or otherwise disposed of or used in any calendar month shall be paid by the importer on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, who shall issue a receipt to the importer therefor. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 6; Dec. 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 871, ch. 635, § 2.)

AMENDMENT

The act of Dec. 26, 1941, cited to text, changed the word "last" to "twenty-fifth".

The catchline has been changed.

§ 47–1907 [20: 837]. Importer's records of transactions subject to inspection of assessor and collector.

The records of all purchases, receipts, sales, other dispositions, and uses of motor-vehicle fuel of every importer, distributor, or dealer shall, at all times during the business hours of the day, be subject to inspection by the assessor and the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia, or by their duly authorized agents or by any other agent duly authorized by the Commissioners to make such inspection. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 107, ch. 131, § 7; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 676, ch. 690, title III, § 5.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "distributor, or dealer."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47–1401.

§ 47–1908 [20: 838]. Penalty for accepting fuel from importer without an itemized sale statement.

It shall be unlawful for any person to accept or receive from any importer or distributor, except in cases of retail sales, any motor-vehicle fuel unless the statement provided for in section 47–1905 appears upon the invoice for the fuel. If any such motor-vehicle fuel is received and accepted by any person upon the invoice of which said statement does not appear, such person shall pay to the collector of taxes the tax herein imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 8; Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 679, ch. 690, title III, § 6.)

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "or distributor" and deleted following the word "imposed" the words "or be liable to the District of Columbia for double the amount of the said tax, which amount may be recovered by civil suit or action in any court of competent jurisdiction."

CROSS REFERENCE

This section is part of the Revenue Act of 1937, see Compiler's Notes to § 47–1401.

§ 47–1909 [20: 839]. Fuel to be exported from District of Columbia exempted from taxation.

No tax on motor-vehicle fuels exported or sold for exportation from the District of Columbia to any other jurisdiction or nation shall be imposed. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 9.)

§ 47–1910 [20: 840]. Motor fuel used for any purpose other than motor vehicle—Refund of tax payment.

Any person who purchases any motor-vehicle fuel in the District of Columbia to be used for operating or propelling any stationary gas engine, tractor used for agricultural purposes, motor-boat, aeroplane, or aircraft of any character, or for cleaning or dyeing, or for any other purpose other than use in a motor vehicle operated, or intended to be operated, in whole or in part upon any of the public highways of the District of Columbia, on which motor-vehicle fuel the tax imposed by sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 shall have been paid, shall be refunded the amount of such tax so paid by the importer, upon presenting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia a sworn statement accompanied by the invoices showing such purchase, which statement shall set forth the total amount of such motor-vehicle fuel so purchased and used by such consumer other than in motor vehicles operated, or intended to be operated, on any of the public highways of the District of Columbia. Such refunds shall be made by check by the collector of taxes from moneys paid for taxes on motor-vehicle fuels and retained on deposit as hereinafter in this section provided. For the purpose of such refunds the collector of taxes is authorized at all times to retain in a special fund on deposit in a Government depositary moneys paid him for such taxes, the total amount so retained on deposit not to exceed $1,000 at any one time. Applications for refunds as provided herein, must be filed with the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia within sixty days from the date of purchase: Provided, That before any refund shall be made the applicant shall furnish to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia satisfactory evidence by sworn statement of the exempted use of such fuel purchased by him. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 108, ch. 131, § 10; Aug. 11, 1939, 53 Stat. 1409, ch. 692.)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "thirty" and inserted in lieu thereof the word "sixty."

CROSS REFERENCE

Refund of taxes, § 47–1017 and notes.

§ 47–1911 [20: 841]. Violations—Penalty.

AMENDMENT

The 1937 amendment added the words "or section 8 (§ 47–1908)," and deleted the words "Any person who fails to pay any tax upon motor-vehicle fuels imposed by this act shall be liable to the District of Columbia for a penalty equal to twice the amount of such tax. Such penalty may be collected in a civil suit in any court of competent jurisdiction."

§ 47–1912 [20: 844]. Tax on fuel sold by United States agency in the District of Columbia.

When under authority of law gasoline or other motor-vehicle fuel is sold by an agency of the United States within the District of Columbia, for use in privately owned vehicles, such agency of the United States shall, by agreement with the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, arrange for the collection of the tax of 2 cents per gallon herein authorized to be imposed, and for accounting to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia for the proceeds of such tax collections. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 14.)

§ 47–1913 [20: 845]. Violations to be prosecuted by corporation counsel.

All prosecution for violations of the provisions of sections 47–1901 to 47–1906 or regulations prescribed thereunder may be in the police court of the District of Columbia, upon information filed by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants; and all suits for the collection of any tax or penalty under sections 47–1901 to 47–1906 or such regulations shall be instituted by the corporation counsel or any of his assistants. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 15.)

§ 47–1914 [20: 846]. Construction—Not to affect public hackers.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed in any wise to affect the provisions of sections 47–2331 to 47–2333. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 109, ch. 131, § 16.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The paragraphs of the 1902 act referred to appeared in D. C. 1929 as sections 879, 881, and 882 of title 20. The act of July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 550, ch. 366, purported to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. The 1932 act appeared in Supplement V to D. C. 1929 as chapter 10 of title 20 and appears in this code as chapter 23 of this title. Paragraphs 11, 13, and 14 of the 1902 act contain subject matter closely akin to paragraphs 31, 32, and 33 of the 1932 act, which appear in this code, as they are now amended, as §§ 47–2331 to 47–2333.

§ 47–1915 [20: 847]. Construction—Personal tax laws not affected.

Nothing in sections 47–1901 to 47–1916 shall be construed as affecting the application to motor vehicles of the personal-property tax in force on May 3, 1924, which personal-property tax shall continue to be levied, assessed, and collected on motor vehicles. (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 17.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONSTRUCTION

This act should be considered as a whole, and, if possible, given an interpretation that will harmonize and accord full force and effect to all of its provisions. District of Columbia v. Bailey (57 App. D. C. 151, 18 Fed. (2d) 367).

§ 47–1916 [20: 848]. Commissioners to make necessary regulations.

The commissioners may make such regulations as in their judgment are necessary for the administration of this chapter and may affix thereto such fines and penalties as in their judgment are necessary to enforce such regulations (in cases in which a penalty is not otherwise provided by law). (Apr. 23, 1924, 43 Stat. 110, ch. 131, § 18.)

§ 47–1917. Street paving—Assessments.

Assessments in accordance with existing law shall be made for paving and repaving roadways, where such roadways are paved or repaved, with funds derived from the collection of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (Mar. 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 167, ch. 44, § 1.)

§ 47–1918 [20: 849]. Revenue and disbursements.

All moneys derived from assessments for paving and repaving roadways under provisions of existing law arising from the expenditure of the fund created by the tax on motor-vehicle fuels, shall be paid into the treasury of the United States and be credited to and constitute a part of said fund and shall thereafter be available for appropriation in the same manner as the proceeds of the tax on motor-vehicle fuels. (June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 550, ch. 302.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PROVIDED BY EXISTING LAW

Term "provided by existing law" should be held to refer to the provision of the statute relating to the paving, and not to the assumed principle of common law relating to the relocation of the tracks. District of Columbia v. Georgetown & T. R. Co. (59 App. D. C. 335, 41 Fed. (2d) 424).

§ 47–1919 [20: 850]. Continuation of uncompleted projects at end of fiscal year.

Any projects or portions of projects chargeable to the gasoline-tax road and street improvement fund during the fiscal year 1925 and subsequent fiscal years and uncompleted at the close of those years shall be a continuing charge upon the fund until completed and shall, except in so far as conditions beyond the control of the commissioners prevent, be given priority over projects subsequently made a charge upon such fund. (Mar. 3, 1925, 43 Stat. 1226, ch. 477.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

INVALIDITY

Chapter 20.—DOG TAX

Sec.
47–2001. Dog tax.
47–2002. Collector to furnish metallic tag.
47–2003. Impounding of dogs found at large without tag.
47–2004. Dogs wearing tag permitted to run at large—Exception.
47–2005. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.
47–2006. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.
47–2007. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.
47–2008. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

§ 47–2001 [20: 915]. Dog tax.

There shall be levied a tax of $3 each per annum upon all dogs owned or kept in the District of Columbia; said tax to be collected as other taxes in said District are or may be collected. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 1; July 5, 1945, 59 Stat. 409, ch. 267, § 1.)

AMENDMENTS

The act of July 5, 1945, cited to text, amended section by increasing tax from $2.00 to $3.00.

§ 47–2002 [20: 916]. Collector to furnish metallic tag.

It shall be the duty of the collector of taxes, upon receipt of said tax, to give to the person paying the same, for each dog so paid for, a suitable metallic tag, stamped with the year, showing that said tax has been duly paid; and he shall keep a record of all such payments, with the date thereof, and the name, color, and sex of such dog, and the name of the person claiming any dog so paid for; and a copy of such record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said collector, which shall be given to any person demanding the same, upon payment of twenty-five cents therefor, shall be prima-facie evidence of such payment in any court of the District of Columbia. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 2.)

§ 47–2003 [20: 917]. Impounding of dogs found at large without tag.

The poundmaster of the District of Columbia shall, during the entire year, seize all dogs found running at large without the tax tag issued by the collector aforesaid attached, and all female dogs in heat found running at large, and shall impound the same; and if within forty-eight hours the same are not redeemed by the owners thereof by the payment of two dollars they shall be sold or destroyed, as the poundmaster may deem advisable; and any sale made by virtue hereof shall be deemed valid to all intents and purposes in all courts of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no owner, keeper, or purchaser, shall be permitted to redeem any dog seized and impounded as aforesaid, nor shall the Poundmaster deliver any dog to an owner, keeper, or purchaser, unless such owner, keeper, or purchaser shall first satisfy the Poundmaster that he has obtained for such dog the tax tag provided for in section 47–2002, and if at such time there shall be in force a proclamation of the Commissioners requiring dogs to be vaccinated against rabies, such owner, keeper, or purchaser shall also satisfy the Poundmaster that such dog has been vaccinated against rabies in accordance with such proclamation. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 173, ch. 323, § 3; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332; July 5, 1945, 59 Stat. 409, ch. 267, § 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

The amendment of this act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (52 App. D. C. 310, 286 Fed. 772).

§ 47–2004 [20: 918]. Dogs wearing tag permitted to run at large—Exception.

Any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for, except female dogs in heat, shall be permitted to run at large within the District of Columbia, and any dog wearing the tax tag hereinbefore provided for shall be regarded as personal property in all the courts of said District, and any person injuring or destroying the same shall be liable to a civil action for damages, which, upon proof of said injuring or killing, may be awarded in a sum equal to the value usually put upon such property by persons buying and selling the same, subject to such modifications as the particular circumstances of the case may make proper. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 4; June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 547, ch. 1332.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

ABSENCE OF TAG

This section does not change the common law rule to extent that any dog not wearing tax tag is not "personal property" and that anyone injuring the same is not liable in damages. Scharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

The owner of dog which had not been provided with a tax tag as required by this chapter could recover for the loss of the dog as result of a fatal assault perpetrated by another dog whose owner had been apprised of its malevolent propensities. Scharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

COMMON LAW

At common law, a dog is "personal property" and its owner may recover for a willful or negligent injury thereto. Scharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

CONSTRUCTION

This section and § 47–2004 to be construed together. Scharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

§ 47–2005 [20: 919]. Owner of dog liable to civil action for damages caused by the dog.

Any person owning any dog so recorded in the collector's office shall be liable in a civil action for any damage done by said dog to the full amount of the injury inflicted. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 5.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

COMMON LAW

At common law, an owner may be liable in civil action for damage caused by his dog. Sharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

CONSTRUCTION

This section and § 47–2005 are to be construed together. Scharfeld v. Richardson, 1942 (133 F. 2d 340, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 378, 145 A. L. R. 980).

§ 47–2006 [20: 920]. Dogs must wear collar with owner's name and tag.

It shall be the duty of any person owning or possessing a dog to place, or cause to be placed and kept, around the neck of such dog, a collar, on which shall be marked and engraved, in legible and durable characters, the name of the owner or possessor, and the letters "D. C.," and to which collar must be attached the insignia or tax-tag furnished by the District tax-collector, in accordance with sections 47–2001, 47–2002, under the penalty of not less than five nor more than ten dollars; and if any person shall put, or cause to be put, a collar, with the insignia or tax-tag, around the neck of any dog owned or possessed by any person or persons residing in the District, without having obtained a license for keeping such animal, he, she, or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than five nor more than ten dollars for each and every offense. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 6.)

§ 47–2007 [20: 921]. Removing dog's collar, insignia, or tag—Penalty.

Any person who shall remove, or cause to be removed, the collar and insignia or tax-tag from the neck of any dog, or entice any properly licensed dog into any inclosure for the purpose of taking off its collar or insignia, or shall for such purpose decoy or entice any animal out of the inclosure or house of its owner or possessor, or shall seize or molest any dog while held or led by any person, or shall bring any dog into the District for the purpose of taking up and killing the same, shall forfeit and pay a sum of not more than twenty dollars. (June 19, 1878, 20 Stat. 174, ch. 323, § 8.)

§ 47–2008 [20: 921a]. Poundmaster given power to make arrest.

In order to carry out properly and effectively the duties imposed upon him by Congress the poundmaster is hereby given authority as a special police officer of the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia, with authority to make arrests in the performance of his duty. (June 6, 1930, 46 Stat. 522, ch. 411, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section as enacted contained the clause, "and he shall receive a salary at the rate of $3,080 per annum." That portion has been deleted because subsequent appropriation acts have provided a different salary.

Chapter 21.—PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT AGENCY LICENSES

Sec.
47–2101. Employment agencies—License required—Definitions.
47–2102. Bond.
47–2103. Registers.
47–2104. Receipts.
47–2105. Location of place in which conducted.
47–2106. Application of minor.
47–2107. Inspection.
47–2108. False information.
47–2109. Exceptions from license requirements.
47–2110. Employment contract.
47–2111. Character of employer—Fraud.

§ 47–2101 [20: 1742]. Employment agencies — License required—Definitions.

It shall be unlawful for any person to open, keep, operate, maintain, or carry on any private employment agency without first having obtained a license from the District of Columbia so to do. The fee for such license shall be $100 per annum. Any license may be denied, revoked, or suspended for cause by the said commissioners: Provided, That any person whose license shall be denied, revoked, or suspended by the commissioners may, within thirty days after such denial, revocation, or suspension, apply to any justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for a writ of error to review such action. Such application shall not operate as a stay of any order issued in connection with such denial, revocation, or suspension.

(a) The term "private employment agency" means any business, enterprise, or undertaking that procures, offers to procure, promises to procure, attempts to procure, or aids in procuring, either directly or indirectly, help or employment for another, for any fee, remuneration, profit, or any consideration whatsoever, promises, paid, or received therefor, either directly or indirectly. It shall also include domestic, commercial, clerical, executive, professional, and general employment bureaus, and shall apply to theatrical employment agencies and nurses' registry conducted for profit or gain.

(a–1) The term "nurses' registry" means and includes the business of conducting an agency, bureau, office, or other place for the purpose of procuring, offering to procure, promising to procure, attempting to procure, or aiding in procuring employment or engagements for nurses of any kind.

(a–2) The term "theatrical employment agency" includes the business of conducting any agency, bureau, office, or other place providing engagements for circus, vaudeville, theatrical, and other entertainments or exhibitions or performances, or of giving information as to where such engagements may be procured or provided, but does not include the business of managing the artists or the attraction constituting such performances, where such business only incidentally involves the seeking of employment therefor.

(a–3) The term "applicant for employment" means any person seeking work, employment, or engagement of any character.

(a–4) The term "applicant for help" means any person seeking help, employees, or performers.

The singular shall include the plural and the masculine the feminine. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366, par. 42.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This chapter sets out that part of the 1932 License Law that deals with employment agencies. Penalties for violating §§ 47–2101 to 47–2109 are set out by § 47–2347.

AMENDMENT

Prior to amendment by the 1932 act, this paragraph provided as follows: "Proprietors or owners of intelligence offices, information bureaus, registries, or employment offices, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of ten dollars per annum."

§ 47–2102 [20: 1743]. Bond.

No license shall become effective under section 47–2101 until bond in due form in the penal sum of $1,000, or such lesser amount as the commissioners may determine with two or more sureties or a duly authorized surety company to be approved by the commissioners, shall have been deposited with the commissioners. The bond shall be payable to the District of Columbia and shall be conditioned that the person applying for the license will comply with this chapter and shall pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of any misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud, or deceit, or any unlawful act or omission of any licensed person, made, committed, or omitted in the business conducted under such license, or caused by any other violation of this chapter in carrying on the business for which such license is granted. One or more recoveries upon such bond shall not vitiate the same, but it shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, however, That the aggregate amount of all such recoveries shall not exceed the full amount of the bond. Upon the commencement of any action or actions against the surety upon any such bond for a sum or sums aggregating or exceeding the amount of such bond the commissioners may require a new and additional bond in like amount as the original one which shall be filed with the commissioners within thirty days of the demand therefor. Failure to file such bond within the prescribed time shall constitute cause for the revocation of the license therefor issued. Any suit or action against the surety on any bond required by the provisions of this section shall be commenced within one year from the accruing of the cause of action thereon.

If at any time, in the opinion of the commissioners, the sureties, or any of them, shall become irresponsible, the person holding such license shall, upon notice from the commissioners, give a new bond, and the failure to give a new bond within ten days after such notice, in the discretion of the commissioners, shall operate as a revocation of such license.

The commissioners shall furnish to anyone applying therefor a certified copy of any such bond filed in their office upon the payment of a fee of $1, and such certified copy shall be prima facie evidence in any court that such bond was duly executed and delivered by the person or corporation whose name appears therein. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42b, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 560, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2103 [20: 1744]. Registers.

It shall be the duty of every licensee to keep a register, approved by the commissioners, in which shall be entered, in the English language, the date of the application for employment, the name and address of the applicant to whom employment is promised or offered, the amount of the fee received, and, whenever possible, the names and addresses of former employers or persons to whom such applicant is known. Such licensee shall also enter in a separate register approved by the commissioners, in the English language, the name and address of every applicant accepted for help, the date of such application, kind of help requested, the names of the persons sent, with the designation of the one employed, and the amount of the fee received. The aforesaid registers of applicants for employment and help shall be open during office hours to inspection by the said commissioners. No such licensee shall make any false entry in such registers. It shall be the duty of every licensee, whenever possible, to communicate orally or in writing with at least one of the persons mentioned as references for every applicant for work in private families or employed in a fiduciary capacity, and the result of such investigation shall be kept on file in such agency: Provided, That if the applicant for help voluntarily waives in writing such investigation of references by the licensee, failure on the part of the licensee to make such investigation shall not be deemed a violation of this section. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42c, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2104 [20: 1745]. Receipts.

It shall be the duty of such licensee to give to every applicant for employment from whom a fee shall be received a receipt in which shall be stated the name of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the purpose for which it was paid, and to every applicant for help a receipt stating the name and address of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the kind of help to be provided. Every receipt given by such licensee shall bear the name and address of such licensee printed in large type thereon. Every receipt shall have printed on the back thereof a copy of § 47–2108 in the English language. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42d, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2105 [20: 1746]. Location of place in which conducted.

No private employment agency licensed under section 47–2101 shall be located in rooms used for living purposes, or in rooms where boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served or persons sleep, or in any building or on premises wherein rooms are located and used for living purposes, or wherein boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served, or persons sleep, or in any building wherein such rooms are located; nor shall any such private employment agency be located in any such building where the entrance thereto is not separate and apart from the entrance to the building proper, or where there is any entrance into the building proper from said private employment agency: Provided, That no one shall be precluded from keeping an employment agency in an office building by reason of there being a cafe or restaurant in another part of said building. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42e, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2106 [20: 1747]. Application of minor.

No licensee shall accept any application for employment made by or on behalf of any child, or shall place or assist in placing any such child in any employment whatever in violation of any compulsory education or child labor laws. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42f, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 561, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2107 [20: 1748]. Inspection.

All registers, books, records, and other papers required to be kept pursuant to this chapter in any private employment agency shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the commissioners, and every licensee shall post in a conspicuous place in such agency the license certificate. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42g, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

CROSS REFERENCE

See notes to § 47–2101.

§ 47–2108 [20: 1749]. False information.

No licensee conducting any private employment agency shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading information, representation, notice, or advertisement, nor shall he give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning an engagement or employment to any applicant who shall register or apply for an engagement or employment or help. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42h, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2109 [20: 1750]. Exceptions from license requirements.

This chapter shall not apply to employment bureaus conducted by registered medical institutions, duly incorporated hospitals, or duly incorporated alumni associations of registered nurses, or to any bureau maintained by persons for the purpose of securing help or employees where no fee is charged. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 42i, as added July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366.)

§ 47–2110 [20: 949]. Employment contract.

No such person shall induce or attempt to induce any domestic employee to leave his employment with a view to obtaining other employment through such agency. Whenever any licensed person, or any other acting for him, agrees to send one or more persons, to work as contract laborers in any one place outside the city in which such agency is located, the said licensed person shall give to the applicant for employment, in writing, the name and address of the employer, name and address of the employee, nature of the work to be performed, wages offered, destination of the person employed, and terms of transportation. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 9.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This is a section of the prior law which was deemed not to be in conflict with the foregoing sections of this chapter and hence not repealed.

§ 47–2111 [20: 950]. Character of employer—Fraud.

No such licensed person shall send, or cause to be sent, any female as a servant or inmate or performer to enter any place of bad repute, house of ill fame, or assignation house, or to any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, or place resorted to for the purpose of prostitution, or gambling house, the character of which such licensed person could have ascertained upon reasonable inquiry. No such licensed person shall knowingly permit any person of bad character, prostitutes, gamblers, intoxicated persons, or procurers, to frequent such agency. No such person shall procure or offer to procure help or employment in rooms or on premises where intoxicating liquors are sold to be consumed on the premises, whether or not dues or a fee or privilege is exacted, charged, or received directly or indirectly: Provided, That it shall be unlawful for employment agents or agencies to send applicants for employment to employers other than those who have applied to such agents or agencies for help or labor. For the violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section the penalty shall be a fine of not more than two hundred dollars and in default in payment thereof by imprisonment in the workhouse for a period of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. No such licensed person shall publish or cause to be published any false or fraudulent or misleading notice or advertisement. All advertisements of such employment agency by means of cards, circulars, or signs, and in newspapers and other publications, and all letter heads, receipts, and blanks shall contain the name and address of such employment agency, and no such licensed person shall give any false information, or make any false promise or false representation concerning employment to any applicant who shall register for employment or help. (June 19, 1906, 34 Stat. 308, ch. 3438, § 10.)

47–2208. Construction.

§ 47–2201 [20: 869]. Public auction—Auction of merchandise without permit from Commissioners prohibited.

Excepting sales made under authority of law, it shall be unlawful in the District of Columbia for any person, firm, or corporation, either for himself or itself, or for another, or for any firm, or corporation to sell or offer at public auction any stock or stocks of merchandise, in whole or in part, without first obtaining from the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia a written or printed permit so to do; and the said board of commissioners shall not issue a permit for any such sale or sales until they are satisfied that neither fraud nor deception of any kind is contemplated or will be practiced, and that neither the sale, the reasons therefor nor the goods to be sold have not already been or will not thereafter be fraudulently or falsely advertised or in any wise whatsoever misrepresented. (Sept. 8, 1916, 39 Stat. 846, ch. 473, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Sections 47–2201 to 47–2208 were saved from repeal by the act of July 1, 1932, ch. 366, par. 9, 47 Stat. 552, (§ 47–2309).

§ 47–2301 [20: 1701]. Licenses required for business or profession—Application—Transfer of license—Signing and sealing.

No person shall engage in or carry on any business, trade, profession, or calling in the District of Columbia for which a license fee or tax is imposed by the terms of this chapter without having first obtained a license so to do. Applications for licenses shall be made to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent, and no license shall be granted until payment for the same shall have been made. Every license shall specify by name the person, firm, or corporation to which it shall be issued, the business, trade, profession, or calling for which it is granted, and the location at which such business, trade, profession, or calling is to be carried on. Licenses granted under the terms of this chapter may be assigned or transferred on application upon the conditions applicable to granting the original licenses, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a certificate of such assignment or transfer upon the payment to the District of Columbia of a fee of $1 therefor. All licenses and transfers issued or granted shall be signed by the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent and impressed with a seal to be adopted by the commissioners of the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 1; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 550, ch. 366.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The enacting clause of the act cited to the text provided: "That section 7 of an act entitled 'An Act making appropriations to provide for the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes,' approved July 1, 1902, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:"

The second paragraph of that act reads: "Applications for licenses shall be made to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1917, and no license shall be granted until payment for the same shall have been made."

The act of March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1006, ch. 160), to which reference was made was as follows: "All the authority, duties, discretion, and powers now vested by law in the assessor of the District of Columbia with respect to licenses and the issuance thereof, shall, on and after July first, nineteen hundred and seventeen, be transferred to and vest in the superintendent of licenses provided for in this act."

The superintendent of licenses was provided for in the act by merely appropriating one year's salary for the office.

The provision of the act of 1932 that application for licenses shall be made to and granted by "the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their designated agent" renders superfluous the following language in this section: "in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1917," and the same was accordingly eliminated.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect it is a new enactment superseding § 7 of the prior act. (See also compiler's note hereto.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Some portions of D. C. 1929, title 20, §§ 907–910, may still be in effect. For this reason they are set out herein as notes. They read as follows:

"907. Billiard, pool, bagatelle tables, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep any billiard table, bagatelle table, shuffleboard, jenny-lind table, pool table, or any table upon which legitimate games are played, in any saloon, room, or place of business within the District of Columbia for public use or for profit or gain, without a license therefor first had and obtained from the superintendent of licenses of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 1.)"

"908. Same; date of license.—Every person taking out such license shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District a license fee of twelve dollars per annum for each table. Said license may be granted or refused in the discretion of the superintendent of licenses of said District, and all licenses so granted shall date from the first day of the month in which the liability began and expire on the thirty-first day of October in each year: Provided, That in all cases of refusal of said superintendent of licenses to grant said license, or upon written protest of a majority or more of the property owners or residents of the block in which it is proposed to grant such license, an appeal may be taken to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, whose decision shall be final. Proprietors of bowling alleys in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of said District an annual license tax of twelve dollars for each alley. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 2; July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 628, ch. 1352, § 7, par. 45; Apr. 28, 1904, 33 Stat. 565, ch. 1815.)"

"909. Same; penalty for failure to procure license.—Every person who shall own, keep, or use any billiard table, bagatelle table, pool table, or any table or board of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, for public use or profit without such license first had and obtained, shall, on conviction in the police court, be fined twenty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding three months for each offense, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 594, ch. 315, § 3.)"

"910. Same; to be closed twenty-four hours every Sunday.—It shall not be lawful for the proprietors of billiard tables, pool tables, bagatelle tables, jenny lind tables, or other tables of the kind mentioned in section 907 of this title, shuffleboards and bowling alleys, kept for public hire and gain in the District of Columbia to sell or to allow to be sold in the same room, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors, and all such places shall be closed during the entire twenty-four hours of each and every Sunday, and also between twelve o'clock midnight and four o'clock in the morning. And it shall be unlawful for the proprietor or proprietors of any billiard or pool room or billiard or pool table operated in connection with a barroom or other place where intoxicating liquors are sold to suffer or permit any minor under eighteen years of age to frequent, visit, or patronize the same.

"Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than forty dollars, and shall in addition forfeit his or her license, in the discretion of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 565, ch. 204, § 6; Feb. 25, 1897, 29 Stat. 595, ch. 315, § 4; May 22, 1902, 32 Stat. 202, ch. 819.)"

AMENDMENTS

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

The 1937 amendment added the second proviso.

§ 47–2322 [20: 1722]. Shooting galleries.

Owners or managers of shooting galleries shall pay a license fee of ten dollars per annum. No shooting gallery shall be licensed until the inspector of buildings for the District of Columbia shall furnish a certificate that suitable precautions have been taken for the public safety by the erection of suitable shields and such appliances as, in his judgment, may be necessary. Before such license shall be issued the proprietor shall furnish to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent the written consent of a majority of the occupants and residents on the same side of the square or block in which the proposed gallery is to be located and also on the confronting side of the square fronting opposite to the same. The major and superintendent of police is hereby authorized to prescribe the caliber of firearms and kind of cartridges to be used in such licensed places. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 22.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purported to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2323 [20: 1723]. Baseball—Football—Athletic exhibitions—Amusement parks.

(a) Owners or managers of grounds used for baseball, football, or other athletic exhibitions to which an admission fee is charged, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum.

When, in the opinion of the Major and Superintendent of Police and Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia, or either of them, it is necessary to post policemen or firemen, or both, at, on, and about the licensed premises for the protection of the public safety, in addition to the license fee provided for above, such owners or managers shall pay a further monthly permit fee, to be determined monthly by the said Major and Superintendent and Chief Engineer, or either of them, based upon a reasonable estimate of the number of hours to be spent by policemen and firemen, or either of them, at, on, and about the licensed premises, such fee to be payable in advance on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought. Policemen and firemen so assigned shall be charged for by the hour at the basic hourly wage rate of the policemen and firemen so assigned in effect on the first day of the month for which the permit is sought.

(b) Owners or managers of grounds used for amusement parks, to which an admission is charged, directly or indirectly, other than those used for athletic exhibitions, shall pay a license fee of $65 per annum. Annual licenses issued under this section shall date from April 1 in each year. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 23; June 29, 1948, 62 Stat. 1109, ch. 735, § 3.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purported to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

Section 3 of act June 29, 1948, cited to text, added last paragraph of subsec. (a).

§ 47–2324 [20: 1724]. Swimming pools.

Owners or managers of swimming pools, indoor or outdoor, shall pay a license fee of $15 per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 24.)

AMENDMENT

§ 47–2326 [20: 1726]. Carnivals and fairs.

Owners or managers of carnivals or fairs, by whatsoever name called, conducted for profit or gain, and not held in any building or structure licensed under this chapter, shall pay a license fee of $35 per day. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 26.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2327 [20: 1727]. Commission merchants in food—Bakeries—Bottling establishments—Groceries—Markets—Restaurants.

(a) Commission merchants dealing in food or food products shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum.

(b) Owners or managers of bakeries, bottling establishments, candy-manufacturing establishments, grocery stores, ice-cream manufacturing establishments, meat shops, and market stands handling food or food products shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum: Provided, That if any licensee hereunder shall conduct upon the same premises more than one of the callings herein listed, no additional fee shall be required.

(c) Owners or managers of delicatessens, ice-cream parlors, restaurants, soda fountains, or soft-drink establishments shall pay a license fee of $15 per annum: Provided, That if any licensee hereunder shall conduct upon the same premises more than one of the callings herein listed, or listed in paragraph (b) of this section, no additional fee shall be required. Within the meaning of paragraph (c) of this section a restaurant shall be any place where food or refreshments are served to transient customers to be eaten on the premises where sold.

(d) Wholesale dealers in fish or other marine products shall pay a license fee of $30 per annum.

(e) Owners or managers of dairies shall pay a license fee of $160 per annum.

(f) All dealers in food or food products not listed herein, or elsewhere in this chapter, shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 554, ch. 366, par. 27.)

§ 47–2329 [20: 1729]. Apartment houses.

AMENDMENTS

Act July 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 402, ch. 296, § 3, struck out the provisions of this section and substituted in lieu thereof the new provisions contained in § 47–2328, effective sixty days after passage and approval under § 4 of said Act.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAYMENT UNDER PROTEST

Fact that a party pays a license fee for an apartment house under protest does not make the payment involuntary. Blanks v. Hazen (66 App. D. C. 118, 85 Fed. (2d) 284).

§ 47–2330 [20: 1730]. Lodging houses.

AMENDMENTS

Act July 22, 1947, 61 Stat. 402, ch. 296, § 3, struck out the provisions of this section and substituted in lieu thereof the new provisions contained in § 47–2328, effective sixty days after passage and approval under § 4 of said Act.

§ 47–2331. Routed passenger vehicles, vehicles for hire—Hackers' licenses—Identification tags on vehicles—Sightseeing vehicles for school children, occasional purposes—Ambulances, private vehicles for funeral purposes—Issuance of licenses—Payment of fees.

(a) Every passenger vehicle for hire licensed under this section shall be considered a public vehicle.

(b) Any person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation operating or proposing to operate any vehicle or vehicles not confined to rails or tracks for the transportation of passengers for hire over all or any portion of any defined route or routes in the District of Columbia, except when such vehicle or vehicles are to be operated solely for sight-seeing purposes, shall, on or before the 1st day of October in each year, or before commencing such operation, submit to the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, in triplicate, an application for license, stating therein the name of such person, partnership, association, trust, or corporation, the number and kind of each type of vehicle to be used in such operation, the schedule or schedules and the total number of vehicle-miles to be operated with such vehicles within the District of Columbia during the twelve month period beginning with the 1st day of November in the same year. The Public Utilities Commission shall thereupon verify and approve, or return to the applicant for correction and resubmission, each such statement, and when approved, forward one copy thereof to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agents and return one copy to the applicant. Upon receipt of the approved copy, and prior to the 1st day of November in the same year, or before commencing such operation, each such applicant shall pay to the collector of taxes, in lieu of any other franchise, personal or license tax, in connection with such operation, the sum of eight-tenths of 1 cent for each vehicle-mile proposed to be operated in the District of Columbia in accordance with the application as approved. Upon presentation of the receipt for such payment, the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to carry on the operations embodied in the approved application. No increase of operations shall be commenced or continued unless and until an application similar to the original and covering such increase in operation shall have been approved and forwarded in the same manner and the corresponding additional payment made and license issued. No license shall be issued under the terms of paragraph (b) of this section without the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia.

(c) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more, in addition to the driver or operator, other than those licensed to the preceding paragraph, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum for each vehicle used. No such vehicle shall be operated unless there shall be conspicuously displayed therein a license issued under the terms of this paragraph. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(d) Owners of passenger vehicles for hire, whether operated from a private establishment or from public space, other than those licensed under the two preceding paragraphs and under paragraph (i) of this section, shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each such vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Stands for such vehicles upon public space, adjacent to hotels or otherwise, may be established in the manner provided in section 40–603. The Public Utilities Commission is hereby authorized to make and enforce all such reasonable and usual police regulations as it may deem necessary for the proper conduct, control, and regulation of all vehicles described in this and the preceding paragraphs and section 47–2333. Licenses issued under this paragraph shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly.

(e) No person shall engage in driving or operating any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section without having procured from the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent a license and a badge numbered to correspond with the number of said license, neither of which shall be issued except upon evidence satisfactory to the director of motor vehicles under the direction of the commissioners of the District of Columbia that the applicant is a person of good moral character and is qualified to operate such vehicle, and upon payment of an annual license fee of $5. Such license shall be displayed within the vehicle and such badge prominently worn upon the driver's breast at all times while engaged in driving any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraphs (c) and (d). Application for such license shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent. Each annual license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be numbered, and there shall be kept in the Department of Vehicles and Traffic a record containing the name of each person so licensed, his annual license number, and all matters affecting his qualifications to be licensed hereunder. No license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assigned or transferred.

(f) All vehicles licensed under this section shall bear such identification tags as the commissioners of the District of Columbia may from time to time direct; and nothing herein contained shall exempt such vehicles from compliance with the traffic and motor-vehicle regulations of the District of Columbia, nor shall it deprive the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia from assuming control over such vehicles, under such regulations as the Public Utilities Commission may from time to time adopt and promulgate: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed so as to diminish the powers conferred on the commissioners of the District of Columbia under the provisions of sections 40–301 to 40–303, 40–601 to 40–605, 40–609 to 40–611, and 40–613 to 40–615, nor to diminish the powers conferred on the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia by said sections and by sections 40–1001 to 40–1007 creating the Public Utilities Commission.

(g) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the procuring of a license, or the payment of a tax, with respect to a vehicle operated for sightseeing purposes if the only passengers transported in such sightseeing operations are school children, their teachers, or escorts, and transported to the District of Columbia from the State in which their school is located in such vehicle and if a certificate for each such vehicle is obtained from the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia. Application for such certificate shall be made to the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia stating the name of the school, the date or dates on which such operations would be conducted, and sufficient information for identification of the vehicle to be so engaged. The said Commission shall furnish to such school a certificate for each such vehicle upon which there shall be entered the name of the school, the date or dates on which such vehicle may be operated, and identification of the vehicle for which the said certificate is granted. Such certificate shall be conspicuously displayed in or on said vehicle when operated in the District of Columbia.

(h) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the procuring of a license, or the payment of a tax, with respect to a vehicle operated for sightseeing purposes if such sightseeing operations are only occasional and the only passengers transported in such sightseeing operations are persons transported to the District of Columbia from a point or points outside of said District in such vehicle, and if a certificate for such operation is obtained from the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia. Application for such certificate shall be made to the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, stating the date or dates on which occasional sightseeing operations would be conducted and the number of vehicles to be operated. The said Commission shall furnish such applicant a certificate for each such vehicle upon which shall be entered the date or dates such operations may be conducted without a license from the District of Columbia: Provided, That such certificates shall not be issued for such occasional sightseeing operations under the same ownership, management, control, or arrangement for a greater number of days than authorized in this paragraph. The certificate herein authorized shall be conspicuously displayed in each such vehicle when operated in the District of Columbia. The operation in the District of Columbia by the same ownership, management, control, or arrangement of any such vehicle or vehicles in sightseeing operations shall not be construed to be occasional if such ownership, management, control, or arrangement shall operate any such vehicle or vehicles for sightseeing purposes in the District of Columbia for more than fifteen calendar days in any license year. Motor vehicles transporting school children for sightseeing purposes as exempted under the preceding paragraph (g) shall not be included in such computation of operations. Sightseeing operations shall not be construed to include transportation to or from the hotel or terminal en route into or out of said District.

(i) Owners of ambulances for hire and owners of passenger vehicles which, when used for hire, are used exclusively for funeral purposes shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each such vehicle used in the conduct of their business. Licenses used under this paragraph shall date from July 1 in each year.

(j) No person shall engage in driving or operating any vehicle licensed under the terms of paragraph (i) without having procured from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent a license which shall only be issued upon evidence satisfactory to the Director of Motor Vehicles, under the direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, that the applicant is a person of good moral character and is qualified to operate such vehicle, and upon payment of an annual license fee of $5. Such license shall be carried upon the person of the licensee or in the vehicle while engaged in driving such vehicle when such vehicle is being used for hire. Application for such license shall be made in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent. Each annual license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be numbered, and there shall be kept in the Department of Vehicles and Traffic a record containing the name of each person so licensed, his annual license number and all matters affecting his qualifications to be licensed hereunder. No license issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assigned or transferred. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 555, ch. 366, par. 31; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 570, ch. 41; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 3; Jan. 15, 1942, 56 Stat. 3, ch. 2; June 20, 1942, 56 Stat. 375, ch. 428.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The reference to the various sections of chapters 3 and 6 of title 40 (District of Columbia Traffic Acts) should be read to include the powers conferred upon the Commissioners by the Act of Feb. 27, 1931, 46 Stat. 1424, ch. 317, where such act amends §§ 11–601, 11–616, 11–621, 11–623, and 11–1407.

AMENDMENTS

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2401.)

The April 5, 1939, amendment added the last sentence of (c) and the July 17, 1939 amendment changed the dates therein provided as follows: March 1 to April 1; February 15 to March 15; March 1, 1940, to April 1, 1940; and, February 29, 1940, to March 31, 1940.

The April 5, 1939, amendment deleted the words "Licenses issued under this subparagraph shall date from July 1, in each year. There shall be carried on each such vehicle a number corresponding to the number of the license issued therefor, in such place and of such character and dimensions as may be prescribed by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia. Said commission is hereby authorized to establish stands upon the public space, adjacent to hotels, or otherwise for occupancy by said vehicles, and is further authorized" and inserted in lieu thereof in (d) the second sentence and the first seven words of the third sentence; deleted the words "subject to the approval of the joint board created by section 6 (e) of the act entitled 'An act to amend the acts approved March 3, 1925, and July 3, 1926,' known as the District of Columbia Traffic Acts, and so forth, approved February 27, 1931" and inserted in lieu thereof in (d) the last eleven words of the third sentence thereof and the last sentence.

The act of Jan. 15, 1942, cited to text, amended section by adding pars. (g) and (h).

The act of June 20, 1942, cited to text, amended section by adding words "and under paragraph (i) of this section" to par. (d), and by adding pars. (i) and (j).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

BUSSES

Statute requires, in respect of bus transportation, the licensing of vehicles rather than uses or businesses, and contemplates but one license for such a vehicle, which, under the stipulated facts operates primarily in regularly-routed passenger service and but occasionally in charter-bus and sight-seeing service. If the drafters intended to require a separate license for occasional charter-bus and sight-seeing service, they did not provide for it. Capital Transit Co. v. District of Columbia (66 App. D. C. 351, 87 Fed. (2d) 748).

This section is not restricted to those who are engaged in business in the District of Columbia, but it requires, in respect of bus transportation, the licensing of vehicles rather than uses or businesses. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours, 1941 (122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

CONSTRUCTION

A taxicab is a "common carrier" and use by it of the public streets is not a right but a privilege or license which can be granted on such conditions as the Legislature may impose for the protection of the public, and this section must be construed with that purpose in mind. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS

The reciprocity provision of section 40–303 exempting certain foreign vehicle owners and drivers from the requirements of a District driver's permit and District vehicle registration has no other effect, and compliance with that act exempts no one, resident or nonresident, from the license tax imposed on owners of passenger vehicles for hire having a seating capacity of eight passengers or more in addition to the driver or operator. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours, 1941 (122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

FOREIGN BUSSES OPERATING IN DISTRICT

This section does not interfere with interstate operation as applied to a Maryland corporation and its employee operating a sightseeing bus from Baltimore to the District of Columbia by way of Annapolis and return, but interferes only with operation from point to point within the District, and hence can be constitutionally applied to them. District of Columbia v. Monumental Motor Tours, 1941 (122 F. 2d 195, 74 App. D. C. 147).

LICENSE AS TRANSFERABLE

The license which owner of a taxicab is required to obtain is for the vehicle and not for the use or business, and is personal and not transferable. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

NECESSITY FOR LICENSE

Taxicab owner could not operate taxicab without having taxicab operator's license, even though such operation was for his own private use, and while displaying an off-duty sign. Stewart v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1944, 35 A. 2d 247).

PASSENGER VEHICLES FOR HIRE

Vehicles are "passenger vehicles for hire" when hired by an undertaker or lodge as clearly as when hired by individual passengers, and subject to tax. Cave v. District of Columbia (67 App. D. C. 138, 90 Fed. (2d) 383).

Unless a restricted meaning is to be given to the word "passenger," it follows that ambulances are "passenger vehicles for hire." Hazen v. Chambers (71 App. D. C. 220, 108 Fed. (2d) 741).

Sick or well, one who is carried, for hire, through the streets in a vehicle kept and driven by another for such purposes is considered a passenger in the ordinary sense of the word, and whether the hire is greater or less than the cost of the service is not material. Hazen v. Chambers (71 App. D. C. 220, 108 Fed. (2d) 741).

§ 47–2332 [20: 1732]. Rental or leasing of motor vehicle without driver.

The owners or managers of establishments where automobiles or other motor vehicles are kept for rent or lease without a driver shall pay a license fee of $5 per annum for each such establishment: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to exempt such owners or managers from paying additional license taxes required by this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 32.)

§ 47–2333 [20: 1733]. Vehicles hauling goods from public space.

Owners of vehicles for hire, used in hauling goods, wares, or merchandise, and operating from public space, shall pay a license tax of $25 per annum for each vehicle. Stands for such vehicles upon public space may be established in the manner provided in section 40–603. Licenses issued under this section shall date from April 1 of each year, but may be issued on or after March 15 of such year: Provided, however, That all licenses issued for a period prior to April 1, 1940, shall expire on March 31, 1940, and the license fee therefor shall be prorated accordingly. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 33; Apr. 5, 1939, 53 Stat. 570, ch. 41; July 17, 1939, 53 Stat. 1046, ch. 313, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

The April 5, 1939, amendment added the last sentence.

The July 17, 1939, amendment changed the dates therein contained as follows: March 1 to April 1; February 15 to March 15; March 1, 1940, to April 1, 1940; and, February 29, 1940, to March 31, 1940.

§ 47–2336 [20: 1736]. Sales on streets or public places.

No person shall sell any article of merchandise, or anything whatever, excepting newspapers sold at large and not from a fixed location, upon the public streets, or from public space in the District of Columbia, without a license first having been obtained under this section. Persons so licensed shall be considered as venders, whether selling from a fixed location, on foot from house to house, or from a vehicle of any description, and shall pay a license tax of $12 per annum. Every vender so licensed shall be furnished with a badge corresponding to the number of his license, which badge shall be worn conspicuously whenever transacting business, and where sales are made from a vehicle such vender shall be provided with a metal plate containing a number similar to the number of his license, which plate shall be conspicuously attached to the vehicle at all times when such vender is transacting business: Provided, That no license shall be required of any person bringing to and selling at the several markets produce of his own raising: And provided further, That raisers of produce shall not be exempt from the license tax imposed unless they sell such produce at the several markets or by the wholesale in cart, wagon, or carload lots. The commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce necessary regulations governing the conduct upon the public streets and public spaces of venders licensed hereunder, including the power to locate the places where licensed venders on the public streets and public spaces shall stand, and to change them as often as the public interests require. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 36.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LICENSE FEE, AMOUNT OF

Where there was no evidence, and no clear probability, that District of Columbia license fee did not exceed cost of policing sales of religious propaganda, conviction for selling religious magazines on streets without having paid license fee could not be sustained. Busey v. District of Columbia, 1944 (138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189, conforming to mandate 63 S. Ct. 1277, 319 U. S. 579, 87 L. Ed. 1589, certiorari granted 63 S. Ct. 1154, 319 U. S. 735, 87 L. Ed. 1695).

PURPOSE

This section is a regulatory measure, and its aim is not to impose a tax for general revenue purposes but to provide a fee commensurate with costs of inspection, supervision, or regulation. Busey v. District of Columbia, 1944 (138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189, conforming to mandate 63 S. Ct. 1277, 319 U. S. 579, 87 L. Ed. 1589, reversing 129 F. 2d 24, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 352, certiorari granted 63 S. Ct. 1154, 319 U. S. 735, 87 L. Ed. 1695).

SALE

Where defendants stood on street corner and by signs which they carried, offered magazines to the public at 5 cents each, and each defendant handed a magazine to prosecuting witness and collected 5 cents, each defendant made a "sale" within this section. Busey v. District of Columbia, 1944 (138 F. 2d 592, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 189, conforming to mandate 63 S. Ct. 1277, 319 U. S. 579, 87 L. Ed. 1589, reversing 129 F. 2d 24, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 352, certiorari granted 63 S. Ct. 1154, 319 U. S. 735, 87 L. Ed. 1695).

§ 47–2337 [20: 1737]. Solicitors.

Solicitors shall pay a license fee of five dollars per annum. Any person who goes from house to house, or place to place, within the District of Columbia, selling or taking orders for or offering to sell or take orders for goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for future delivery, or for services to be performed in the future or for the making, manufacturing, or repairing of any article or thing whatsoever for future delivery, and requiring or accepting a deposit for such future delivery or service, shall be deemed to be a "solicitor," within the meaning of this section: Provided, however, That this definition shall not apply to persons selling goods, wares, merchandise, or any article or thing of value for resale to retailers in that commodity. Any person desiring a solicitor's license shall make application to the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent on forms to be provided for that purpose, stating the name of the applicant, the name and address of the person whom he represents, the class and kind of goods offered for sale, or the kind of service to be performed. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, running to the District of Columbia, conditioned upon the making of final delivery of the goods ordered, or services to be performed, in accordance with the terms of such order, or failing therein, that the advance payment on such order be refunded. Any person aggrieved by the action of any such solicitor shall have the right of action on the bond for the recovery of money, or damages, or both. All orders taken by licensed solicitors shall be in writing in duplicate, stating the terms thereof and the amount paid in advance, and one copy shall be given to the purchaser. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 557, ch. 366, par. 37.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2338 [20:1738]. Guides.

AMENDMENT

§ 47–2339 [20: 1739]. Secondhand dealers.

Dealers in secondhand personal property, including the return or other unused portion of any ticket, order, or token purporting to evidence the right of the holder or possessor thereof to be transported by any railroad or other common carrier, however operated, from one state or territory of the United States, or from the District of Columbia, to any other state or territory of the United States or to the District of Columbia, shall pay a license tax of fifty dollars per annum. Every person engaged in the business of buying, selling, trading, exchanging, or dealing in secondhand personal property of any description, including the return or unused portion of any such ticket, order, or token, shall be regarded as a secondhand dealer. When any piping or other household fixtures or secondhand goods of any description whatever have been stolen and sold to a dealer in junk, or secondhand dealer, in the District of Columbia, under such circumstances that the commissioners of the District of Columbia, after hearing granted, are satisfied that said dealer should have had reasonable ground to believe, or could have ascertained by reasonable inquiry or investigation, that the goods were stolen, and that the dealer did not make reasonable inquiry or investigation as to the title of the seller before making the purchase, the commissioners are authorized and directed to revoke the license of said dealer; and this action shall not be a bar to criminal prosecution for receiving stolen goods. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366, par. 39.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

UNDER 1902 LAW

Provision in paragraph 27 of § 7 of the act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 626 requiring consent of property-owners to issuance of licenses to conduct enumerated businesses is not applicable to junk dealers' licenses under paragraphs 27, 43. Coombe v. United States ex rel. Selis (55 App. D. C. 190, 3 Fed. (2d) 714).

SALES WITHOUT LICENSE

Engaging in the business of selling secondhand property without a license was not indictable at common law. Today it is at most but an infringement of local police regulations, and its moral quality is relatively inoffensive. District of Columbia v. Clawans (300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843, 57 Sup. Ct. 660, affg. 66 App. D. C. 11, 84 Fed. (2d) 265).

§ 47–2340 [20: 1740]. Dealers in dangerous weapons.

Dealers in dangerous or deadly weapons shall pay a license tax of $50 per annum. No license shall issue hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, and the commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make and promulgate regulations for the conduct of the business of persons licensed hereunder, including the power to require a record to be kept of all sales of deadly or dangerous weapons, to prescribe a form therefor, and to require reports of all such sales to the major and superintendent of police at such time as the Commissioners may deem advisable. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 558, ch. 366, par. 40.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

This section may be superseded by § 22–3209 et seq.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

CROSS REFERENCE

On the authority of section 22–3210, it would appear that the prior approval of the major and superintendent of police is unnecessary.

§ 47–2341 [20: 1741]. Private detectives.

(a) Private detectives, or detective agencies, by whatsoever name called, shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum: Provided, That no license shall be issued under this section without the approval of the major and superintendent of police.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the term "detective" or "detective agency" shall mean and include any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of, or advertising, or representing himself, or itself, as being engaged in the business of detecting, discovering, or revealing crime or criminals, or securing information for evidence relating thereto, or discovering or revealing the identity, whereabouts, character, or actions of any person or persons, thing or things.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of detective, or operate, manage, or conduct a detective agency, for profit or gain, or to advertise or represent his business to be that of a detective, or that of conducting, managing, or operating a detective agency, without first obtaining a license so to do.

(d) The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered to make such reasonable regulations as they deem advisable for the government and conduct of the business of private detectives licensed hereunder, and are further authorized and empowered to revoke the license of a private detective when in their judgment such is deemed advisable in the public interest.

(e) All laws which govern the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia in the matters of persons, property, or money shall be applicable to all private detectives licensed hereunder, and such detectives shall make like returns and dispositions of such matters as is required by existing law and the rules of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia governing the Metropolitan police department. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 559, ch. 366, par. 41.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

DAMAGES

$1,250 to private detective for malicious prosecution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license was not excessive in view of interruption of business, expense of defending against charge, including attorneys' fees, injury to business and personal reputation, and emotional disturbance involved. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, injury to reputation and mental suffering were proper elements of damage, and there was no error in instructions permitting those elements to be considered by jury. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

DEFENSES

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, defendants could not successfully contend that they did not institute or instigate proceedings, where they did not deny making charge to licensing officials with intent to secure revocation of license or refusal to renew it, and defendants' complaint brought about official action and all that followed. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

INSTRUCTIONS

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, injury to reputation and mental suffering were proper elements of damage, and there was no error in instructions permitting those elements to be considered by jury. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION ACTION

That private detective kept his office open for collection of money previously earned or that he later secured permission to operate pending disposition of appeal did not preclude detective from maintaining malicious prosecution action based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew his license, and that factor went only to reduce his damages. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

QUESTIONS FOR JURY

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, the existence of malice and the absence of probable cause were for the jury under conflicting evidence. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

In private detective's action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, the existence of malice and the absence of probable cause were for the jury under conflicting evidence. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

RENEWAL OF LICENSE

As affecting private detective's right to maintain an action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, absence of right of appeal to the courts was immaterial, and if some judicial element was essential, it would be supplied by fact that District Commissioners' action in arbitrarily refusing or revoking a license would be reviewable, if in no other way, by independent action in equity. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

SPECIAL INJURY

Private detective sustained "special injury" sufficient to sustain action for malicious prosecution based on institution of administrative proceedings resulting in refusal to renew detective's license, where proceedings in no way involved protection of defendants' interests, detective's livelihood depended on license, license was in effect revoked, and for nearly a month detective was disabled from carrying on his work. Melvin v. Pence, 1942 (130 F. 2d 423, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 154, 143 A. L. R. 149, affirming 38 F. Supp. 759).

§ 47–2342 [20: 1751]. Fortune telling.

Mediums, clairvoyants, soothsayers, fortune tellers, palmists, or phrenologists, by whatsoever name called, conducting business for profit or gain, directly or indirectly, shall pay a license tax of $250 per annum. No license shall be issued hereunder without the approval of the major and superintendent of police, nor shall any license be issued hereunder to any person not an actual resident of the District of Columbia for two years next preceding his date of application: Provided, That no license shall be required of persons pretending to tell fortunes or practice palmistry, phrenology, or any of the callings herein listed, in a regular licensed theater, or as a part of any play, exhibition, fair, or show presented or offered in aid of any benevolent, charitable, or educational purpose:

And provided further, That no license shall be required of any ordained priest or minister, or accredited representative of any such priest or minister, the fees for whose ministrations are not the private property of such ordained priest, minister, or accredited representative of such priest or minister. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366, par. 43.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2343 [20: 1752]. Exposing persons or animals as targets prohibited.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2344 [20: 1753]. Commissioners may regulate, modify, or eliminate license requirements.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and empowered, when in their discretion such is deemed advisable, to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed in this chapter and which, in their judgment, require inspection, supervision, or regulation by any municipal agency or agencies and to fix the license fee therefor in such amount as, in their judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection, supervision, or regulation, and are further authorized and empowered in their discretion to modify any of the provisions of this chapter so far as eliminating therefrom any business or calling in this chapter required to be licensed, or to raise or lower the amount of the license fee provided in this chapter, as the cost of inspection, supervision, or regulation is raised or lowered. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 562, ch. 366, par. 45.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

QUESTIONS FOR JURY

Whether occupant of a sleeping room with an alcove used for cooking was a roomer, having no exclusive right of possession, so that proprietor of rooming house had right to enter and inspect room at reasonable times, or was a tenant and had right to exclusive possession was for jury. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

REGULATIONS

A regulation of the commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house for licensing purposes as a building occupied for a consideration by more than four persons who are not members of owner's immediate family was valid, notwithstanding sections 301 et seq. of Title 5 relating to fire escapes and safety provisions defined a rooming house as a building in which rooms are rented and sleeping quarters are provided to accommodate 10 or more persons. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

This section authorizing commissioners of District of Columbia when in their discretion such is advisable to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed is a proper delegation of power, and regulations promulgated thereunder are valid provided determination of commissioners is made by reasonable standards and is not arbitrary. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

ROOMING HOUSES

One who occupies a room in consideration for services rendered occupies sleeping accommodations for a "consideration", within regulations of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house and requiring a license therefor. Byrd v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 46).

Under the regulations issued by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia defining a rooming house and requiring a license therefor, it was not intended that servants be counted toward the more than four persons occupying a house. Byrd v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 43 A. 2d 46).

In the absence of contract to the contrary, one who had only a sleeping room with an alcove used for cooking, in view of District of Columbia rooming house regulations which define sleeping accommodations, was a "roomer," not a "tenant" of a self-contained "apartment" unit, and, hence, under regulations could not deny to proprietor a key to the room or the right to make reasonable inspections thereof. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

§ 47–2344a. Undertakers' licenses—Qualifications—Examination—License without examination—Authority of commissioners—Appropriations—Definitions.

(a) On and after ninety days from August 1, 1947, no person shall, in the District of Columbia, discharge any of the duties, of an undertaker, unless there has been issued to him by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a license therefor in full force and effect. The fee for such license shall be $20 per annum, which shall be paid to the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia. Such license shall be issued at the time and in the manner provided in paragraph numbered 5 of this section.

(b) An applicant for a license shall submit proof satisfactory to the Commissioners, on such forms as the Commissioners may prescribe, that he is not less than twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, of good moral character; that he is a graduate of a recognized high school or educational equivalent; that he is a graduate of a school or college of embalming, whose course of instruction is not less than nine months, comprising not less than eight hundred and forty hours of study, and that he has had not less than two years' practical experience in the business or profession. Such applicant shall be examined theoretically and practically in anatomy, embalming, embalming fluids, sanitation, disinfection, the care and preparation of dead human bodies for burial and the shipment of same, laws and regulations pertaining to communicable diseases, and such other subjects as the Commissioners deem appropriate and proper.

An examination of applicants for a license shall be held not less frequently than once each year at such time and place as the Commissioners shall determine; notice of such examination shall be given at least thirty days prior to the date set therefor.

(c) Every person, who, at the time of enactment of this paragraph, is registered as an undertaker with the Health Department of the District of Columbia and who was actually engaged, at any time during the five-year period immediately preceding the date of enactment of this paragraph, in discharging the duties of an undertaker and who desires to continue to discharge such duties shall be entitled to a license therefor without examination upon application therefor and upon furnishing proof satisfactory to the Commissioners that he was so registered and so discharging such duties; that he is not less than twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, of good moral character; and that he is a graduate of a school or college of embalming whose course of instruction is not less than nine months, comprising not less than eight hundred and forty hours of study, or that he has had actual experience equivalent thereto; and upon payment of the license fee hereinbefore provided.

(d) The Commissioners are hereby authorized:

(1) After notice and open hearing, to refuse to issue or renew or to suspend or revoke a license for fraud or misrepresentation in the application therefor, or for misconduct during an examination therefor, or for any act or practice detrimental to the public health or safety, including the act of removing a dead human body without the prior consent of a person who, under the law, is authorized to give such consent, or for violation of the laws and regulations of the District of Columbia relating to the removal or burial or disposal of dead human bodies or the provisions of this paragraph or of the rules and regulations hereinafter authorized to be promulgated, or for conviction of a felony as shown by a certified copy of the record of the court of conviction.

(2) To appoint a committee of five persons of good moral character, two of whom shall have been actually and continuously engaged in discharging the duties of an undertaker or embalmer in the District of Columbia for at least five years next preceding their appointment and the Health Officer of the District of Columbia, or a member of the personnel of the Health Department designated by said Health Officer, who shall serve ex officio as a member of said committee, to conduct the examination of applicants for a license hereinbefore provided; the appointment of each such person shall be for a period of one year unless sooner terminated by the Commissioners for cause; such appointees, except the Health Officer or person designated by him, shall be entitled to a per diem of $10 for each day they are actually engaged in discharging their duties pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) To issue licenses without examination to persons licensed by other Territories and States upon the same terms and conditions as such States and Territories issue licenses without examination to persons licensed by the District of Columbia.

(4) To prescribe the terms, conditions, and license fee, not to exceed $10 per annum, under which apprenticeship shall be served.

(5) To employ, and provide for necessary travel, in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, such additional employees as may be necessary and to make such expenditures as may be necessary for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this paragraph and the rules and regulations promulgated by authority thereof. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia not otherwise appropriated, funds to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

(6) To promulgate and enforce, and from time to time to alter, such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this paragraph, as they deem necessary, for the proper execution and enforcement of the provisions of this paragraph.

(7) To designate as their agent for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this paragraph, the Health Officer of the District of Columbia.

(e) The provisions of paragraph numbered 1 of this section relative to the assignment or transfer of a license and the provisions of paragraph numbered 7 of this section relative to the definition of the word "person" shall not apply to licenses issued under the provisions of this paragraph. The word "person" as used in this paragraph shall be construed to mean a natural person only, and licenses issued under the provisions of this paragraph shall not be assignable or transferable.

(f) As used in this paragraph the term "undertaker" includes a funeral director, mortician, embalmer, and any person who performs services with respect to the care and preparation of dead human bodies for burial or cremation. (July 1, 1902, ch. 1352, § 7, July 1, 1932, ch. 336, par. 44a, as added Aug. 1, 1947, 61 Stat. 711, ch. 428.)

§ 47–2345 [20: 1754]. Promulgation of regulations authorized—Revocation of licenses.

The commissioners are further authorized and empowered to make any regulations that may be necessary in furtherance of the purpose of this chapter and to revoke any license issued hereunder when, in their judgment, such is deemed desirable in the interest of public decency or the protection of lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quiet of the citizens of the District of Columbia, or for any other reason they may deem sufficient. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 46.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RECOVERY OF POSSESSION

Roomer's act in changing lock on door and refusing to provide proprietor of rooming house with a key, thereby preventing proprietor from compliance with regulations relative to inspection and repair and jeopardizing renewal of proprietor's rooming house license sufficiently constituted "disorderly conduct" or "nuisance" and the violation of obligation of her tenancy to the injury of the proprietor so as to entitle proprietor to possession. Vaughn v. Neal (D. C. Mun. App. 1948, 60 A. 2d 234).

§ 47–2346 [20: 1755]. Prosecutions.

Prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any section added hereto from time to time by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, or of any regulation made by the commissioners under authority of this chapter, shall be on information in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 47.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

JUDICIAL NOTICE

The court would take judicial notice that license regulations applying to rooming houses were adopted during war emergency when thousands of people were coming to Washington to live in rooming houses and that it was vitally necessary to protect their health. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

MOTION TO QUASH

Whether premises on which violations of rooming house regulations allegedly occurred were within the operation of such regulations though licensed as an apartment house could not be determined on motion to quash information. District of Columbia v. Basiliko (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 407).

PREMISES INCLUDED

That premises were licensed as an apartment house did not preclude prosecution for violations of rooming house regulations which allegedly occurred on such premises. District of Columbia v. Basiliko (D. C. Mun. App. 1945, 44 A. 2d 407).

§ 47–2347 [20: 1756]. Penalties.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or additions thereto made from time to time by the commissioners of the District of Columbia, where no specific penalty is fixed, or the violation of any regulation made by the commissioners under the authority of this chapter, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days. Any person failing to file any information required by this chapter, or by any regulation of the commissioners of the District of Columbia made under the provisions hereof, or who in filing any such information makes any false or misleading statement, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 48.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY

The penalty imposed by this section is not one as to which there is a constitutional right to a trial by jury. District of Columbia v. Clawans (300 U. S. 617, 81 L. Ed. 843, 57 Sup. Ct. 660, affg. 66 App. D. C. 11, 84 Fed. (2d) 265).

A single offense of using premises for a purpose other than a single family dwelling without an occupancy permit or of operating a rooming house without a license, is a petty offense not involving moral turpitude nor indictable at common law, and therefore a jury trial is not demandable as of right. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

Where accused was charged under three separate informations which were consolidated for trial, with using premises without a certificate of occupancy, operating the premises as a rooming house between certain dates without a license, and using the same premises as a rooming house without a license between certain other dates, jury trial was properly denied. Savage v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1947, 54 A. 2d 562).

§ 47–2348 [20: 1757]. Saving clause.

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2349 [20: 1758]. Severable provisions.

If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 50.)

AMENDMENT

The 1932 act purports to amend the 1902 act. In effect, it is a new enactment superseding the prior act. (See also Compiler's Note to § 47–2301.)

§ 47–2350 [20: 1759]. Refund of erroneously-paid fees.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to refund any license fee or tax, or portion thereof, erroneously paid or collected under this chapter. (July 1, 1902, 32 Stat. 622, ch. 1352, § 7; July 1, 1932, 47 Stat. 563, ch. 366, par. 51.)

47–2401. Tax appeals—Definitions.
47–2402. Board of Tax Appeals.
47–2403. Appeal from assessment—Payment under protest—Hearing and decision.
47–2404. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of board, when final—Modification or reversal.
47–2405. Appeals of real estate assessments.
47–2406. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.
47–2407. Refund of erroneous collections.
47–2408. Rules of procedure.
47–2409. Summons—Authority to take testimony.

Sec.
47–2410. Certain suits forbidden.
47–2411. Manner of serving notices.
47–2412. Reference by Commissioners to the Board.

§ 47–2401 [20: 972]. Tax appeals—Definitions.

In the interpretation of this chapter, unless the context indicates a different meaning—

The word "tax" means the tax or taxes mentioned in this chapter.

The word "appeal" means the appeal provided in this chapter.

The word "board" means the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia created by this chapter.

The word "commissioners" means the commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized representative or representatives.

The word "District" means the District of Columbia.

The word "person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation (domestic or foreign), trust, estate, or receiver.

The word "court" shall mean the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

The word "assessor" shall mean the assessor of the District of Columbia.

The words "Board of Equalization and Review" shall mean the Board of Equalization and Review of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 1, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47–2402 [20: 973]. Board of Tax Appeals.

The commissioners shall appoint a board of one person, subject to removal by the commissioners, to be called the "Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia," which person shall be a citizen of the United States. Such person shall be appointed for a term of four years, except such appointment as may be made for the remainder of an unexpired term. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled by the commissioners only for an unexpired term. Such person shall be eligible for reappointment. Such person shall be an attorney and in active practice of law for at least ten years next preceding his appointment.

The salary of such person so appointed shall be $8,000 per annum. The commissioners are authorized to employ such other personal services as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title and to provide for the expenses of the board. The salaries of employees other than the board shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923 (U. S. C., title 5, § 673), as amended, but such employees shall be appointed without regard to civil-service requirements. The commissioners shall include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required for the salaries and expenses herein authorized. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 2, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (a).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment raised the salary from $7,500 to $8,000.

CROSS REFERENCE

The sections of this chapter are part of the Revenue Act of 1939, see Compiler's Notes to § 47–1401.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

NATURE OF BOARD

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is not a "court" but it is an "administrative agency" to which a taxpayer seeking relief may appeal an alleged excessive assessment of the Board of Equalization and Review. Watrous v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is an "administrative agency" established to furnish more efficient, speedy, and less expensive method of determining validity of assessments, and is "quasi judicial" in nature, but is not a "court". Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

§ 47–2403 [20: 974]. Appeal from assessment—Payment under protest—Hearing and decision.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment by the District against him of any personal-property, inheritance, estate, business-privilege, gross-receipts, gross-earnings, insurance-premiums, or motor-vehicle-fuel tax or taxes, or penalties thereon, may, within ninety days after notice of such assessment, appeal from such assessment to the board, provided such person shall first pay such tax, together with penalties and interest due thereon, to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia under protest in writing. The mailing to the taxpayer of a statement of taxes due shall be considered notice of assessment with respect of such taxes. The board shall hear and determine all questions arising on said appeal and shall make separate findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall render its decision thereon in writing. The board may affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase such assessment. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 3, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 amendment deleted the word "or" before the words "insurance-premiums" and added thereafter the words "or motor-vehicle-fuel," and hyphenated the following pairs of words, "personal property," "business privilege," "gross receipts," "gross earnings," and "insurance premiums" as they appear.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

GENERALLY

Prior to creation of Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, taxpayer was subject to common-law rule prohibiting challenge of tax unless involuntarily paid, and a mere statement tax is being paid under protest does not make it an "involuntary payment". Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

BURDEN OF PROOF

Taxpayer asserting invalidity of personal property assessment has the burden of proof. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

CONSTRUCTION

There is no conflict between this section and § 47–1604; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 386, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

This section was general section applicable to all taxes referred to therein, and to all time situations which might arise, and reference to interest and penalties was used in respect of taxes whose due dates might antedate expiration of 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment within which appeal was to be taken. Rynex v. District of Columbia, 1940 (114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

ELECTION OF REMEDIES

As to taxpayer paying voluntarily, this chapter creating Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia created new right and the remedy provided by it is exclusive, but, as to taxpayer paying involuntarily within common-law meaning, remedy before the board is cumulative and such taxpayer may elect between statutory remedy and common-law remedy. Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

ESTOPPEL

Taxpayer was not estopped from denying, for personal property tax purposes, the figures set up by her in her income tax returns for depreciation purposes. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

EXCLUSIVENESS OF REMEDY

A taxpayer may contest validity of tax voluntarily paid, which is a new right created by this chapter establishing Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, and remedy provided by this chapter is the only remedy for such right. Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

The remedy before Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, afforded an aggrieved taxpayer, is not exclusive of common law remedy. Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

JURISDICTION—STIPULATION OF PARTIES

Where the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia was without jurisdiction of a claim for refund of part of business privilege tax because there had been no overpayment when claim was made, the stipulation of the parties could not confer jurisdiction. J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia, 1940 (115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

PARTIES

A national bank claiming that it was discriminated against by administrative application of §§ 47–1701, 47–1703, imposing tax on gross earnings of banks, was entitled to maintain proceeding before Board of Tax Appeals notwithstanding absence of bank favored by the administrative practice. Hamilton Nat. Bank. v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

PAYMENT AS CONDITION PRECEDENT

Under section 47–1604, providing for payment of inheritance tax within 18 months after decedent's death, and this section the payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment was condition precedent to the taking of the appeal. Rynex v. District of Columbia, 1940 (114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

PERSONAL PROPERTY

When personal property assessment is challenged and is brought before the Board of Tax Appeals, the issue is the correct fair cash value, not merely the basis upon which the assessor proposed his assessment. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

REMEDY AS CUMULATIVE

Congress may provide an exclusive administrative remedy for recovery of illegally collected taxes, or abolish common-law right of action and substitute new statutory right, but, unless so declared expressly or impliedly, statutory remedy is "cumulative" of common law remedy. Lindner v. District of Columbia (D. C. 1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

TIME OF PAYMENT

The statute requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the 18 months provision fixed by § 47–1604. Rynex v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 386, 114 Fed. (2d) 842).

To same effect as original annotation, see J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia, 1940 (115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

Where taxpayer overpaid its business privilege tax only because, on its own responsibility, it made incorrect returns and underpaid its personal property taxes, claim that business privilege taxes should be abated to extent of additional payment of tangible personal property taxes was barred in view of fact that appeal to Board of Tax Appeals was made more than 90 days after notice of assessment of business privilege taxes. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia, 1942 (129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

§ 47–2404 [20:975]. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of board, when final—Modification or reversal.

(a) The decision of the board may be reviewed by the court as hereinafter provided if a petition for such review is filed by either the District or the taxpayer within thirty days after the decision is rendered. Such petition for review shall be filed with the board, and shall be in such form as the board by regulation shall provide. Upon such review the court shall have the power to affirm, or if the decision of the board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the board, with or without remanding the case for hearing, as justice may require. The court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the board, and the judgment of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari in the manner provided in section 347, Title 28, U. S. Code. The court is authorized to adopt rules for the filing of the record on review, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of the proceedings upon such review and, until the adoption of such rules, the rules of the court relating to appeals in cases in equity, so far as applicable, shall govern. The findings of fact by the board shall have the same effect as a finding of fact by an equity court or a verdict of a jury.

(b) The board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee usually charged and collected therefor by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, for comparing and preparing the transcript of record, and to fix charges for supplying copies of testimony or copies of other documents and papers. The fees and charges so fixed shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District and deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.

(c) The decision of the board shall become final (1) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition be duly filed within such time; or (2) upon the expiration of time allowed for filing of petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court, or no petition for certiorari has been filed; or (3) upon denial of a petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court; or (4) upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court, if such Court directs that the decision of the board be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.

(d) If the Supreme Court directs that the decision of the board be modified or reversed, the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected to accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the Board shall become final when so corrected.

(e) If the decision of the board is modified or reversed by the court and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time such decision of the board was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected so that it will accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(f) If the Supreme Court orders a rehearing, or if the case is remanded by the court for rehearing and if (1) the time allowed for filing of a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been duly filed; or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied; or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered upon such rehearing shall become final in the same manner as though no prior decision of the board had been rendered.

(g) As used in this section the term "mandate," in case a mandate has been recalled prior to the expiration of thirty days from the date of the issuance thereof, means the final mandate. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690, title IX, § 4, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

CONCLUSIVENESS OF FINDINGS

In proceedings to review assessment of inheritance tax in the District of Columbia, involving question of whether decedent was domiciled in Florida or in the District, Court of Appeals, convinced that Board of Tax Appeals was clearly wrong in finding that decedent was domiciled in the District, could not set aside board's determination. District of Columbia v. Pace, 1944 (64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408, affirming 135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332).

Rule 52, 28 U. S. C. following § 723c, relating to review of findings of fact generally would not supersede special statutory measure of review of decisions of Board of Tax Appeals of District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Pace, 1944 (64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408, affirming 135 F. 2d 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332).

The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has power to review decisions of Board of Tax Appeals for the District as under equity practice in which whole case, both facts and law, are open for consideration, subject to rule that findings of fact are treated as presumptively correct and accepted unless clearly wrong. District of Columbia v. Pace, 1944 (64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408, affirming 135 F. 2d. 249, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 332).

Where taxpayer was organized for purpose of lending money on realty but it acquired realty by foreclosure, finding of Board of Tax Appeals that the realty was held primarily for sale to customers in ordinary course of business, so that profits on sales were taxable as ordinary income and not as profits derived from sale of "capital assets", was not clearly wrong and could not be disturbed. Real Estate Mortgage & Guaranty Corporation v. District of Columbia, 1944 (141 F. 2d 361, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 390).

A finding of fact by Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia will not be disturbed on appeal unless clearly erroneous. Connecticut Ave. Cafe v. District of Columbia (C. A., D. C. 1948, 169 F. 2d 304).

PAYMENT UNDER PROTEST

When taxpayer who had been previously taxed on basis of his equitable interest in marginal stocks but is then reassessed by tax authorities for full value, a payment under protest raises the question whether such new assessment was without authority of law. Hunt v. District of Columbia (71 App. D. C. 143, 108 Fed. (2d) 10).

QUESTIONS NOT RAISED BELOW

On taxpayer's petition to review decision of Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia redetermining petitioner's income tax for 1939 imposed by District of Columbia, petitioner could not question the amount of its gross receipts found by the District and the Board of Tax Appeals where no such question was raised before the Board, and petitioner had stipulated that the only issue was the correctness of the District's action in using the ratio of District sales to total sales as the sole basis for apportioning petitioner's net income. Eastman Kodak Co. v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1942, 131 F. 2d 347).

REMAND

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, upon finding invalid the prevailing administrative practice in assessment of gross earnings tax against banks in District of Columbia, remanded case with instructions to cancel assessment unless tax assessor upon re-examination of entire subject removed discriminations. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (App. D. C. 1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied, 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 890, 94 L. Ed. 546.

Where taxpayer pleaded that proposed valuations of personal property were in excess of fair cash value of property, an issue of fact was presented which should have been resolved by a finding and the lack of a finding and conclusion on the point required the remandment of the case to Board of Tax Appeals. District of Columbia v. Morris (App. D. C. 1946, 159 F. 2d 13).

§ 47–2405 [20: 976]. Appeals of real estate assessments.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment, equalization, or valuation made pursuant to sections 47–708, 47–709, may, within ninety days after October 1 of the year in which such assessment, equalization, or valuation is made, appeal from such assessment, equalization, or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as therein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment or valuation made in pursuance of section 47–710 may, within ninety days after October 15 of the year in which said valuation or assessment is made, appeal from such assessment or valuation in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such asesssment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment made in pursuance of section 47–711 may, within ninety days after April 15 of the year in which such assessment is made, appeal from such assessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404: Provided, however, That such person shall have first made his complaint to the Board of Equalization and Review respecting such assessment as herein provided.

Any person aggrieved by any reassessment made in pursuance of section 47–712, may within ninety days after notice of said reassessment, appeal from said reassessment in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404.

Any person aggrieved by a reassessment or redistribution made pursuant to section 47–716, may within ninety days after notice of such reassessment or redistribution, appeal from such reassessment or redistribution in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in sections 47–2403, 47–2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 5, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 372, ch. 223, § 8; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1109, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b).)

AMENDMENT

The 1939 act changed the date in paragraph (a) from "August 1" to "October 1" and added the proviso to that paragraph; changed the date in paragraph (b) from "August 1" to "October 15" and added the proviso to that paragraph; and changed the date in paragraph (c) from "February 1" to "April 15" and added the proviso to that paragraph.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

AUTHORITY TO REDUCE

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia has authority to reduce an assessment of real property made by Board of Assistant Assessors and approved by Board of Equalization and Review, notwithstanding the absence of a showing that the assessment is capricious or arbitrary or so at variance with true value as to be actually or constructively fraudulent. Watrous v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

Where each lot was assessed at $4,008 and Board of Tax Appeals found value in money of each lot to be $3,500, the Board had power to reduce the assessment, notwithstanding absence of showing that assessment was capricious or arbitrary, under § 47–2403 providing that the Board may affirm, cancel, reduce or increase assessment. Watrous v. District of Columbia, 1943 (135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

§ 47–2406 [20: 977]. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.

Any taxpayer who shall have paid within three years immediately preceding the approval of the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937 any tax to the District involuntarily, and under circumstances which according to law would entitle such taxpayer to the right to sue at law for the recovery of such tax, may within ninety days from May 16, 1938, appeal from the imposition of such tax in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 6, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

The Revenue Act of 1937 was approved Aug. 17, 1937. This provision is doubtless of a temporary nature.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

PAYMENT TO AVOID REVOCATION OF LICENSE

A corporation licensed to do business in the district which is assessed a tax on its earnings and fails to pay the sum until it receives from the assessor a rule to show cause why their license should not be revoked, and then pays the tax and penalty under protest to avoid revocation of their license, pays the tax involuntarily, entitling it to sue for the recovery of the tax under this act. Panitz v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 131, 112 Fed. (2d) 39).

A claim for refund of taxes filed on the ninety-first day was on time, where the ninetieth day fell on Sunday. Sherwood Bros., Inc. v. District of Columbia (72 App. D. C. 155, 113 Fed. (2d) 162).

DISMISSAL OF APPEAL

§ 47–2409 [20: 979a]. Summons—Authority to take testimony.

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to summon any person before it to give testimony on oath or affirmation or to produce all books, records, papers, documents, or other legal evidence as to any matter relating to sections 47–2401 to 47–2412; and the board is authorized to administer oaths and to take testimony for the purposes of the administration of sections of this chapter. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the board may report that fact to the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 9, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47–2410 [20: 979b]. Certain suits forbidden.

No suit shall be filed to enjoin the assessment or collection by the District of Columbia or any of its officers, agents, or employees of any tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 10, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47–2411 [20: 979c]. Manner of serving notices.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in any return filed by him, or, if no return has been filed, then to his last-known address. The proof of mailing of any notice mentioned in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 11, title IX, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47–2412 [20: 979e]. Reference by Commissioners to the Board.

In any matter affecting taxation, the determination of which is by law left to the discretion of the commissioners, the commissioners may, if they so elect, refer such matter to the board to make findings of fact and submit recommendations, such findings of fact and recommendations, if any, to be advisory only and not binding on the commissioners, and shall be without prejudice to the commissioners to make such further and other inquiry and investigation concerning such matter as they in their discretion shall consider necessary or advisable. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, § 13, title IX, as added July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1110, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (c).)

§ 47–2501 [20: 971a]. Authorization for advance of funds by Secretary of Treasury.

Until and including June 30, 1942, the Secretary of the Treasury, notwithstanding the provisions of the District of Columbia Appropriation Act, approved June 29, 1922, is authorized and directed to advance, on the requisition of the commissioners of the District of Columbia, made in the manner now prescribed by law, out of any money in the treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary, from time to time, to meet the general expenses of said District, as authorized by Congress, and such amounts so advanced shall be reimbursed by the said commissioners to the treasury out of taxes and revenue collected for the support of the government of the said District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, 50 Stat. 692, ch. 690, § 2, title VII; May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 369, ch. 223, § 7; July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1118, ch. 367, title VI; March 2, 1940, 54 Stat. 39, ch. 37, § 3.)

AMENDMENTS

The date in the first phrase of the first sentence, appeared in the 1937 act as June 30, 1938, in the 1938 act as June 30, 1939, in the 1939 act as June 30, 1940, and in the 1940 act as June 30, 1942.

The 1938 act deleted the word "the" from the phrase "of the taxes" in the last clause.

The 1939 act deleted the words "during said fiscal year" following the words "from time to time."

Except as shown by this amendment note, this section has been re-enacted in each act cited to the text.

§ 47–2601. Definitions.

1. "Assessor" means the Assessor of the District or his duly authorized representatives.

2. "Business" includes any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect.

3. "Collector" means the Collector of Taxes of the District or his duly authorized representatives.

4. "Commissioners" means the Commissioners of the District or their duly authorized representatives.

5. "District" means the District of Columbia.

6. "Engaging in business" means commencing, conducting, or continuing in business, as well as liquidating a business when the liquidator thereof holds himself out to the public as conducting such a business.

7. "Food" means cereals and cereal products; milk and milk products, including ice cream; meat and meat products; fish and fish products; eggs and egg products; vegetables and vegetable products; fruit, fruit products, and fruit juices; bottled soft drinks; spices and salt; flavoring extracts and condiments; sugar and sugar products; coffee and coffee substitutes; tea; cocoa and cocoa products; and ice when used for household consumption: Provided, however, That the word "food" shall not include spiritous or malt liquors, beer, and any other beverages such as are ordinarily dispensed at bars and soda fountains or in connection therewith.

8. "Gross receipts" means the total amount of the sales prices of the retail sales of vendors, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise.

9. "Person" includes an individual, partnership, society, club, association, joint-stock company, corporation, estate, receiver, trustee, assignee, or referee, and any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, whether appointed by a court or otherwise, and any combination of individuals acting as a unit.

10. "Purchaser" includes a person who purchases property or to whom are rendered services, receipts from which are taxable under this title.

11. "Purchaser's certificate" means a certificate signed by a purchaser and in such form as the Assessor shall prescribe, stating the purpose to which the purchaser intends to put the subject of the sale, or the status or character of the purchaser.

12. "Retailer" includes—

(a) every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail;

(b) every person engaged in the business of making retail sales at auction of tangible personal property owned by the person or others;

(c) every person engaged in the business of making sales for storage, use, or other consumption, or in the business of making sales at auction of tangible personal property owned by the person or others for storage, use, or other consumption.

13. "Retail establishment" means any premises in which the business of selling tangible personal property is conducted or in or from which any retail sales are made.

14. (a) "Retail sale" and "sale at retail" mean the sale in any quantity or quantities of any tangible personal property or service taxable under the terms of this chapter. Said term shall mean all sales of tangible personal property to any person for any purpose other than those in which the purpose of the purchaser is to resell the property so transferred in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by him, or to use or incorporate the property so transferred as a material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining. For the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter, these terms shall include but shall not be limited to the following:

(1) The sale for consumption of any meals, food or drink, or other tangible personal property for a consideration, at any restaurant, hotel, drug store, club, resort, or other place at which meals, food, drink, or other tangible personal property are sold.

(2) Any production, fabrication, or printing of tangible personal property on special order for a consideration.

(3) The sale or charges for any room or rooms, lodgings, or accommodations furnished to transients by any hotel, inn, tourist camp, tourist cabin, or any other place in which rooms, lodgings, or accommodations are regularly furnished to transients for a consideration.

(4) The sale of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel, or steam, when made to any purchaser for purposes other than resale or for use in manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining.

(5) The sale of material used in the construction, and of materials used in the repair or alteration, of real property, which materials, upon completion of such construction, alterations, or repairs, become real property, regardless of whether or not such real property is to be sold or resold.

(6) The grant of the right to continuous possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract if such grant of possession would be taxable if outright sale were made; in such event such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rentals paid.

(b) The term "retail sale" and "sale at retail" shall not include the following:

(1) Sales of tickets for admission to places of amusement and sports.

(2) Sales of transportation and communication services.

(3) Professional, insurance, or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

(4) Any sale in which the only transaction in the District is the mere execution of the contract of sale and in which the tangible personal property sold is not in the District at the time of such execution: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to be an exemption from the tax imposed under chapter 27 of this title.

15. "Return" includes any return filed or required to be filed as herein provided.

16. (a) "Sales price" means the total amount paid by a purchaser to a vendor as consideration for a retail sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold.

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property prior to its sale at retail. The total amount of the sales price includes all of the following: a. Any services that are a part of the sale. b. Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the vendor.

(b) The term "sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) The amount charged for property returned by purchasers to vendors upon rescission of contracts of sale when the entire amounts charged therefor are refunded either in cash or credit, and when the property is returned within ninety days from the date of sale.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) The amount of reimbursement of tax paid by the purchaser to the vendor under this chapter.

(5) Transportation charges separately stated, if the transportation occurs after the sale of the property is made.

17. "Sale" and "selling" mean any transaction whereby title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property is or is to be transferred by any means whatsoever for a consideration by a vendor to a purchaser, or any transaction whereby services subject to tax under this chapter are rendered for consideration or are sold to any purchaser by any vendor, and shall include, but not be limited to, any "sale at retail" as defined in this chapter. Such consideration may be either in the form of a price in money, rights, or property, or by exchange or barter, and may be payable immediately, in the future, or by installments.

18. "Semipublic institution" means any corporation, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized exclusively for religious, scientific, charitable, or educational purposes, including hospitals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. For the purpose of this chapter an organization or institution which does not embrace the generally recognized relationship of teacher and student shall be deemed not to be operated for educational purposes.

19. "Tangible personal property" means corporeal personal property of any nature.

20. "Tax" means the tax imposed by this chapter.

21. "Taxpayer" means any person required by this chapter to make returns or to pay the tax imposed by this chapter.

22. "Tax year" means the calendar year, or the taxpayer's fiscal year if it be other than the calendar year when such fiscal year is regularly used by the taxpayer for the purpose of reporting District income taxes as the tax period in lieu of the calendar year.

23. "Vendor" includes a person or retailer selling property or rendering services upon the receipts from which a tax is imposed under this chapter.

24. The foregoing definitions shall be applicable whenever the words defined are used in this chapter unless otherwise required by the context. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 112, ch. 146, Title I, §§ 101 to 124.)

SHORT TITLE

Sec. 1 of the act of May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, provided that this chapter 26 of title 47 may be cited as the "District of Columbia Sales Tax Act".

SEPARABILITY CLAUSE

Sec. 801 of the act of May 27, 1947, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, provided: "If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to the other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

§ 47–2602. Imposition of tax.

Beginning on and after August 1, 1949, for the privilege of selling certain tangible personal property at retail sale and for the privilege of selling certain selected services defined as sales at retail in this chapter, a tax is hereby imposed upon all vendors at the rate of 2 per centum of the gross receipts of any vendor from the sale of such tangible personal property and services. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, Title I, § 125.)

§ 47–2603. Reimbursement of vendor for tax.

Reimbursement for the tax imposed upon the vendor shall be collected by the vendor from the purchaser on all sales the gross receipts from which are subject to the tax imposed by this chapter so far as it can be done. It shall be the duty of each purchaser in the District to reimburse the vendor, as provided in section 47–2604, for the tax imposed by this chapter. Such reimbursement of tax shall be a debt from the purchaser to the vendor and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, Title I, § 126.)

For the purpose of collecting his reimbursement as provided in section 47–2603 insofar as it can be done and yet eliminate the fractions of a cent, the vendor shall add to the sales price and collect from the purchaser the following amounts:

(a) On each sale where the sales price is from 14 cents to 63 cents, both inclusive, 1 cent;

(b) On each sale where the sales price is from 64 cents to $1.13, both inclusive, 2 cents;

(c) On each 50 cents of sales price or fraction thereof in excess of $1.13, 1 cent.

(May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, Title I, § 127.)

§ 47–2605. Exemptions.

Gross receipts from the following sales shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter:

(a) Sales to the United States or the District or any instrumentality thereof.

(b) Sales to a State or any of its political subdivisions if such State grants a similar exemption to the District. As used in this subsection, the term "State" means the several States, Territories, and possessions of the United States.

(c) Sales to a semipublic institution: Provided, however, That such sales shall not be exempt unless (1) such institution shall have first obtained a certificate from the Assessor stating that it is entitled to such exemption, and (2) the vendor keeps a record of the sales price of each such separate sale, the name of the purchaser, the date of each such separate sale, and the number of such certificate.

(d) (1) Sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold.

(2) Sales of any food sold for human consumption in hotels, restaurants, cafes, bars, and other establishments where the sales price of the food furnished each individual patron, including any cover, minimum, entertainment, or other charge, is $1.25 or less: Provided, however, That the gross proceeds from all such sales where the sales price to the individual patron is more than $1.25 shall be subject to the tax imposed by this title without any deductions from such gross proceeds by virtue of the provisions of this subsection: And provided further, That the provisions of this chapter with respect to reimbursement for the tax imposed shall be applicable to every such sale where the sales price to the individual patron is more than $1.25 without regard to the provisions of this subsection.

(e) Sales of motor-vehicle fuels upon the sale of which a tax is imposed by chapter 19 of this title.

(f) Sales of property purchased by a utility or public-service company for use or consumption in furnishing a commodity or service: Provided, That the receipts from furnishing such commodity or service are subject to a gross-receipts or mileage tax in force in the District during or for the period of time covered by any return required to be filed by the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Sales of newspapers and publications of semipublic institutions as defined in section 47–2601 (18).

(h) Casual and isolated sales by a vendor who is not regularly engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

(i) Sales of livestock, poultry, seeds, feeds for livestock and poultry, fertilizers, lime, and land plaster used for agricultural purposes.

(j) Sales of food or beverages of any nature if made in any car composing a part of any train or in any aircraft or boat operating within the District in the course of commerce between the District and a State.

(k) Sales of goods made pursuant to bona fide contracts entered into before the date of approval of this Act: Provided, That there is a contract in writing signed by the purchaser and vendor which imposes an unconditional liability on the part of the purchaser to buy the goods covered thereby at a fixed price and without escalator clause, and an unconditional liability on the part of the vendor to deliver a definite quantity of such goods at the contract price.

(l) Sales of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel, or steam, directly used in manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining.

(m) Sales which a State would be without power to tax under the limitations of the Constitution of the United States.

(n) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers.

(o) Sales of medicines, pharmaceuticals, and drugs whether or not made on prescriptions of duly licensed physicians and surgeons and general and special practitioners of the healing art.

(p) Sales of crutches, wheel chairs for the use of cripples and invalids, and, when designed to be worn on the person of the purchaser or user, artificial limbs, artificial eyes, and artificial hearing devices; sales of false teeth by a dentist and the materials used by a dentist in dental treatment; sales of eyeglasses, when especially designed or prescribed by an ophthalmologist, oculist, or optometrist for the personal use of the owner or purchaser; and sales of artificial braces and supports designed solely for the use of crippled persons.

(q) Sales of cigarettes. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, Title I, § 128.)

Upon each sale of tangible personal property or services, the gross receipts from which are taxable under this chapter, the reimbursement of tax to be collected by the vendor from the purchaser under the provisions of this chapter shall be stated and charged separately from the sales price and shown separately on any record thereof at the time the sale is made or evidence of sale issued or employed by the vendor. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, Title I, § 129.)

§ 47–2607. Presumption of taxability.

It shall be presumed that all receipts from the sale of tangible personal property and services mentioned in this chapter are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the burden of proving that a receipt is not taxable hereunder shall be upon the vendor or the purchaser as the case may be. Except as provided in section 47–2605 (c) of this chapter, unless the vendor shall have taken from the purchaser a certificate signed by and bearing the name and address of the purchaser and the number of his registration certificate to the effect that the property or service was purchased for resale, the receipts from all sales shall be deemed taxable. The certificate herein required shall be in such form as the Assessor shall prescribe and, in case no certificate is furnished or obtained prior to the time the sale is consummated, the tax shall apply to the gross receipts therefrom as if the sale were made at retail. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, Title I, § 130.)

§ 47–2608. Tax a personal debt—Period of limitation.

The tax imposed by this chapter and interest and penalties thereon shall become, from the time due and payable, a personal debt of the person liable to pay the same to the District. An action may be brought at any time within three years from the time the tax shall be due and payable in the name of the District to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due under the provisions of this chapter, but such actions shall be utterly barred after the expiration of the aforesaid three years. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, Title I, § 131.)

§ 47–2609. Tax a preferred claim—Priority over property taxes.

Whenever the business or property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter, shall be placed in receivership or bankruptcy, or assignment is made for the benefit of creditors, or if said property is seized under distraint for property taxes, all taxes, penalties, and interest imposed by this chapter for which said person is in any way liable shall be a prior and preferred claim. Neither the United States marshal, nor a receiver, assignee, or any other officer shall sell the property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter under process or order of any court without first determining from the Collector the amount of any such taxes due and payable by said person, and if there be any such taxes due, owing, or unpaid under this chapter, it shall be the duty of such officer to first pay to the Collector the amount of said taxes out of the proceeds of said sale before making any payment of any moneys to any judgment creditor or other claimants of whatsoever kind or nature. Any person charged with the administration or distribution of any such property as aforesaid who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be personally liable for any taxes accrued and unpaid which are chargeable against the person otherwise liable for tax under the terms of this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, Title I, § 132.)

§ 47–2610. Collection of tax—Liens—Jeopardy assessments—Distraint.

The taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties and interest thereon may be collected by the Collector in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection; and liens for the taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties thereon may be acquired in the same manner that liens for personal property taxes are acquired. If the Assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this chapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, Title I, § 133.)

It shall be unlawful for any vendor to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer directly or indirectly that the reimbursement of tax or any part thereof to be collected by the vendor under this chapter will be assumed or absorbed by the vendor or that it will not be added to the selling price of the property sold or the taxable services rendered, or if added to said price that it, or any part thereof, will be refunded. Any person violating any provision of this section shall upon conviction be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, Title I, § 134.)

§ 47–2612. Monthly returns to be filed.

(a) On or before the twentieth day of each calendar month, every vendor who has made any sale at retail, taxable under the provisions of this chapter, during the preceding calendar month, shall file a return with the Assessor. Such returns shall show the total gross proceeds of the vendor's business for the month for which the return is filed; the gross receipts of the business of the vendor upon which the tax is computed; the amount of tax for which the vendor is liable and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify: Provided, That the gross receipts during any tax year shall be included in returns covering such year and no other.

(c) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, Title I, § 135.)

(a) At the time of filing his return as provided by this chapter, the taxpayer shall pay to the Collector the taxes imposed by this chapter.

(b) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed by a vendor under this chapter shall be due by the vendor and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of gross receipts and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, Title I, § 136.)

§ 47–2614. Annual returns to be filed.

On or before thirty days after the end of the tax year of each vendor required to pay to the Collector the tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter, such vendor shall make an annual return for such tax year in such form as may be required by the Assessor. The Assessor for good cause shown may on the written application of a vendor extend the time for making any return required by this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, Title I, § 137.)

§ 47–2615. Secrecy of returns—Reciprocity.

(a) Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of gross proceeds or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof set forth or disclosed in any return required to be filed under this chapter, and neither the original nor a copy of any such return desired for use in litigation in court shall be furnished where neither the District nor the United States is interested in the result of such litigation, whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $2.

(b) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the publication of notices authorized in this chapter or the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or reports and the items thereof, or the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of persons, vendors, or purchasers who have failed to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter within the time prescribed herein, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the Assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(c) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the Assessor, in his discretion, from divulging or making known any information contained in any report, application, or return required under the provisions of this chapter other than such information as may be contained therein relating to the amount of gross proceeds or tax thereon or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof.

(d) Any violation of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States or his authorized representative to inspect the returns filed under this title, or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such return, provided the United States, State, or Territory grants substantially similar privileges to the Assessor or his representative or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this chapter.

(f) All reports, applications, and returns received by the Assessor under the provisions of this chapter shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until the Assessor orders them to be destroyed. May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, Title I, § 138.)

§ 47–2616. Determination of deficiencies.

If a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the Assessor from such information as may be obtainable. Notice of such determination shall be given to the taxpayer. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, shall apply in writing to the Assessor for a hearing, or unless the Assessor of his own motion shall redetermine the same. After such hearing or redetermination the Assessor shall give notice of his final determination to the person against whom the tax is assessed. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, Title I, § 139.)

§ 47–2617. Refunds.

(a) Except as to any tax finally determined as provided in section 47–2616, where any tax has been erroneously or illegally collected, the tax shall be refunded if application under oath is filed with the Assessor for such refund within one year from the payment thereof. For like cause and within the same period a refund may be made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector. Whenever a refund is made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector, the Assessor and Collector shall state their reasons therefor in writing. Such application may be made by the person upon whom such tax was imposed and who has actually paid the tax. When an application is made by a vendor who has collected reimbursement of such tax, no actual refund of moneys shall be made to such vendor, until he shall first establish to the satisfaction of the Assessor, under such regulations as the Commissioners may prescribe, that the vendor has repaid to the purchaser the amount for which the application for refund is made. In lieu of any refund required to be made, a credit may be allowed therefor on payment due from the applicant.

(b) Application for a refund or credit made as herein provided shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty, or interest complained of and the Assessor may receive evidence with respect thereto. After making his determination of whether any refund shall be made, the Assessor shall give notice thereof to the applicant. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, Title I, § 140.)

§ 47–2618. Appeals.

(a) Any vendor or purchaser aggrieved by a final determination of tax or denial of an application for refund of any tax may, within ninety days from the date of the final determination of the tax or from the date of the denial of an application for refund, as the case may be, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47–2403, 47–2404 and 47–2407 to 47–2411. The remedy provided in this section shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia.

(b) If it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter, that any part of any tax which was assessed as a deficiency, and any interest thereon paid by the taxpayer, was an overpayment, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment of tax at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayment was paid until the date of refund. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, Title I, § 141.)

§ 47–2619. Sales in bulk.

Whenever there is made a sale, transfer, or assignment in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or of merchandise and of fixtures, pertaining to the conducting of the business of the seller, transferor, or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall at least five days before taking possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify the Assessor by registered mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms, and conditions thereof, irrespective of whether or not the seller, transferor, or assignor has represented to or informed the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that he owes any tax pursuant to this chapter or whether he has complied with section 28–1701, or whether or not he has knowledge that such taxes are owing, or whether any such taxes are in fact owing.

(b) Whenever the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall fail to give the notice to the Assessor as required by the preceding section, or whenever the Assessor shall inform the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that a possible claim for such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property, or choses in action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor, or assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the seller, transferor, or assignor to the District, and the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor, or assignor any such sums of money, property, or choses in action to the extent of the amount of the District's claim. For failure to comply with the provisions of this section, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall be personally liable for the payment to the District of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the District from the seller, transferor, or assignor, and such liability may be assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, Title I, § 142.)

§ 47–2620. Rules and regulations.

In addition to the powers granted to the Commissioners in this chapter, they are hereby authorized and empowered to make, adopt, and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, Title I, § 143.)

§ 47–2621. Additional powers of Assessor.

In addition to the powers granted to the Assessor in this chapter, he is hereby authorized and empowered—

(a) to extend for cause shown the time of filing any return for a period not exceeding thirty days; and for cause shown, to remit penalties and interest in whole or in part except as otherwise provided in this chapter; and to compromise disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

(b) to request information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States relative to any person for the purpose of assessing taxes imposed by this chapter; and said Bureau of Internal Revenue is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Assessor relative to any person for the purpose herein provided;

(c) to prescribe methods for determining the gross proceeds from sales made or services rendered and for the allocation of such sales into taxable and nontaxable sales;

(d) to require any vendor selling to persons within the District to keep detailed records of the nature and value of personal property sold for use within the District, and to furnish such information upon request to the Assessor;

(e) to assess, determine, revise, and readjust the taxes imposed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, Title I, § 144.)

The Assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed as required by this chapter, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda, or any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Assessor, or his duly authorized representative, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the Assessor, or the Deputy Assessor, may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the Assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the Assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, Title I, § 145.)

§ 47–2623. Certificate of registration.

(a) No person shall engage or continue to engage in the business of making any retail sales subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having obtained a certificate of registration therefor. If two or more persons constitute a single vendor as defined in this chapter, such persons may operate a single retail establishment under one certificate of registration and in such case neither the death or retirement of one or more of such persons from business in such establishment nor the entrance of one or more persons thereinto shall affect the certificate of registration for a period of sixty days or require the issuance of a new certificate until the expiration of such period.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate required by this section shall make out and deliver to the Assessor, upon a blank to be furnished by him for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each retail establishment where the applicant's business is to be conducted, the kind or nature of such business and such other information as the Assessor may prescribe. Upon receipt of such application the Assessor shall issue the applicant, without charge, a certificate of registration for each retail establishment designated in the application, authorizing the applicant to engage in business at such retail establishment. The certificate of registration shall be nontransferable except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and shall be displayed in the applicant's place of business. The form of such certificate of registration shall be prescribed by the Assessor.

(c) In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and sells from one or more vehicles, each such vehicle shall constitute a retail establishment for the purpose of this chapter. In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and does not sell from a vehicle, the application for a certificate of registration shall set forth the address to which any notice or other communication authorized by this chapter may be sent to the applicant, and the place so designated shall constitute a retail establishment for the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Whoever engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail, or makes any sale which is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having a certificate of registration therefor, as required by this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $100. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, Title I, § 146.)

§ 47–2624. Penalties and interest.

(a) Any person failing to file a return or who files a false or incorrect return or who fails to pay any tax to the Collector within the time required by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of 5 per centum of the amount of tax due, plus interest at the rate of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay excepting the first month after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, if satisfied that the delay was excusable, may waive all or any part of such penalty in excess of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per year. Unpaid penalties and interest may be collected in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter. The interest provided for in this section shall be applicable to any tax determined by the Assessor as a deficiency.

(b) The certificate of the Collector or Assessor, as the case may be, to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or a registration certificate has not been obtained, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence thereof: Provided, That the presumptions created by this subsection shall not be applicable in criminal prosecutions. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, Title I, § 147.)

§ 47–2625. Failure to file return.

(a) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who shall fail or neglect to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or neglect. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter.

(b) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who willfully fails or refuses to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year or both. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, Title I, § 148.)

§ 47–2626. Assessment of deficiencies — Limitations thereupon.

ASSESSMENT, REASSESSMENT, FALSE AND INCORRECT RETURNS

The Assessor shall determine, redetermine, assess, or reassess, any tax imposed by this chapter, except in cases where the tax is correct as computed in any return filed with the Assessor, within three years after the filing of any return, except as follows:

(a) In the case of a false return, or a failure to file a return, whether in good faith or otherwise, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of an incorrect return which has not been prepared as required by this chapter and by the return and instructions, rules, or regulations applicable thereto, the tax shall be assessed or reassessed within five years after the filing of such return. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, Title I, § 149.)

§ 47–2627. Prosecutions.

All prosecutions under this chapter shall be brought in the municipal court for the District of Columbia on information by the Corporation Counsel of the District in the name of the District of Columbia. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, Title I, § 150.)

§ 47–2628. Notices—How given.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended in an envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed by him pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or, if no return has been filed, then to the last address of such person. If the address of any person is unknown, such notice may be published in one or more of the daily newspapers in the District of Columbia for three successive days. The cost of any such advertisement in newspapers shall be added to the tax. The proof of mailing of any notice required or authorized in this title shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of such notice by the person to whom addressed. The proof of publishing any notice required in this chapter in one or more of the daily newspapers in the District shall be conclusive notice to the person for whom such notice is intended. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, Title I, § 151.)

§ 47–2629. Extensions of time.

Where, before the expiration of the period prescribed herein for the assessment or redetermination of an additional tax, a taxpayer has consented in writing that such period be extended, the amount of such tax due may be determined at any time within such extended period. The period so extended may be further extended by subsequent consents in writing made before the expiration of the extended period. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, Title I, § 152.)

SEPARABILITY CLAUSE

Sec. 801 of the act of May 27, 1947, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, provided: "If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to the other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby."

§ 47–2701. Definitions.

1. (a) "Retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" means all sales in any quantity or quantities of tangible personal property, whether made within or without the District, and services, to any person for the purpose of use, storage, or consumption, within the District, taxable under the terms of this chapter. These terms shall mean all sales of tangible personal property to any person for any purpose other than those in which the purpose of the purchaser is to resell the property so transferred in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by him, or to use or incorporate the property so transferred as a material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining. For the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter, these terms shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) Any production, fabrication, or printing of tangible personal property on special order for a consideration.

(2) The sale of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel or steam, when made to any purchaser for purposes other than resale or for use in manufacturing, assembling, processing or refining.

(3) The sale of material used in the construction, and of materials used in the repair or alteration, of real property, which materials, upon completion of such construction, alterations, or repairs, become real property, regardless of whether or not such real property is to be sold or resold.

(4) The grant of the right to continuous possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract if such grant of possession would be taxable if outright sale were made; in such event such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rentals paid.

(b) The terms "retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" shall not include the following:

(1) Sales of tickets for admission to places of amusement and sports.

(2) Sales of transportation and communication services.

(3) Professional, insurance, or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

(4) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a temporary or permanent residence in the District. As used in this subsection, the word "residence" means a place in which to reside and does not mean "domicile".

(5) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident person prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a business in the District.

(6) The use or storage within the District of tangible personal property owned and held by a common carrier or sleeping-car company for use principally without the District in the course of interstate commerce, or commerce between the District and a State, in or upon, or as part of, any train, aircraft, or boat.

2. "Purchase" and "purchased" shall mean and include—

(a) any transfer, either conditionally or absolutely, of title or possession or both of the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(b) any acquisition of a license or other authority to use, store, or consume, the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(c) any sale of services sold at retail.

3. "Purchaser" means any person who shall have purchased tangible personal property or services sold at retail.

4. "In the District" and "within the District" mean within the exterior limits of the District of Columbia and include all territory within such limits owned by the United States of America.

5. "Store" and "storage" mean any keeping or the retention of possession in the District for any purpose of tangible personal property purchased at retail sale.

6. "Use" means the exercise by any person within the District of any right or power over tangible personal property and services sold at retail, whether purchased within or without the District by a purchaser from a vendor.

7. "Vendor" includes every person or retailer engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail as defined herein, whether for immediate or future delivery of the tangible personal property or performance of the services. When in the opinion of the Assessor it is necessary for the efficient administration of this title to regard any salesman, representative, peddler, or canvasser, as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer, under whom he operates or from whom he obtains the tangible personal property sold or furnishes services, the Assessor may, in his discretion, treat and regard such agent as the vendor jointly responsible with his principal, employer, or supervisor, for the assessment and payment or collection of the tax imposed by this chapter.

8. "Engaging in business in the District" includes the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, or any activity in the District in connection with the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, of tangible personal property or services sold at retail as defined herein. This term shall include but shall not be limited to the following acts or methods of transacting business:

(a) The maintaining, occupying or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary or agent, by whatever name called, of any office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place. or other place of business.

(b) The having of any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in the District for the purpose of making sales at retail as defined herein, or the taking of orders for such sales.

9. "Retailer" includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

10. The definitions of "business", "food", "gross receipts", "person", "purchaser's certificate", "retail establishment", "return", "sale" and "selling", "sales price", "semipublic institution", "tangible personal property", "tax", "tax year", "taxpayer", "Assessor", "Collector", "Commissioners", and "District", as defined in chapter 26 of this title, are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter.

11. The foregoing definitions shall be applicable whenever the words defined are used in this chapter unless otherwise required by the context. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, Title II, §§ 201 to 211.)

SHORT TITLE

Sec. 1 of the act of May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 112, ch. 146, provided that this chapter 27 of title 47 may be cited as the "District of Columbia Use Tax Act".

§ 47–2702. Imposition of tax.

Beginning on and after August 1, 1949, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid by every vendor engaging in business in the District and by every purchaser a tax on the use, storage, or consumption of any tangible personal property and services sold or purchased at retail sale. The tax hereby imposed shall be at the rate of 2 per centum of the sale price of the tangible personal property or services rendered or sold. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, Title II, § 212.)

§ 47–2703. Collection of tax by vendor.

Every vendor engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail shall, for the privilege of making such sales, pay to the Collector the tax imposed by this chapter. At the time of making such sales the vendor shall collect the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor engaging in business in the District and for other purposes the provisions of sections 47–2603, 47–2604, 47–2606 and 47–2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, Title II, § 213.)

§ 47–2704. Non-resident vendors.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who makes sales at retail as defined in this chapter, and who upon application to the Collector has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter, shall, at the time of making such sales, collect the reimbursement of the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor or retailer who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax under the provisions of this section and for other purposes, the provisions of sections 47–2603, 47–2604, 47–2606 and 47–2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. A permit shall be issued to such vendor or retailer, without charge, to pay the tax and collect reimbursement thereof as provided herein. Such permit may be revoked at any time by the Collector who shall thereupon give notice thereof to the vendor or retailer. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, Title II, § 214.)

§ 47–2705. Payment of tax by purchaser.

If a purchaser has not reimbursed for the tax such vendors or retailers as are required or authorized to pay the tax, as the case may be, such purchaser shall file a return as hereinafter provided and pay to the Collector 2 per centum of the total sales prices of property and services purchased at retail sale. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 215.)

§ 47–2706. Exemptions.

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to the following:

(a) Sales upon which taxes are imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(b) Sales exempt from the taxes imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(c) Sales upon which the purchaser has paid a retail sales tax or made reimbursement therefor to a vendor or retailer under the laws of any State or territory of the United States. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 216.)

§ 47–2707. Collection of tax.

The provisions of sections 47–2608, 47–2609, and 47–2610 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this title. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 217.)

§ 47–2708. Surety bonds may be required.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter and collect reimbursement therefor, and every vendor engaging in business in the District, may, in the discretion of the Collector, be required to file with the Collector a bond not exceeding the amount of $10,000 with such sureties as the Collector deems necessary, and for such duration not exceeding five years as the Collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the tax due from any vendor or retailer for any period covered by any return required to be filed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 218.)

§ 47–2709. Assumption or refund of tax unlawful—Penalty.

The provisions of section 47–2611 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this title. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 219.)

§ 47–2710. Returns and payment of tax.

The provisions of sections 47–2612, 47–2613, 47–2614, and 47–2615 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. Every vendor, and every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who is expressly authorized to pay the tax, shall file returns and pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of such sections applicable to the filing of returns and the payment of the tax and as shall be prescribed by regulation. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 220.)

§ 47–2711. Monthly returns to be filed—Content and form—Payment of tax.

(a) Every purchaser who is required to pay a tax under this chapter shall file a return with the Assessor within twenty days after the end of each calendar month. Such returns shall show the total sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at retail sale upon which the tax imposed has not been paid by the purchaser to vendors or retailers, the amount of tax for which the purchaser is liable, and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns of purchasers to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify.

(c) The return filed by a purchaser shall include the sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at taxable retail sale during the calendar month or other period for which the return is filed and upon which the tax imposed has not been reimbursed by the purchaser to vendors or retailers.

(d) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice.

(e) At the time of filing his return as provided in this section the purchaser shall pay to the Collector the amount of tax for which he is liable as shown by such return.

(f) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed under this section shall be due by the taxpaper and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of the total sales prices and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, Title II, § 221.)

§ 47–2712. Certificate of registration.

The provisions of section 47–2623 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter: Provided, That vendors and persons who have been issued certificates of registration under chapter 26 of this title shall not be required to have such certificates under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, Title II, § 222.)

§ 47–2713. Application of sections 47–2616 to 47–2622 and 47–2624 to 47–2629.

The provisions of sections 47–2616 to 47–2622 and 47–2624 to 47–2629 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, Title II, § 223.)

§ 47–2801. Definitions.

As used in and for the purposes of this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(a) The word "cigarette" shall mean any roll of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, wrapped in paper or in any substance other than tobacco.

(b) The word "person" shall mean any individual, partnership, corporation, association, receiver, executor, administrator, trustee, conservator, or other representative appointed by order of any court.

(c) The word "District" shall mean the District of Columbia.

(d) The word "Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

(e) The words "designated District agency" shall mean any officer, employee, department, office, or agency in or under the municipal government of the District of Columbia who or which is designated by the Commissioners to perform a function or duty under the terms and provisions of this title.

(f) The word "sell" or "sale" shall include offering for sale, keeping for sale, bartering, trafficking in, peddling, and any transfer or exchange in any manner or by any means for a consideration.

(g) The term "original package" shall mean the individual package, parcel, or other container in which cigarettes are put up by the manufacturer to which is affixed the required United States Government Internal Revenue stamp, and the Commissioners may, by regulation, include within this definition any wrapper immediately enclosing such package, parcel, or other container.

(h) The word "stamp" shall include impressions made by metering machines authorized to be used under the provisions of this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 136, ch. 146, Title VI, § 602.)

SHORT TITLE

Sec. 601 of the act of May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 136, ch. 146, provided that this chapter 28 of title 47 may be cited as the "District of Columbia Cigarette Tax Act".

§ 47–2802. Imposition of tax.

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all cigarettes sold in the District by licensed wholesalers, licensed retailers, or by licensed vending-machine operators, to consumers, a tax at the rate of 1 cent on each twenty cigarettes or fractional part thereof, such tax to be levied, collected, and paid once only on cigarettes sold as aforesaid.

(b) Said tax shall be collected by and paid to the Collector of Taxes of the District and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District.

(c) Said tax shall be collected and paid by the affixture of a stamp or stamps secured from the Collector of Taxes, denoting the payment of the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter upon such cigarettes, each such affixture to be on the original package, unless the Commissioners shall by regulation permit otherwise. Cancellation of such stamps shall be in the manner prescribed by regulation approved by the Commissioners.

(d) The Collector of Taxes shall furnish suitable stamps, to be prescribed by the Commissioners, denoting the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and shall by the sale of such stamps at the amounts indicated on the faces thereof cause the said taxes to be collected.

(e) If at the time of acquisition of original packages by licensed retailers or by licensed vending-machine operators such original packages do not have affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter it shall be the duty of each such retailer and vending-machine operator to affix to each such original package such stamp or stamps before selling or delivering cigarettes to consumers and before removing or permitting the removal of cigarettes from the licensed premises or licensed vending machines of such retailers or operators for delivery to consumers.

(f) No person shall use or cause to be used for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter a stamp already theretofore used for the payment of any such tax.

(g) Any person who shall counterfeit or forge any stamp required or authorized by this chapter shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment of not more than two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(h) The Commissioners are authorized by regulation to permit licensees to pay the tax imposed by this chapter by the method of imprinting impressions upon original packages by the use of metering devices in lieu of the method of paying such tax by the affixture of stamps: Provided, That the Collector of Taxes shall control the use of such metering devices. In addition to their usual meanings the terms "affix stamp", "affixture of stamp or stamps", and like terms shall mean and include the imprinting of impressions denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter as authorized by this section.

(i) Stamps may be purchased only by licensed wholesalers, by licensed retailers, and by licensed vending-machine operators. Discount from face value of such stamps at a rate not to exceed 10 per centum may be allowed under such terms and conditions as the Commissioners may by regulation prescribe. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 137, ch. 146, Title VI, § 603.)

§ 47–2803. Vendor to be licensed.

No person shall within the District of Columbia, manufacture for sale, keep for sale, sell, or offer to sell cigarettes, or display cigarettes for sale in vending machines, without having first obtained a license or licenses under this chapter for such purpose or purposes. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, Title VI, § 604.)

§ 47–2804. Issuance of vendor's license.

The designated District agency is authorized to issue licenses to individuals, partnerships, or corporations, but not to unincorporated associations, on application duly made therefor for the manufacture or sale of cigarettes within the District of Columbia. The designated District agency shall keep a full and complete record of all applications for licenses and of action taken thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, Title VI, § 605.)

§ 47–2805. Types of licenses.

Licenses shall be of three kinds, namely:

A. RETAILER'S LICENSE.—Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale and to sell cigarettes to consumers, from the place therein designated and to deliver such cigarettes to consumers in original packages: Provided, That cigarettes may be sold in number less than the number contained in the original package if such sales be permitted by regulations approved by the Commissioners. A separate license shall be required for each such place or establishment. Such a license shall not authorize the licensee to sell to other licensees for resale.

The annual fee for such license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $5 for each retail establishment.

B. VENDING MACHINE OPERATOR'S LICENSE.—Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to sell or offer to sell cigarettes from or by means of vending machines located in the place or places described therein. The Commissioners may by regulation require that a separate license be obtained for each machine or may permit a blanket license for one or more machines and may also prescribe that evidence of licensing of such machines be attached to each such machine by means of markers, stickers, or otherwise. The annual fee for such a license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $5 for each and every such machine.

C. WHOLESALER'S LICENSE.—(1) Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to manufacture or to purchase or otherwise to acquire and to sell cigarettes in original packages to any person holding a license under this chapter as wholesaler, retailer, or vending-machine operator, or to consumers.

(2) Such a licensee may at his election purchase from the Collector of Taxes and affix to original packages stamps denoting payment of the tax imposed by this chapter and, upon delivery to a vendee licensed under this chapter, of such original packages with such stamps properly affixed may add to the selling price of such cigarettes an amount equal to the face value of such stamps and collect such amount from such vendee. If a wholesaler licensed hereunder shall sell cigarettes to consumers, it shall be the duty of such wholesaler prior to the sale and delivery of such cigarettes to affix to the original packages the stamp or stamps denoting the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(3) A license as wholesaler shall authorize the holder thereof to manufacture at and to sell cigarettes from the place or places in the District therein designated. The Commissioners are empowered in their discretion to authorize, by regulation and upon such terms and conditions as they may require, the issuance of such a license for a place outside the District. A separate license shall be required for each such place within or without the District.

The annual fee for each such license shall be fixed by the Commissioners at a rate not to exceed $50. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 138, ch. 146, Title VI, § 606.)

§ 47–2806. Period of licenses—Suspensions and revocations.

Licenses issued under authority of this chapter shall remain in effect for periods as may be fixed by regulation approved by the Commissioners, not exceeding one year from the effective date of such licenses or unless revoked prior to their expiration.

Licenses issued under this chapter may be suspended or revoked for any violation of this chapter or the regulations issued thereunder, by the Commissioners or by a designated District agency, after hearing held by a designated District agency. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VI, § 607.)

§ 47–2807. Tax to be in addition to other taxes.

The taxes imposed and the licenses required by this chapter shall be in addition to the taxes imposed and the licenses required by any other Act. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VI, § 608.)

§ 47–2808. Administration—Rules and regulations.

This chapter shall be administered by designated District agencies except where specific duties are imposed upon specific officers by the terms hereof. The Commissioners are authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VI, § 609.)

§ 47–2809. Personnel and expenses authorized.

The Commissioners are authorized to employ personal services in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, and to incur such other expenses as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and to include such amounts in their annual estimates. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VI, § 610.)

§ 47–2810. Violations—Penalties—Prosecutions.

Whoever violates any provision of this chapter for which no specific penalty is provided, or any of the rules and regulations promulgated under the authority of this chapter, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not longer than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be on information filed in the municipal court for the District of Columbia by the Corporation Counsel or any of his Assistants, except for such violations as are felonies, and prosecutions for such violations as are felonies shall be by the United States Attorney in and for the District of Columbia, or any of his Assistants. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 139, ch. 146, Title VI, § 611.)

Whoever shall by himself or his agent fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, traffic in, or shall have in his possession with intent to fill, use, sell, offer for sale, give, buy, or traffic in any registered milk bottle or bottles, can or cans, crate or crates, or other containers on which appears the name, mark, or device, registered by another person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties in section 48–210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 2.)

Whoever shall by himself or his agent willfully deface, erase, alter, obliterate, cover up, or otherwise remove or conceal any registered name, mark, or device registered by another and being on any milk bottle, can, crate, or other container, or shall willfully break, destroy, or otherwise injure any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container which has been registered by another shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 48–210. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 3.)

§ 48–204 [19: 164]. Refusal to surrender to registrant a registered container prima facie evidence of unlawful use.

In any prosecution under sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive, the refusal of any person having possession of any registered milk bottle, can, crate, or other container to surrender possession of the same to the registrant of the name, mark, or device appearing thereon, after notice and demand by said registrant or his agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful use or traffic in the same contrary to the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 4.)

Whenever any person who has registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers in accordance with the provisions of section 48–201 shall by himself or his agent make oath before the clerk of the police court of the District of Columbia that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that any of his registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, are being filled, used, bought, trafficked in, held, sold, offered for sale, broken, injured, or destroyed within the District of Columbia contrary to the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211, inclusive, by any person without the written consent of the registrant the judge of the police court to whom said complaint under oath is made may forthwith issue a search warrant directed to any police officer or other proper officer to search the premises whereon or wherein said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers are unlawfully held and may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person complained against; and if any one or more of such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or any parts of the same, shall be found upon the premises by the officer executing the said search warrant, he shall seize and take possession of all such registered milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers, or parts thereof, and shall cause the same to be brought before the judge of the police court, who shall award the said registered milk bottles, cans, crates, and other containers to the person entitled to the same. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 810, ch. 737, § 5.)

No title may be acquired to any mark, name, or device, or any milk bottle, can, crate, or other container registered in accordance with sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive except by the consent in writing of the person who registered the same. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 6.)

§ 48–207 [19: 167]. Rights of former registrants preserved.

All persons who prior to July 3, 1926, registered any milk bottles, cans, crates, or other containers in accordance with the laws existing at the time of said registration shall be exempted from filing a new description in accordance with the terms of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, and shall be entitled to the rights and benefits accruing under sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive in the same manner as if said registration was made in accordance with sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive: Provided, That a copy of said registration duly certified by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia was within thirty days from and after July 3, 1926, filed in the health office of the District of Columbia. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 7.)

Whenever the word "person" is used in sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, it shall apply equally as well to one or more persons, copartnerships, and corporations. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 8.)

§ 48–209 [19: 169]. Type of containers to which law is applicable.

The provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall apply to all bottles, cans, crates, and other containers in which milk or cream of any grade, quality, or character is sold or offered for sale and shall include bottles, cans, crates, and other containers in which skimmed milk, buttermilk, double cream, and sour milk are sold. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 9.)

§ 48–210 [19: 170]. Prosecutions—Penalties.

The violation of any of the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall be a misdemeanor, and prosecutions for violations of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, shall be in the police court of the District of Columbia. Upon conviction of a violation of the provisions of sections 48–201 to 48–211 inclusive, the penalty shall be a fine of not more than $50 for the first offense and a fine of not more than $100 for the second and each subsequent offense. (July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 811, ch. 737, § 10.)

Sec.

48–401. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.
48–402. Use of registered label restricted.
48–403. Penalties.

§ 48–401 [19: 191]. Adoption of label authorized—Registration—Assignment prohibited.

A union or association of employees in the District of Columbia may adopt a device in the form of a label, brand, mark, name, or other character for the purpose of designating the products of the labor of the members thereof. A drawing of such device may be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia and the clerk shall register same in a book to be provided for such purpose and be entitled to collect $1 for each registration. A certified copy of the drawing so registered may be obtained from the clerk upon the payment of $1 for each certification. Such certificate shall not be assignable by the union or association to whom it is issued. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 1.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

§ 48–402 [19: 192]. Use of registered label restricted.

No person shall in any way use or display the label, brand, mark, name, or other character adopted by any such union or association as provided in section 48–401 without the consent or authority of such union or association; or counterfeit or imitate any such label, brand, mark, name, or other character, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor, upon which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, stamped, or impressed, or knowingly sell, dispose of, keep, or have in his possession with intent to sell or dispose of any goods, wares, merchandise, or other products of labor contained in any box, case, can, or package, to which or on which any such counterfeit or imitation is attached, affixed, printed, painted, stamped, or impressed. If copies of such device have been filed, the union or association may maintain an action in the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia to enjoin the manufacture, use, display, or sale of counterfeit or colorable imitations of such device, or of goods bearing the same, or the unauthorized use or display of such device or of goods bearing the same, and the court may restrain such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale, and every unauthorized use or display by others of the genuine devices so registered and filed, if such use or display is not authorized by the owner thereof, and may award to the plaintiff such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be proved, together with the profits derived therefrom. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 50, ch. 47, § 2.)

§ 48–403 [19: 193]. Penalties.

A person violating any of the provisions of section 48–402 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 18, 1932, 47 Stat. 51, ch. 47, § 3.)

The functions vested by sections 49–101 to 49–108, inclusive, in the Committee on Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives may from time to time be vested in such other agency as the Congress may by concurrent resolution provide: Provided, That the printing, binding, and distribution of the volumes and publications enumerated in section 49–101 shall be done under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing. (Mar. 2, 1929, 45 Stat. 1542, ch. 586, § 7.)

STATUTORY REFERENCE

This section is in U. S. C., title 1, § 54d.

§ 49–110 [20: 42]. Exchange and sale of building, police, plumbing, and municipal regulations.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to issue in their discretion, without charge, to officers and the judiciary of the government of the District of Columbia, and to other officers of the government, and to institutions of learning, and to state and city officials, by way of documentary exchange, copies of building, police, plumbing, and other municipal regulations made and published by them in their official capacity, not exceeding in all one hundred copies, and the remainder of such publications shall only be disposed of by sale at not less than the cost price and ten per centum thereof; and all moneys received from the sale of said regulations shall be paid for each fiscal year into the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia unless otherwise provided by law. (Feb. 25, 1910, 36 Stat. 208, ch. 62; Mar. 4, 1911, 36 Stat. 1299, ch. 240; Feb. 22, 1921, 41 Stat. 1144, ch. 70, § 7; acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249, § 1.)

COMPILER'S NOTE

Acts 1922, 42 Stat. 668, ch. 249, § 1, provided as follows: "Annually, from and after July 1, 1922, 60 per centum of such expenses of the District of Columbia as Congress may appropriate for shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia derived from taxation and privileges, and the remaining 40 per centum by the United States excepting such items of expense as Congress may direct shall be paid on another basis, * * *; and that after June 30, 1922, any revenue derived from any activity or source whatever, including motor-vehicle licenses, not otherwise herein disposed of, which activity or source of revenue is appropriated for by both the United States and the District of Columbia, shall be divided between the two in the same proportion that each has contributed thereto."

The appropriation act of June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 539, ch. 302, § 1, made a lump-sum appropriation as follows: "Any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1923, namely:"

Subsequent appropriation acts contained similar provisions, changing only the amount of the appropriation and the fiscal year (see act of June 12, 1940, 54 Stat. 307, ch. 333, § 1). These appropriation acts did not, however, provide for the repeal of the provisions of the 1922 act above quoted. This was done by the act of May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, § 8, which added Title 10 to the District of Columbia Revenue Act of 1937, 50 Stat. 673, ch. 690.

From the foregoing it would seem that there is no longer any apportionment of expenses or segregation of revenues unless specific provision is made therefor by Congress subsequent to the repeal provision.

§ 49–111 [20: 43]. Disposition of compilation of laws affecting District of Columbia.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia, after supplying each of the heads of the several departments and offices of the government and the judiciary of said District with the necessary copies of the bound editions of the laws affecting said District, which are prepared in the office of the secretary of the board at the close of each session of Congress, may sell the surplus volumes at a rate per volume to be fixed by them, approximating but not less than the pro rata cost of compilation, and deposit all money so received to the credit of the appropriation out of which such cost is paid. (Mar. 1, 1901, 31 Stat. 826, ch. 670.)

Chapter 2.—RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

Sec.
49–201. Rules stated.
49–202. Words importing singular number to include plural.
49–203. Masculine gender to include all genders.
49–204. Person to include partnerships and corporations.
49–205. Executor to include administrator.
49–206. Oath to include affirmation.
49–207. Insane person and lunatic.

§ 49–201 [1: 11]. Rules stated.

In the interpretation and construction of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1189) the following rules shall be observed, namely: (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble).

Compiler's Note

The rules of construction contained in sections 49–202 to 49–207 are applicable only to that portion of this code that was included in the District of Columbia Code of 1901 (act of Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854).

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Effect of Amendment

The amendment of an act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not amend away or modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (52 App. D. C. 310, 286 Fed. 772).

Particular and General Provisions

Upon appeal to decide conflict between two sections, held that, "where there is in the same statute, a particular enactment, and also a general one, which in its most comprehensive sense, would include what is embraced in the former, the particular enactment must be operative, and the general enactment must be taken to affect only such cases within its general language as are not within the provisions of the particular enactment." Tri-State Motor Corp. v. Standard Steel Car Co. (51 App. D. C. 109, 276 Fed. 631).

§ 49–202 [1: 12]. Words importing singular number to include plural.

Words importing the singular number shall be held to include the plural, and vice versa, except where such construction would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49–203 [1: 13]. Masculine gender to include all genders.

Words importing the masculine gender shall be held to include all genders, except where such construction would be absurd or unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49–204 [1: 14]. Person to include partnerships and corporations.

The word "person" shall be held to apply to partnerships and corporations, unless such construction would be unreasonable, and the reference to any officer shall include any person authorized by law to perform the duties of his office, unless the context shows that such words were intended to be used in a more limited sense. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49–205 [1: 15]. Executor to include administrator.

Wherever the word "executor" is used it shall include "administrator," and vice versa, unless such application of the term would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49–206 [1: 16]. Oath to include affirmation.

Wherever an oath is required an affirmation in judicial form, if made by a person conscientiously scrupulous about taking an oath, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

§ 49–207 [1: 17]. Insane person and lunatic.

The words "insane person" and "lunatic" shall include every idiot, non compos, lunatic, and insane person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, preamble.)

Chapter 3.—LAWS REMAINING IN FORCE

Sec.
49–301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.
49–302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.
49–303. Vestries.
49–304. Repeal provisions of 1901 Code.

§ 49–301 [1: 21]. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.

The common law, all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the principles of equity and admiralty, all general Acts of Congress not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia, and all Acts of Congress by their terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, in force in the District of Columbia on March 3, 1901, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with, or are replaced by, subsequent legislation of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1.)

Compiler's Notes

This section is affected by § 1640 of the act of March 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1436, ch. 854, which saved from repeal any municipal ordinance or regulation in force on January 1, 1902, except in so far as the same were inconsistent with or replaced by some provisions of that act.

In accord with this section, a number of early British statutes have been incorporated in this Code.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Decisions Under Prior Law

Act of January 15, 1897 (29 Stat. 487) and § 330 of ch. 14 of the Federal Penal Code permitting jury to qualify verdict of guilty in cases of murder and rape are superseded by code. Johnson v. United States (38 App. D. C. 347, affd. 225 U. S. 405, 56 L. Ed. 1142, 32 Sup. Ct. 748).

In General

This section is a general legislative declaration in affirmance of preexisting decisions upon the subject. Moss v. United States (23 App. D. C. 475).

Act of Maryland Legislative Assembly of 1723, ch. 16, § 10 (Abert's Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 176), relative to Sunday work does not apply in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Robinson (30 App. D. C. 283).

Section 1 of D. C. 1901 provided as judicial bases for determination of District of Columbia laws, British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the common law, and principles of equity. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.–D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

Arrest Without Warrant

In the District, and at common law, an officer may not arrest for misdemeanor without warrant unless it is committed in his presence or within his view. Maghan v. Jerome (67 App. D. C. 9, 88 Fed. (2d) 1001).

British Statutes

The provision of D. C. 1901, relating to British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, was intended by Congress to mean those British statutes to the benefit of which Maryland inhabitants were entitled under the Maryland Declaration of Rights of 1776, and did not incorporate in the District of Columbia law, as amending the common law or otherwise, British statutes enacted between 1776 and 1801. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.–D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

The common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, remain in force, in District of Columbia, except insofar as they are inconsistent with or are repealed by subsequent legislation of Congress. U. S. v. Davis (App. D. C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed 167 F. 2d 228, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

Common Law

As to common-law crimes and jurisdiction to try the same, see Palmer v. Lenovitz (35 App. D. C. 303).

Common law as to surface waters prevails. Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. Thomas (37 App. D. C. 255).

Common-law method of procuring talesman in capital cases when regular panel is exhausted. Milano v. United States (40 App. D. C. 379).

"Except as 'repealed by express statutory provision, or modified by inconsistent legislation, or where it has become obsolete or unsuited to our republican form of government, the common law of England in all its branches, both civil and criminal, remains to-day the law of the District of Columbia * * *.'" Lisner v. Hughes (49 App. D. C. 40, 258 Fed. 512) citing De Forest v. United States (11 App. D. C. 466).

Common law held to prevail in the District of Columbia as to descent of property. Cunningham v. Rodgers (50 App. D. C. 51, 267 Fed. 609).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable to the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.–D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921).

The provision in § 1 of the D. C. 1901, that the common law shall remain in force in the District of Columbia, intended the common law of England as it existed in Maryland on Feb. 27, 1801, and so far as it had not become obsolete or unsuited to our conditions, and it was not identical with the common law of England. Burdick v. Burdick ((D. C.–D. C.), 33 Fed. Supp. 921); United States v. Griffith (55 App. D. C. 123, 2 Fed. (2d) 925).

Under the provision of the District of Columbia Code of 1901, now incorporated in this section, stating that the common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, shall remain in force, and under Maryland's Original Declaration of Rights of 1776 providing that the inhabitants of Maryland were entitled to the common law of England and to the benefit of applicable English statutes existing at the time of their first emigration, the "common law" of the District does not embrace an English case of 1799 or 1805 and an English statute passed in 1800. Gertman v. Burdick, 1942 (123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, reversing 33 F. Supp. 921, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

The common law, both civil and criminal, except as repealed by express statutory provision or modified by inconsistent legislation, remains the law of the District of Columbia. Elmhurst v. Shoreham Hotel (D. C., D. C. 1945, 58 F. Supp. 484).

All common-law offenses not covered by statute in force in District Court of Columbia are still recognized as crimes in the District and are punishable as such. U. S. v. Davis (App. D. C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed 167 F. 2d 228, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

The common law offense of negligent escape remains a crime in the District of Columbia by virtue of this section. U. S. v. Davis (App. D. C. 1948, 167 F. 2d 228).

Compact Between Maryland and Virginia

The compact between Maryland and Virginia as to shores of the Potomac River is not in force in District. United States ex rel. Greathouse v. Hurley (61 App. D. C. 360, 63 Fed. (2d) 137).

Conspiracy Against United States

The Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District of Columbia sitting as a criminal court had jurisdiction to try an indictment for conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States. Pitts v. Peak (60 App. D. C. 195, 50 Fed. (2d) 485).

Costs, Laws Relating to

Section 815 of Title 28, U. S. C., disallowing costs to plaintiff recovering less than $500 in action brought in District Court of United States where jurisdictional amount exceeds such sum is applicable to District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Silverman v. Central Amusement Co. (D. C., D. C. 1943, 49 F. Supp. 364).

DECISIONS OF MARYLAND COURTS

Decisions of Maryland courts, being founded upon general principles, and made since the organization of the District of Columbia, are not binding upon the courts of the District as authorities, though entitled to all the respect due to the opinions of the highest court of the State. Phillips v. Negley (117 U. S. 665, 29 L. Ed. 1013, 6 Sup. Ct. 901).

Decisions of Maryland, giving to the statutes of that state a construction at variance with that which prevailed at the time of the cession of the District of Columbia, does not control the decision of Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District as to the effect of those statutes on the territory within the District. Morris v. United States (174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946, 19 Sup. Ct. 649).

Maryland statutes and Maryland decisions of date later than 1801 do not constitute the "law" of the District of Columbia but later decisions of the Court of last resort of Maryland may be looked to for assistance, not merely in interpreting the law which was inherited from that state by the District of Columbia, but also in interpreting later statutes of the district which are the same or closely similar to those of Maryland. Watkins v. Rives, 1942 (125 F. 2d 33, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 109).

ESPIONAGE ACT

Provisions of the Espionage Act apply in the District of Columbia in a case of a violation of a United States statute applicable only to the District. Nuckols v. United States (69 App. D. C. 120, 99 Fed. (2d) 353).

FULL FAITH AND CREDIT

When rights have ripened into a judgment of a court in another state, the full faith and credit clause applies and courts of the District are bound, equally with courts of the states, to observe the command of the full faith and credit clause, wherever applicable. Loughran v. Loughran (292 U. S. 216, 78 L. Ed. 1219, 54 Sup. Ct. 684).

LAWS OF MARYLAND

Laws of Maryland derive their force, in this district, under 2 Stat. 103, ch. 15, §§ 1, 3, 5. But this section which gives effect to those laws, does not amount to a reenactment of them, so as to sustain them, under the powers of exclusive legislation, given to Congress over this district. This act could only give to those laws that force which they previously had in this tract under the laws of Maryland. Bank of Columbia v. Okely (4 Wheat. (17 U. S.) 235, 4 L. Ed. 559).

By this act it is provided that the laws of the State of Maryland, as they then existed, should be and continue in force in that part of the district which was ceded by that State to the United States. Lee v. Lee (8 Pet. (33 U. S.) 44, 8 L. Ed. 860).

Congress by this act provided that the laws of Maryland shall be and continue in force in that part of the District which was ceded by that State to the United States. Clawans v. Sheetz (67 App. D. C. 366, 92 Fed. (2d) 517).

The law of wills and probate as existing in Maryland on February 27, 1801, is the law of the District of Columbia except as altered by Congress. In re Lee's Estate (D. C., (D. C. 1948, 80 F. Supp. 293).

LAWS OF VIRGINIA

Under this act the laws of Virginia, as they then existed, were declared to be and continue in force in that part of the District of Columbia which was ceded by that State to the United States, and by them accepted for the permanent seat of government; and all suits, process, etc., depending in the court of hustings for the town of Alexandria, were transferred to the circuit court of the District. Turner v. Fendall (1 Cranch. (5 U. S.) 117, 2 L. Ed. 53).

Right of Virginia to legislate for the District did not cease or determine until 27th of February 1801. Young v. Bank of Alexandria (4 Cranch. (8 U. S.) 384, 2 L. Ed. 655).

PENDING SUITS

In the matter of procedure or practice, pending suits must be governed by the provisions of the code where the procedure does not affect the substantial rights of parties, but where the procedure does affect the substantial rights of parties, the code shall not apply as to the pending suits, but only the old law. Thus, U. S. C., title 28, §§ 512 and 513, relating to District of Columbia, were kept in force by § 1638 of the code of 1901. Costello v. Palmer (20 App. D. C. 210).

SELECTION OF JURORS

The code supersedes prior law relative to selection of grand and petit jurors. Clark v. United States (19 App. D. C. 295).

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Statute of limitations, R. S. § 1044, held applicable to contempts in the District of Columbia. Gompers v. United States (233 U. S. 604, 58 L. Ed. 1119, 34 Sup. Ct. 693, rev'g 40 App. D. C. 293).

TRIAL BY JURY

Common-law offense of reckless driving is a crime within the constitutional provision for a trial by jury. Colts v. District of Columbia (59 App. D. C. 224, 38 Fed. (2d) 535).

WRIT OF CERTIORARI

No statute has been passed enlarging the scope of the common-law writ of certiorari in the District, and when sought between private persons, the writ will be granted or denied, in the sound discretion of the court. United States ex rel. Eure v. Borden (65 App. D. C. 84, 80 Fed. (2d) 527).

§ 49–302 [1: 22]. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.

All laws and ordinances of the City of Washington, and of the levy court of the District of Columbia, except as modified or repealed by Congress or the legislative assembly of the District since June 1, 1871, or until so modified or repealed, remain in full force. (R. S., D. C., § 91; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 338, § 4; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Act of legislative assembly, D. C., August 23, 1871, for prevention of cruelty to animals, was not repealed by section 1636 (§ 49–304) as "that section expressly saves from repeal all acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia relating to 'police regulations.'" Johnson v. District Court (30 App. D. C. 520).

§ 49–303 [1: 23]. Vestries.

All acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 1636, par. 9, as added June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 546, ch. 1329.)

§ 49–304. Repeal provisions of 1901 Code.

"Sec. 1636. All acts and parts of the general assembly of the State of Maryland general and permanent in their nature, all like acts and parts of acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia, and all like acts and parts of acts of Congress applying solely to the District of Columbia in force in said District on the day of the passage of this act are hereby repealed, except:

"First. Acts and parts of acts relating to the rights, powers, duties, or obligations of the United States.

"Second. Acts and parts of acts relating to the Court of Claims.

"Third. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization of the District government, or to its obligations, or the powers or duties of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or their subordinates or employees, or to police regulations, and generally all acts and parts of acts relating to municipal affairs only, including those regulating the charges of public-service corporations.

"Fourth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the militia.

"Fifth. All penal statutes authorizing punishment by fine only or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

"Sixth. Acts and parts of acts of Congress relating solely to the Departments of the General Government in the District of Columbia, or any of them.

"Seventh. Acts or parts of acts authorizing, defining, and prescribing the organization, powers, duties, fees, and emoluments of the register of wills of the District of Columbia and his office.

"Eighth. An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the District of Columbia, approved June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight; an act for the regulation of the practice of dentistry in the District of Columbia, and for the protection of the people from empiricism in relation thereto, approved June sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act regulating the construction of buildings along alleyways in the District of Columbia, approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-two; an act for the promotion of anatomical science, and to prevent the desecration of graves in the District of Columbia, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five; an act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of medical and dental colleges in the District of Columbia, approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act relating to the testimony of physicians in the courts of the District of Columbia, received by the President May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; an act to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery, to license physicians and surgeons, and to punish persons violating the provisions thereof in the District of Columbia, approved June third, eighteen hundred and ninety-six; and, generally, all acts or parts of acts relating to medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, the commitment of the insane to the Government Hospital for the Insane in the District of Columbia, the abatement of nuisances, and public health.

"Ninth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination.

"All acts and parts of acts included in the foregoing exceptions, or any of them, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this code."

"Sec. 1637. The incorporation into this code of any general and permanent provision taken from an act making appropriations, or from an act containing other provisions of a private or temporary character, shall not repeal nor in any way affect any appropriation or any provision of a private or temporary character contained in any of said acts, but the same shall remain in force."

"Sec. 1638. The repeal by the preceding section of any statute, in whole or in part, shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause before such repeal, but all rights and liabilities under the statutes or parts thereof so repealed shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if such repeal had not been made: Provided, That the provisions of this code relating to procedure or practice and not affecting the substantial rights of parties shall apply to pending suits or proceedings civil or criminal."

"Sec. 1639. The enactment of this code is not to affect or repeal any act of Congress which may be passed between the date of this act and the date when this act is to go into effect; and all acts of Congress that may be passed hereafter are to have full effect as if passed after the enactment of this code, and, so far as such acts may vary from or conflict with any provision contained in this code, they are to have effect as subsequent statutes and as repealing any portion of this act inconsistent therewith."

"Sec. 1640. Nothing in the repealing clause of this code contained shall be held to affect the operation or enforcement in the District of Columbia of the common law or of any British statute in force in Maryland on the twenty-seventh day of February, eighteen hundred and one, or of the principles of equity or admiralty, or of any general statute of the United States not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia or by its terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or of any municipal ordinance or regulation, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with, or is replaced by, some provision of this code."

"Sec. 1641. All offenses committed and all penalties or forfeitures incurred in the District prior to the date on which this code is to take effect may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if this code had not been enacted."

"Sec. 1642. Where any action or proceeding by the provisions of chapter forty-one of this code would be barred at the time it goes into effect, or within one year thereafter, which would not be so barred by prior laws, such action or proceeding may be brought or instituted within such period of one year, anything in said chapter to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Sec. 1643. That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the term of office of any judicial or other officer holding office when this code goes into effect and operation, except when, as in the case of the present justices of the peace and constables, a contrary intention is manifested."
